MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the

LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY

at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library

http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied

(searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

LEGISLATIVE RECORD

OF THE

One Hundred And Fifteenth Legislature

OF THE

State Of Maine

VOLUME VII

SECOND REGULAR SESSION
Senate
March 10, 1992 to March 31, 1992
Index

SECOND CONFIRMATION SESSION
May 20, 1992
Index

THIRD CONFIRMATION SESSION
August 19, 1992
Index

THIRD SPECIAL SESSION
October 1, 1992 to October 6, 1992
Index

FOURTH SPECIAL SESSION
October 16, 1992
Index

FOURTH CONFIRMATION SESSION
November 19, 1992
Index

HOUSE AND SENATE LEGISLATIVE SENTIMENTS
December 5, 1990 to December 1, 1992

LEGISLATIVE SENTIMENTS

OF THE

One Hundred And Fifteenth Legislature

OF THE

House of Representatives

APPENDIX TO THE LEGISLATIVE RECORD
115TH MAINE LEGISLATURE

The following expressions of Legislative Sentiment appeared in the House Calendar between December 5, 1990 and March 31, 1992 pursuant to Joint Rule 34: (These sentiments are dated December 5, 1990, through December 1, 1992.)

John Lisnik, for 10 years of outstanding legislative service to Aroostook County; (HLS 1)

Joseph and Leila Dube, of Livermore Falls, on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary; (HLS 2)

Doris Ouellette, of Livermore Falls, recipient of a certificate of appreciation by the American Heart Association, for her outstanding efforts to advance the heart program and promote public awareness about diseases of the heart and circulation; (HLS 3)

Nathan Cohen, of Eastport, on the occasion of his retirement as Chairman of the Eastport City Council, whose 40 years of state and local public service is appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 4)

Dr. V. Wilson Hickam, of Waterville, for 25 years of outstanding service to the Calvary Temple Church and school, and the surrounding community; (HLS 5)

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hood, of Fairfield, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (HLS 6)

Leroy E. Philbrook, of Boy Scout Troop #214 in Thomaston, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 7)

Reginald G. Kimball, devoted husband and father, whose unexpected death has saddened many in the greater Millinocket area. Mr. Kimball was an Army Air Force veteran of World War II, and was retired from the Federal Aviation Administration. He was also active in many organizations including Nollsemic Lodge No. 205 AF & AM, Onawa Chapter No. 130 OES, the Anah Temple Shrine of Bangor, and the Katahdin Aero Club; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 8)

Olivine T. Malone, beloved wife of Allen F. Malone, Sr., for 47 years, whose death has deeply saddened family and friends. Mrs. Malone was a citizen of Millinocket and member of the Faith Baptist Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 9)

Betty J. Michaud, devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, whose death has deeply saddened family and friends. Mrs. Michaud was a citizen of Millinocket where she worked with her husband, Elliot G. Michaud, in the operation of their family business; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 10)

Mary Moscone Manzo, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, whose death has saddened many. Mrs. Manzo was a lifelong resident of Millinocket and a member of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 11)

Kelly Foss, a student at Biddeford High School, who has been named to the 1st team of the Class A All-State Field Hockey Team; (HLS 12)

Steven Rollins, of Pittsfield, whose quick and heroic action saved the life of a 5-year-old child who fell into the icy waters of Mill Pond; (HLS 13)

Ernest L. Maloney, of Port Clyde, and in extending our warmest wishes on his 100th birthday, January 6, 1991. Mr. Maloney's industry, honesty and friendliness have earned him the lasting respect and affection of his townspeople; (HLS 14)

Paul and Jeannine Bouchard, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Bouchard were married in the St. Joseph's Parish Church in Wallagrass, Maine, on November 10, 1940; (HLS 15)

Carol L. Bond, and in extending our best wishes upon her retirement from 33 years of dedicated teaching; (HLS 16)

the Town of Casco and its citizens, on the 150th anniversary of its founding and the year-long sesquicentennial celebration commemorating the historic event; (HLS 17)

Helen Farquhar, on the occasion of her 90th birthday, December 23, 1990; (HLS 18)

Margaret A. Carr, on the occasion of her 90th birthday, December 24, 1990; (HLS 19)

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boyer, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, January 5, 1991; (HLS 20)

Kathy Gagne, of Greenville, winner of Runner-up Team Honors in her age group of the Athletic Congress Junior Olympics held on December 8, 1990, in Omaha, Nebraska; (HLS 21)

Travis Winston Williams, of Shirley, on attaining the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 22)

Francis Gray, of Bangor, an outstanding student who scored in the 99th percentile of the Maine Educational Assessment Tests; (HLS 23)

Dr. Moshe Myerowitz, of Bangor, winner of 3 Gold Medals as Race Walker of the Year in the National Track and Field News Championships; (HLS 24)

the Town of Corinna and its citizens, on the 175th anniversary of its founding; (HLS 25)

Erica Velyea, of Waldoboro, winner of Runner-up Team Honors in her age group of the Athletic Congress Junior Olympics held on December 8, 1990, in Omaha, Nebraska; (HLS 26)

Katherine Chabot, of Livermore Falls, winner of Runner-up Team Honors in her age group of the Athletic Congress Junior Olympics held on December 8, 1990, in Omaha, Nebraska; (HLS 27)

Mr. and Mrs. Emile J. Richard, of Livermore Falls, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (HLS 28)

Theresa Pratt, of Livermore Falls, Cross-country

Silver Medalist and winner of Runner-up Team Honors in her age group, in the Girls Division of the Athletic Congress Junior Olympics held on December 8, 1990, in Omaha, Nebraska; (HLS 29)

Margaret Inez Hart, of Fairfield, who has been named Employee of the Year by the Diocesan Human Relations Inc. for her honesty, caring, and unselfish dedication as a home aide; (HLS 30)

Jeremy Howard, a freshman at Mt. Blue High School in Farmington, winner of the National Cross Country Championship in his age group at the 1990 Junior Olympics held on December 8, 1990; (HLS 31)

Kelly Larson, a senior at Dover-Foxcroft Academy who, by virtue of her active involvement and outstanding participation in school and community affairs, has been named Good Citizen of the Year by the Daughters of the American Revolution; (HLS 32)

Gene Philpot, first recipient of the Penobscot Valley Conference-Penquis League Coach Award; (HLS 33)

Ethan Nedeau, of Nobleboro, a senior at Lincoln Academy, who placed 11th in the National Junior Olympics Cross-country Championship held in Omaha, Nebraska; (HLS 34)

Peter B. Catlin, of Boy Scout Troop #646 in Topsham, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 35)

Geoffrey B. Findon, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #436 in Waterville, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 36)

Laura A. Hayden, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 103rd birthday, January 6, 1991; (HLS 37)

Queenie C. Lovely, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, February 23, 1991; (HLS 38)

Rhonda DeLucia, of Hinckley, winner of Runner-up Team Honors in her age group of the Athletic Congress Junior Olympics held on December 8, 1990, in Omaha, Nebraska; (HLS 39)

E. Ward Logan, of Boothbay Harbor, who is retiring after 22 years of voluntary service with St. Andrews Hospital. Mr. Logan's many years of enthusiasm, vision, and unfailing good humor as member and president of the Board of Trustees exemplifies the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 40)

the Town Council, School Board, teachers, and community members of Old Orchard Beach, whose united efforts and years of commitment to education have achieved a standard of excellence worthy of recognition by the United States Office of Education in the National Schools for Excellence Program. Old Orchard Beach High School is one of 3 schools in Maine to be so recognized; (HLS 41)

Bernice Sterling, of Dover-Foxcroft, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 93rd birthday, January 17, 1991; (HLS 42)

Irma Rice, of Winthrop, who is retiring after 11 years of loyal and dedicated service as town clerk to the citizens of Winthrop; (HLS 43)

Robert Johanson, a distinguished citizen of North Whitefield, well-known for his dedicated support and active participation in many civic, social, fraternal and political organizations. Mr. Johanson was hailed as a Model Citizen by the Maine Legislature; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 44)

Patrick M. Kidder, of Boy Scout Troop #246 in Topsham, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 45)

Arthur E. Rankin, lifelong resident of Denmark, who was a state and community leader, having been a member of the 90th Legislature and a municipal officer for many years. Mr. Rankin was a builder and lumberman all his life and caretaker of the Moose Trail Lodge for 35 years; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 46)

Marguerite H. Smith, formerly of Falmouth, long-time owner and operator of the Smith Farm Restaurant, and former 8-year member of the Maine Legislature, whose success as a restaurateur and political leader earned her the respect and admiration of people throughout the State; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 47)

Winifred C. Galvin, of Millinocket, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, whose death has saddened family and friends. Mrs. Galvin was a charter member of Little Flower Circle No. 392, Daughters of Isabella of Millinocket; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 48)

Kevin Cougler, of Boy Scout Troop #419 in Madison, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 49)

Sterling Paul, a student at Narraguagus High School in Harrington, for his meritorious achievement on the Maine Educational Assessment Test. Sterling was among the 11 highest scoring students; (HLS 50)

Stephanie Shaw, a senior at Maine Central Institute in Pittsfield, who impressively scored her 1000th career point during a basketball game on January 14, 1991; (HLS 51)

Frank R. Kauffman, of Kittery, former colleague and respected community leader, who will be remembered for his outstanding service as a member of the Kittery School Board, Town Council and Board of Selectmen. Mr. Kauffman was a 2-term member of the House of Representatives; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 52)

Gerri Bowie, of Lisbon, chosen by the Lisbon Rotary Club as Citizen of the Year, for her outstanding community contributions and fine citizenship; (HLS 53)

Sr. Abella Corbin, Daughter of Wisdom, on her Golden Jubilee of Religious Profession, February 2, 1991, who served with distinction as a nurse in Africa, New York, Connecticut and Maine; (HLS 54)

Joseph Mattos, Principal of the James Bean Elementary School in Sidney, whose qualities beyond administrative competence and traditional educational leadership have earned him the 1990 Distinguished Principal Award presented by the United States Department of Education and the National Association of Elementary School Principals. Mr. Mattos is also one of 6 teachers to be honored with a Maine Educator Award presented for the first time by the Maine Department of Education; (HLS 55)

Helen Bouchard, of East Millinocket, on the occasion of her retirement after 20 years of dedicated service as a teacher to the children in School Administrative District #113; (HLS 56)

Sr. Cecile Ouellette, Daughter of Wisdom, on her Golden Jubilee of Religious Profession, February 2, 1991, who served with distinction as a nurse in Spain, New York and Maine; (HLS 57)

Jean C. Manning, of Augusta, honored recipient of a Lewis Hine Award presented by the National Child Labor Committee. Ms. Manning is one of 5 individuals to be nationally recognized for her exceptional volunteer efforts on behalf of America's youth. Her unyielding dedication to children and their families truly exemplifies the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 58)

Dr. and Mrs. Harold E. Bowie, of Durham, who celebrated the 70th anniversary of their marriage on January 22, 1991; (HLS 59)

Robert Cronk, of Southport, a Wiscasset High School teacher whose dedication, commitment and innovative contributions to technology education have earned him the 1991 Teaching Excellence Award presented by the Technology Education Association of Maine; (HLS 60)

Marshall Tarbell, recipient of the 1991 Eastport Area Chamber of Commerce Community Development Award, presented to a member of the business community for outstanding participation on behalf of the well-being of Eastport area residents; (HLS 61)

Richard E. Peltier, of Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 62)

Bangor and Aroostook Railroad Co., as it celebrates the beginning of its 100th year, February 13, 1991, and to hail its proud history and pay tribute to those who built and operated Bangor and Aroostook Railroad for a century; (HLS 63)

James C. Peary, of Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 64) the Second Grade Class of St. Joseph's School in Portland, for their caring contribution to the restoration of the Longfellow Monument; (HLS 65)

the Academic Team of Windham Junior High School, which placed first among Maine schools competing in the Knowledge Master Open and in the top 10% of middle schools nationwide; (HLS 66)

Albert Watt, recipient of the Outstanding Citizen of the Year Award presented by the Limestone Chamber of Commerce and Limestone Rotary Club, for his dedication as an educator and outstanding participation as a member of many state and local organizations; (HLS 67)

Timothy Tiess, of Boy Scout Troop #51 in Dexter, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 68)

Benjamin Thomas, of Boy Scout Troop #51 in Dexter, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 69)

Laura Hatch, of Castine, who has won the gratitude and respect of her community for her dedicated municipal service as Treasurer and Tax Collector for 30 years. As an expression of appreciation upon her retirement, the Town of Castine has designated January 28th as "Laura Hatch Day;" (HLS 70)

Bernard Phillip Fortin, of Vassalboro, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 71)

EMCM(SS) Francis A. Piechowski, of Georgetown, upon the occasion of his transfer to the fleet reserve after completing 29 years of faithful and dedicated naval service; (HLS 72)

EWC(SW) Lawrence M. Lewis, of Phippsburg, upon the occasion of his transfer to the fleet reserve after completing 20 years of faithful and dedicated naval service; (HLS 73)

Hilda M. Brown, of Bethel, upon her retirement after 34 dedicated years as Food Service Director for School Administrative District #44; (HLS 74)

Robert Liberty, whose outstanding community service and dedication to the betterment of the greater Rockland and Thomaston areas have earned him the 1991 Person of the Year Award presented by the Rockland - Thomaston Area Chamber of Commerce; (HLS 75)

Mark Leonard, of Boy Scout Troop #25 in Hermon, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 76)

Mr. and Mrs. Orman Gerry, of Dexter, who celebrated the 65th anniversary of their marriage on November 25, 1990; (HLS 77)

Harriet L. Davis, of Eastport, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, February 24, 1991; (HLS 78)

Harry K. Eastman, of Fryeburg, for 38 years of dedicated service to the Clarence E. Mulford Trust, a charity fund serving the Pequawket Valley; (HLS 79)

the following cheerleaders and coaches of the Shead Memorial High School Cheerleading Team, 1991 Class D State Champions: Beth Austin, Jeff Frankland, Sherri Metcalf, Jennifer Bishop, Heather Brown, Susan Segein, Jana Craig, Michelle Pulk, Miki Deschene, Kendra McDonald, Tina Cummings and Debbie Pottle; and coaches Glenna Austin, Theresa Condelmo and Candace Testa; (HLS 80)

Bernard Sean Winkley, former Windsor resident and warrant officer for the United States Marine Corps, whose sacrifice will not be forgotten and whose memory as a patriot will be forever held in the hearts and minds of so many; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 81)

Amos Roberts, of Troop #65 in Corinna, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 82)

Bette J. Swett-Thibeault, recipient of the 1991 Educational Leader of the Year Award presented by the Maine Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development for her outstanding educational leadership and significant contribution to curriculum and instruction; (HLS 83)

Eric Hindmarsh, of Boy Scout Troop #192 at Loring Air Force Base, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 84)

Mark Nolte, of Boy Scout Troop #192 at Loring Air Force Base, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 85)

Verlie Greenleaf, of Westport Island, and in extending our best wishes on the honored occasion of her 100th birthday, February 19, 1991; (HLS 86)

Presque Isle High School, which has attained a standard of excellence worthy of recognition by the United States Department of Education's national Schools of Excellence Program. Presque Isle High School is one of 278 schools nationwide to be so recognized; (HLS 87)

J. Hollis Wyman, of Milbridge, nationally known blueberry magnate and influential 11-term Republican member of the Maine Senate, whose devotion to farming the barrens and bays of Washington County is legendary; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 88)

Theo Pozzy, of Bangor, and paying tribute to him for his many years of community service as we join in the celebration of his 90th birthday; (HLS 89)

Christopher Martin, a senior at Madawaska High School, winner of the Maine State Class C Wrestling Championship in the 152-lb. weight class; (HLS 90)

Eula Kelley, of Warren, and in extending our best wishes on the honored occasion of her 100th birthday, March 28, 1991; (HLS 91)

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Estes, of St. George, and in extending our best wishes on the honored occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, March 29, 1991; (HLS 92)

Gary Hyvarinen, of St. George, and in acknowledging our appreciation for 30 years of faithful and dedicated service to the Maine Department of Corrections at the Maine State Prison; (HLS 93)

Kathleen Parker, for more than 35 years of outstanding community service as founder of and active participant in Sunrise Opportunities Inc., a nonprofit organization assisting the disabled and mentally retarded citizens of Machias and Calais; (HLS 94)

Dexter Regional Federal Credit Union, and in extending our best wishes for its continued success as it celebrates the 25th anniversary of its founding, April 21, 1991; (HLS 95)

the State of Vermont, on the bicentennial anniversary of its joining the Federal Union as the first state after the thirteen colonies on March 4, 1791, in recognition of our shared values of integrity and self-reliance and our common roots of town meeting self-government, and in extending our best wishes to the good citizens throughout the Green Mountain State as they celebrate this special occasion; (HLS 96)

Omar and Theresa Holt, and in extending our best wishes to a great couple on the occasion of their 40th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 97)

the Bangor High School Boys Swim Team, second place winners in the 1991 State of Maine Class A Championship; (HLS 98)

the Bangor High School Girls Swim Team, winners of the 1991 State of Maine Class A Championship; (HLS 99)

James R. Saunders, upon his retirement after nearly 4 years of outstanding and dedicated service as President of the Lewiston - Auburn Area Chamber of Commerce; (HLS 100)

the Rockland District High School Girls Basketball Team, undefeated this season for the first time in history; (HLS 101)

the Traip Academy Cheerleading Team, winners of the 1991 State of Maine Class C Cheerleading Championship; (HLS 102)

Bob Libby, of Buxton, who is concluding 10 years of professional, dedicated service as Town Assessor to Gorham and who, during those years, served twice as interim Town Manager; (HLS 103)

St. John's Federal Credit Union in Brunswick, and in extending our best wishes for continued success upon celebrating the 50th anniversary of its founding on February 16, 1991; (HLS 104)

John Spear, a senior at Thornton Academy, who has been selected to sing as a tenor in the All-State Choir; (HLS 105)

Katie Knull, a sophomore at Thornton Academy, who has been selected as the first chair flutist in the All-State Band; (HLS 106)

Danielle Sanschagrin, a senior at Thornton Academy, who has been selected to play bass clarinet for the All-State Band; (HLS 107)

Chris Paquette, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 2nd team offense of the Class A Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Football Team; (HLS 108)

Tom Langstaff, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 1st team defense and 2nd team defense of the Class A Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Football Team; (HLS 109)

Art Leveris, a student at Thornton Academy, who is the recipient of the Gatorade Circle of Champions Maine High School Football Player of the Year Award and who was named to the 1st team offense and 2nd team offense of the Class A Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Football Team; (HLS 110)

the Millinocket Middle School "MathCounts" Team, this year's first place winners in the regional finals of the national MATHCOUNTS competition held at the University of Maine; (HLS 111)

Harvey Neal, Jr., and Maxine Neal, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on February 23, 1991; (HLS 112)

Richard Charity, of Boy Scout Troop #580 in Rumford, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 113)

the Cape Elizabeth High School "Capers" Boys Swim Team, winners of the 1991 Class A State Swim Championship; (HLS 114)

Ethel Torrey, a lifelong resident of Surry, who was presented with the town's Boston Post Gold Cane as Surry's oldest citizen; (HLS 115)

Karl Lance Eschholz, of Brunswick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 116)

Jim Hadley, of Sanford, a world-renowned tae kwon do instructor and sixth-degree black belt who was elected to the International Black Belt Hall of Fame in 1989. Mr. Hadley was a mentor and confidant to the many whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 117)

Constance Longstaff Warren, of Sidney, whose years of tireless devotion and loyalty to her family, church and community have earned her the 1991 Maine Mother of the Year Award presented by the Maine chapter of American Mothers Inc.; (HLS 118)

Thomas Thornton, of Boy Scout Troop #609 in Windsor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 119)

Kevin Newman, of Boy Scout Troop #609 in Windsor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 120)

Jeffrey Folsom, of Boy Scout Troop #609 in Windsor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 121)

Mr. and Mrs. G. Vincent Cuozzo, of Bangor, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage, February 21, 1991; (HLS 122)

the Camden-Rockport High School Wrestling Team, co-winners of the 1991 Class B State Wrestling Championship; (HLS 123)

Becky Moholland, of the Calais Blue Devils Basketball Team, who impressively scored 1000 career points as a player for the team; (HLS 124)

the Wiscasset High School "Red Skins" Boys Basketball team, winners of the 1991 Western Maine Class C Championship; (HLS 125)

Andrew J. Durand, from Boy Scout Troop #677 in Farmingdale, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 126)

Laura Armstrong, a senior at Piscataquis Community High School in Guilford, who has been named Student of the Year and who has been chosen as the school's Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen for her dependability, leadership, service and patriotism; (HLS 127)

Terry Cummings, a senior at the University of Maine at Presque Isle, who scored his 2000th point as a player for the Owls basketball team and who is the highest scoring player in the history of the team; (HLS 128)

the Ashland Community High School "Hornets," winners of the 1991 Maine State Class D Girls Basketball Championship; (HLS 129)

Ida M. Harrington, of Patten, our respected colleague, who served as a member of the 98th, 99th, 100th and 101st Legislatures, a woman well known as a caring and dedicated citizen who provided sound leadership to the State of Maine; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 130)

Patrick Roy Bennett, first place winner in the Voice of America contest for Aroostook County sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars; (HLS 131)

Aaron Nelson, who is retiring after 14 years as Principal of Presque Isle High School, and whose commitment to educational excellence has earned the respect and gratitude of this community and State; (HLS 132)

Carroll William Hussey, of Alfred, whose decades of outstanding community service have gained him the respect and appreciation of the citizens of Alfred and York County. Mr. Hussey was an Executive Director of the York County Community Action Program during its formative years and is a prominent member of the Grange, the Masons, and the Shriners; (HLS 133)

Eric Kennedy, a senior at Maine Central Institute, who won the Maine State Class C Wrestling Championship for the second consecutive year and who was named Central Maine Wrestler of the Year by the Central Maine Morning Sentinel; (HLS 134)

Rachel F. Peltier, beloved wife of Frank Peltier of Houlton, a talented woman who enjoyed membership in many social organizations and who won the admiration and respect of her community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 135)

Jake Russell, a seventh grade student at Bristol School, whose quick action and ability to perform the Heimlich Maneuver were instrumental in saving the life of his companion; (HLS 136)

Donald E. Gilpatrick, of Standish, a law enforcement officer who served the citizens of Maine with dedication, courage and devotion; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 137)

Bobbi Jo Ward and Angela Castonguay, who were chosen from Livermore Falls High School as Mountain Valley Conference All Star Cheerleaders; (HLS 138)

Tina Richard, April Raymond and Nicki Finley, who were chosen from Jay High School as Mountain Valley Conference All Star Cheerleaders; (HLS 139)

Harold Souther, of Livermore Falls, whose success as a dairy farmer earned him the 1990 Production Award for the Guernsey breed presented by the Eastern Artificial Insemination Cooperative; (HLS 140)

Jody Smith, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 141)

Neal Sleeper, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 142)

Eric Hitchcock, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 143)

Ben Smith, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 144)

C. Scott Hoar, of Sanford, and extending our best wishes upon his retirement after nearly 4 decades as a York County correspondent for the Sanford Bureau of the Portland Press Herald newspaper; (HLS 145)

Emery "Legs" Labbe, of Fort Kent, on his retirement after 23 years of dedicated service on the Fort Kent Town Council; (HLS 146)

Raymond P. Potter, of Medway, our respected colleague, who served as a member of the House of Representatives during the 95th, 96th and 97th Legislatures; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 147)

Philip G. Michaud, a beloved family member and lifelong resident of Millinocket, whose death has deeply saddened family, friends and members of this community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 148)

Lucille Simpson, of Alfred, on the occasion of her retirement from the York County Community Action Corporation where she has served so faithfully in virtually every capacity, and upon her retirement from the Board of Directors of the York County Shelters, for whom she has been a constant source of meaningful direction and dedication to the poor; (HLS 149)

Catrina Rainey, a member of the Marshwood High School Girls Basketball Team, who was named Most Valuable Player of the 1991 Western Maine Class B Championship games; (HLS 150)

Coach Mike Lewis and members of the Marshwood High School Girls Basketball Team, winners of the 1991 Western Maine Class B Basketball Championship; (HLS 151)

Justin Cartier, of Boy Scout Troop #8, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 152)

Matthew Zembo, of Boy Scout Troop #8, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 153)

Tim Cote, a junior at Old Orchard Beach High School, who was chosen as one of 12 outstanding student musicians at the Berklee College of Music Jazz High School Ensemble Festival; (HLS 154)

Heather McNally, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 1991 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Girls Track Team in the Shot Put Event; (HLS 155)

Derek Martin, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 1991 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Boys Track Team in the 1000-yard Event; (HLS 156)

Tom Langstaff, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 1990 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Boys Track Team in the 300-meter Hurdles Event and the 1600-meter Relay Event, and who was named to the 1991 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Boys Track Team in the 600-yard Event; (HLS 157)

Krista Chute, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 1990 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Girls Track Team in the Discus Event; (HLS 158)

Mike Babcock, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 1990 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Boys Track Team in the 200-meter Event and the 1600-meter Relay Event; (HLS 159)

Kevin Cote, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 1990 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Boys Track Team in the 110-meter Hurdles Event; (HLS 160)

David Marquis, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 1990 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Boys Track Team in the 1600-meter Relay Event; (HLS 161)

Vanessa Riordan, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 1990 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Girls Track Team in the 100-meter Hurdles Event, and who was named to the 1991 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Girls Track Team in the 60-meter Hurdles Event; (HLS 162)

Paul Patterson, a student at Thornton Academy, who was named to the 1990 Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Boys Track Team in the 1600-meter Relay Event; (HLS 163)

Paul L. Nevers, of Norway, a man well known as a caring and dedicated citizen who took an active role in the civic, religious and political affairs of the community and who provided sound leadership as he served in his many capacities; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 164)

Ruby Paul, of Omaha, Nebraska, National President of the American Legion Auxiliary and a member of Millard Unit 374, a dedicated and extremely capable leader who has served her town, state and nation with distinction and who has always been willing to stand up and be counted to defend the liberties and freedoms that make this country such a great place to live; (HLS 165)

Scott Houle, of Boy Scout Troop #580 in Rumford, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 166)

Andrew Jankovich, a student at Medomak Valley High School, winner of the 1991 Maine State Class B Wrestling Championship in the 160-pound weight class; (HLS 167)

the Medomak Valley High School Wrestling Team, co-winners of the 1991 Maine State Class B Wrestling Championship; (HLS 168)

Jack Hannigan, of Eliot, who received the 1991 Fabyn Drake Award as Outstanding Citizen of the Year; (HLS 169)

Mildred Obrey, of Eliot, upon her retirement after 40 years of dedicated service as a teacher and as a member of School Administrative District #35 for 15 years; (HLS 170)

Eileen Skillings, President of the Department of Maine American Legion Auxiliary, member of Unit 17, Portland, Maine, a very gracious and capable lady who has served with distinction her city, state and nation and always stands ready to defend the freedoms and liberties that make this State and Nation such a great place to live; (HLS 171)

Gard W. Enman, Commander of the Department of Maine American Legion, member of Post 22, Lewiston, Maine, a dedicated and capable leader who has served with distinction his town, state and nation and who has always been ready to stand up and be counted to defend the principles that make this State and Nation such a great place in which to live; (HLS 172)

Sheyanne Davis, a sixth grade student at Livermore Falls Middle School, who won Honorable Mention for her poster in the 1991 Mothers Against Drunk Drivers Poster-Essay Contest; (HLS 173)

The Waldoboro Bank, F.S.B., which has provided a century of service to this community, and in extending our best wishes for continued success on the celebration of the 100th anniversary of its founding; (HLS 174)

Monica Goyette, a senior at Windham High School who, for her academic achievement, leadership and citizenship, was chosen to represent Maine at the 1991 National Young Leaders Conference in Washington, District of Columbia; (HLS 175)

Stephanie Adams, a senior at Windham High School who, for her academic achievement, leadership and citizenship, was chosen to represent Maine at the 1991 National Young Leaders Conference in Washington, District of Columbia; (HLS 176)

Mark C. Tetreau, of Boy Scout Troop #58 in Cumberland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 177)

Christopher T. Powers, of Boy Scout Troop #58 in Cumberland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 178)

Krystie Nichols, a sixth grade student at Livermore Falls Middle School, who won 2nd place for her poster in the 1991 Mothers Against Drunk Drivers Poster-Essay Contest; (HLS 179)

Robert Joseph Leeman, of Boy Scout Troop #302 in Glenburn, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 180)

the Calais Memorial High School Boys Basketball Team, winners of the 1991 Eastern Maine Class C Boys Basketball Championship; (HLS 181)

the Calais Memorial High School Girls Basketball Team, winners of the 1991 Eastern Maine Class C Girls Basketball Championship; (HLS 182)

the York High School Boys Basketball Team, winners of the 1991 Western Maine Class B Boys Basketball Championship and the 1991 Maine State Class B Boys Basketball Championship; (HLS 183)

Lawrence and Phyllis James, of Mapleton, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, March 23, 1991; (HLS 184)

the descendants of Francois Sirois DuPlessis, the first Sirois-DuPlessis known to settle in North America in 1713, on the occasion of their family reunion in Madawaska on June 28th, 29th and 30th, 1991; (HLS 185)

the members of the Lawrence High School Girls Basketball Team and Coach Bruce Cooper, winners of the 1991 Maine State Class A Girls Basketball Championship; (HLS 186)

Percy and Laura Sprague, of Princeton, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary; (HLS 187)

Coach Marty Clark and the Old Town High School "Indians," winners of the 1991 Maine State Class A Boys Basketball Championship; (HLS 188)

Homer Ward, Sr., of Limestone, who served as a member of the 101st and 102nd Legislatures, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of his 90th birthday, March 18, 1991; (HLS 189)

Betty Tucker, of Buckfield, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, April 18, 1991; (HLS 190)

Thomas and Sarah Radcliff, of Poland, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, April 7, 1991; (HLS 191)

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Thompson, of Addison, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, March 15, 1991; (HLS 192)

the Oak Hill High School "Raiders," winners of the 1991 Mid-Maine Conference basketball title; (HLS 193)

Nicky Cyr, a student at Granite Street School in Millinocket, whose outstanding participation in the Multiple Sclerosis Readathon for the past 3 years has earned a total of $9,665. Nicky has this year read 20 books raising $3,675 and was the top fund-raiser in the state for the past 2 years; (HLS 194)

Governor Robert Newell and Governor Melvin Francis, the Joint Tribal Council and the Passamaquoddy Tribe of Indian Township and Pleasant Point, who developed the Passamaquoddy Technological Recovery Scrubber, and who received the 1991 Environmental Leadership Award presented by the New England Environmental Network of Tufts University. The Passamaquoddy Technology Recovery Scrubber is considered an environmental breakthrough that can turn polluting cement plants into a clean industry; (HLS 195)

Erica Thompson, a student at Thornton Academy, who has been named by the Daughters of the American Revolution as a "Good Citizen Senior" for her dependability, leadership, service and patriotism; (HLS 196)

Bruce W. McGray, of Eliot, on the occasion of his retirement after 19 years of dedicated service as Superintendent of School Administrative District #35; (HLS 197)

Jennifer Lynn Michaud, of Saint Agatha, who won the Greater Area Miss Madawaska Scholarship Pageant; (HLS 198)

Catherine Margot Sealy, a senior at Mt. Abram High School, whose academic achievement and outstanding citizenship have earned her the 1991 Principals' Award presented by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association; (HLS 199)

Albert and Alice Probert, of Strong, whose active community participation for over 25 years has earned them the 1990 Citizens of the Year Award; (HLS 200)

Elbert and Montress Lambert, longtime residents of Strong, who were chosen as Outstanding Citizens for 1990; (HLS 201)

Erin Sherburne, of Dexter, who is one of 6 Maine students selected to participate in the Music Educators National Conference Music Festival in Pittsburgh; (HLS 202)

Robert Clement, Assistant Principal of the Madison Area Memorial High School, who was named Assistant Principal of the Year by the Maine State Principals Association; (HLS 203)

David Keys, Coach of the Girls and Boys Little Pro Basketball teams, for 15 years of dedicated service to the youth of Millinocket; (HLS 204)

William "Bill" Appleby, who is retiring after 15 years of dedicated and unselfish service to the youth of Millinocket; (HLS 205)

Paul L. Hodgdon, of Westport Island, whose 53 years of dedicated and unselfish service to the citizens of Westport Island have earned the pride and gratitude of this community and State. Mr. Hodgdon has retired after serving as First Selectman for 27 years, Fire Chief for 23 years and as a member of the School Committee for 3 years; (HLS 206)

Florence Vasquez, of Steuben, and in extending our best wishes on the honored occasion of her 100th birthday, March 31, 1991; (HLS 207)

Clyde and Cora Cochran, of Woodland, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary, April 1, 1991; (HLS 208)

John Montgomery, a student at Millinocket Middle School, who in 2 years scored 1063 points as a basketball player for the team; (HLS 209)

the members of the Lewiston-Auburn Chamber of Commerce, for their contributions to improving the economic, social and cultural well-being of Androscoggin County and their commitment to assisting and meeting the challenges of the future; (HLS 210)

the Ashland Community High School "Hornets," winners of the 1990 Eastern Maine Class C Girls Softball Championship; (HLS 211)

Jamie Brooker, a fifth grade student at Aroostook Avenue School in Millinocket, who was chosen as a member of the Squirt Select Ice Hockey Team to represent Maine, the Penobscot Valley Hockey Conference and his home town in the Yankee Conference Festival Hockey Tournament; (HLS 212)

Manisha Pai, of Millinocket, who won top honors in the Northern Maine Penobscot League Spelling Bee; (HLS 213)

Elton Burgess, of Guilford, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of his 90th birthday, April 13, 1991; (HLS 214)

Jessi Beadnell, of Millinocket, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Stearns High School; (HLS 215)

Traci Bilodeau, of Millinocket, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Stearns High School; (HLS 216)

Howard Hawes, on the occasion of his retirement after 35 years of dedicated service as Fire Chief for the Town of Union. Mr. Hawes also served as a 2-term member of the House of Representatives and has actively participated in many community organizations; (HLS 217)

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McLaughlin, of Kingfield, on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary; (HLS 218)

Denise Durrell, a junior at Mt. Abram High School, who received the University of Maine Academic Achievement Award presented by the University of Maine at Orono; (HLS 219)

Forest Carey, a freshman at Carrabassett Valley Academy, whose outstanding ski performance won him the Rolex Junior III Olympic Title; (HLS 220)

Corey Ellis, a junior at Mt. Abram High School, who received the University of Maine Academic Achievement Award presented by the University of

Maine at Orono; (HLS 221)

Rita Gallant, of Hampden, the honored recipient of a 1991 Jefferson Award for outstanding service and dedication to her community. Ms. Gallant is an active member of St. Matthew's Parish in Hampden and gives her time, energy and caring as a volunteer for the Hampden Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army Dorothy Day Soup Kitchen and the Hospice of Eastern Maine; (HLS 222)

Jennifer Clark, a senior at Hermon High School, who was selected to receive the 1991 Principal's Award presented by the Maine Secondary School Principals Association for her outstanding academic achievement and citizenship; (HLS 223)

Matt Gaudet, a senior at Mountain Valley High School, who scored a school record of 1240 career points as a player for the basketball team and who was named Top Basketball Player in the State by the Maine Association of Basketball Coaches; (HLS 224)

the Spring Point Community Television Center SPTV, for its commitment to educating the citizens of South Portland concerning matters of public interest; (HLS 225)

Frances Johnson, in appreciation of 31 years of invaluable service to the Town of Harpswell and its citizens upon the occasion of her retirement from the positions of Town Clerk and Registrar of Voters; (HLS 226)

Mr. and Mrs. E. Leroy Souther, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on October 13, 1990; (HLS 227)

Carmelle Castonguay, of Livermore Falls, on the occasion of her 90th birthday, February 2, 1991; (HLS 228)

Terry Gildred, an eighth grade student at Williams Junior High School in Oakland, who won first place for his poster in the 1991 Mothers Against Drunk Drivers Poster-Essay Contest; (HLS 229)

Larry S. Cummings, of Madison, on the occasion of his retirement after 24 years of outstanding service as Game Warden for the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife, 3 years of which he served as Chief Game Warden. Mr. Cummings has won the lasting respect and affection of his community and colleagues; (HLS 230)

Reverend James E. Knox, of Holy Cross Parish in South Portland, upon his celebration of 40 years in the priesthood and for his devotion, dedication and love to his parishioners, the Diocese and his profession; (HLS 231)

Kimberly Sue Chatman, of Limestone, who won the statewide Pepsi Hotshot Foul Shooting Contest and who achieved the highest score of all age groups; (HLS 232)

Nancy Briggs Marshall, recipient of the Sugarloaf Area Chamber of Commerce Award presented for her outstanding contributions as a community volunteer; (HLS 233)

Barbara Williams, of Stratton, recipient of the Flora Ellis Award presented by the Sugarloaf Area Chamber of Commerce for her outstanding community service; (HLS 234)

Sheepscot Island Company, of MacMahan Island, upon the 100th Anniversary of its founding; (HLS 235)

Rachel Billings, of Lewiston, educator for 20 years, and founder of the "Just Say No" Program at McMahon Elementary School; (HLS 236) the members and coaches of the Scarborough High School Academic Decathlon Team, winners of the 1991 Maine State Academic Decathlon Championship; (HLS 237)

Carol Lee Elwell, on the occasion of her retirement after 39 years of dedicated service as Municipal Staff Assistant for the Town of Rockland; (HLS 238)

Jody Bower, a student at Bangor High School, who was selected to receive the 1991 Principal's Award presented by the Maine Secondary School Principals Association for her outstanding academic achievement and citizenship; (HLS 239)

the Sanford Lions Club 12th Annual Franco-American Night, April 6, 1991, a festive celebration in honor of the traditions and contributions that this group has made to the community; (HLS 240)

Robert and Cecile Laroche, of Alfred, on the occasion of the Sanford Lions Club 12th Annual Franco-American Night, for their many contributions to the Franco-American community; (HLS 241)

Travis Brancely, a senior at Thornton Academy, who has been chosen to receive the 1991 Principal's Award presented by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association for his academic achievement and citizenship; (HLS 242)

Marion Ezzy Karter, of Waterville, who was born in Van Buren on April 15, 1911, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 80th birthday. A cultural icon, Mrs. Karter is fluent in Arabic, French and English and shares her rich and diverse cultural heritage as an active member of her community and church; (HLS 243)

James Meunier, a ninth grade student at Walton School and a member of Boy Scout Troop #119, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout and who built and maintained the Minot School skating rink in fulfillment of his Eagle Service Project; (HLS 244)

Coastal Enterprises Inc., of Wiscasset, for its Child Care Development Project which earned a Distinguished Performance Award as Program of the Year, presented by Governor John R. McKernan, Jr., and the Maine Human Resource Development Council; (HLS 245)

Fred Brown, a junior at Narraguagus High School, who has been chosen to receive the 1991 University of Maine Academic Achievement Award presented by the University of Maine at Orono for his outstanding scholarship and commitment to intellectual pursuits; (HLS 246)

Saundra Lord, a junior at Narraguagus High School, who has been chosen to receive the 1991 University of Maine Academic Achievement Award presented by the University of Maine at Orono for her outstanding scholarship and commitment to intellectual pursuits; (HLS 247)

Travis Willey, a senior at Narraguagus High School, who has been chosen to receive the 1991 Principal's Award presented by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association for his academic achievement and citizenship; (HLS 248)

the Maine Division for the Blind and Visually Impaired, upon the 50th anniversary of its establishment, and for so effectively meeting the needs of the blind and visually impaired since April 23, 1941; (HLS 249)

Marjorie Harrison, a teacher at Millinocket Middle School, upon the occasion of her retirement after 26 years of invaluable service as a teacher; (HLS 250)

Jacqueline Colgan, a teacher at Millinocket Middle School, as she concludes 24 years of dedicated service as a teacher; (HLS 251)

Fern Gagnon, a teacher at Katahdin Avenue School, who is concluding 28 dedicated years of service as a teacher; (HLS 252)

Joan Hanington, a teacher at Katahdin Avenue School, who will retire after 20 years of outstanding service as a teacher; (HLS 253)

Menisha Pai, an eighth grade student at Millinocket Middle School, who won the Maine Sunday Telegram Spelling Bee; (HLS 254)

Roger R. Keezer, Jr., a senior at Shead High School, who has been chosen to receive the 1991 Principal's Award presented by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association for his academic achievement and citizenship; (HLS 255)

Sara Cashman, a sophomore at Narraguagus High School, who is the Maine State Foul-shooting Champion by virtue of her performance at a statewide shootout; (HLS 256)

the following members of the Narraguagus Knights District Team: Kameron Grant, Brian Bibbo, Dan Curtis, Robbie Worcester, Peter Joyce, Ryan Leighton, Jason Lyford, Clifton "Tooter" Emerson, Steve Strout, Mickey Willey, Ricky Norton, Shane Bradley, Gordon Paul, Jeremy Ray, Phil Rosecky and Keagan Beal, coaches Buddy Mills and Larry Worcester and managers Jamey Sinclair and Nick Lyford, winners of the 1991 Downeast Basketball League Championship and the 1991 Bangor Y.M.C.A. Boys Basketball Tournament; (HLS 257)

the students of Narragansett School in Gorham, for their letters, posters and outstanding efforts in support of Gray Animal Farm; (HLS 258)

Vernal C. Goss, of Otisfield, a respected citizen who served as Commander of American Legion Post #112 in Oxford for 5 years and as a Boy Scout Master for 19 years and who was active in many fraternal organizations; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 259)

Jamie E. Williams, of Boy Scout Troop #292 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 260)

Linda S. Pagels, of Cherryfield, and in extending the appreciation of the Washington County Delegation for her many years of dedication to and accomplishment of community development for the citizens of Washington County; (HLS 261)

Shellie Arbuckle, a member of the Hampden Academy Girls Basketball Team, who was honored with the Big East League Pepsi Spirit Award; (HLS 262)

Kristina Roderick, senior player for the Hampden Academy Girls Basketball Team, who was named to the Big East League All-Star Team and who, for her academic achievement and team contributions, was named to the Academic All-State Team; (HLS 263)

Tara Leavitt, a member of the Hampden Academy Girls Basketball Team, who was named to the Big East League All-Star Team; (HLS 264)

Anjanette Lowe, a member of the Hampden Academy Girls Basketball Team, who was named to the Big East League All-Academic Team; (HLS 265)

the Millinocket Blue Squirts Ice Hockey Team, winners of the 1991 Maine State Ice Hockey Tournament and qualifiers for the New England Regional Competition; (HLS 266)

Elizabeth Bishop, of St. Albans, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 102nd birthday; (HLS 267)

William R. Downey, of Kittery, a man well-known and affectionately regarded, who provided sound leadership to his community and who will long be remembered for his significant contributions to the economic development of Kittery; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 268)

Bertha Tucker, of Buckfield, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, April 18, 1991; (HLS 269)

the Blue Hill Garage, and in extending our best wishes for continued success as it celebrates 50 years of quality service to Blue Hill and the Hancock County Area; (HLS 270)

the Asa Adams School Chorale, of Orono, the first school group in Maine ever invited to sing at the National Music Educators' Conference in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania; (HLS 271)

Margaret Varney, a social studies teacher at Brunswick Junior High School, whose excellent 38-year teaching career has earned her the Award for Excellence in Social Studies Education, presented by the Maine Council for the Social Studies; (HLS 272)

Leah Shamwell, a student of the Neko-Ashi Karate School in Stratton, who won a first place trophy in sparring at the 11th Annual Jujitsu/Karate Championship; (HLS 273)

Harold E. Hall, of Norway, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of his 94th birthday, May 8, 1991; (HLS 274)

John St. Onge, a student at Biddeford High School, whose successful high school athletic career includes being named the Fitzpatrick Trophy award winner, the Maine Sunday Telegram Player of the Year and a member of the Class A All-State Football Team; (HLS 275)

Jason Lariviere, a student at Biddeford High School, who was named to the 2nd team offense of the Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Football Team; (HLS 276)

Jaydee Beaulieu, a student at Biddeford High School, who was named to the 1st team defense of the Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Football Team; (HLS 277)

Kevin Letellier, a student at Biddeford High School, who was named to the 1st team offense and 2nd team defense of the Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Football Team; (HLS 278)

Jeff Tardif, a student at Biddeford High School, who was named to the 1st team defense of the Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Football Team; (HLS 279)

Mean Thy, a student at Biddeford High School, who was named to the 2nd team offense of the Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Football Team; (HLS 280)

Reuben Sevigny, a student at Biddeford High School, who was named to the 2nd team defense of the Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Football Team; (HLS 281)

Neil Bolduc, a student at Biddeford High School, who was named to the 1st team defense of the Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Class A Football Team; (HLS 282)

the following members of the Winslow High School Ice Hockey Team, and Coaches Harold Violette, Spat Roy, Dave Gallagher and John Veilleux, and Manager Mike Mathieu, winners of the 1990-1991 Maine State Class B Ice Hockey Championship: Dan Ferrigan, Reggie Doyon, Jesse White, Jeff Hanson, Mike Fecteau, Chris Clark, Mark Bouchard, Mark Lemieux, Ian Poulin, Erik McClure, Shane Grenier, Robbie Doyon, Scott Michaud, Neil Bates, Paul Fecteau, Corey Lessard, Brian Poulliot, Dan Pooler and Jared Mills; (HLS 283)

Barbara Joyce, an inspiring community leader whose 35 years of service to the community included membership on the Model Cities Board, the Portland West Board, Our Place Board and the Danforth Street Neighborhood Center Board. Barbara is also remembered for her active participation in political campaigns and as a front-runner for progressive change; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 284)

Marjorie Harrison, a teacher at Millinocket Middle School, upon the occasion of her retirement after 26 years of invaluable service as a teacher; (HLS 285)

Joseph E. Brennan, for 25 years of public service to the communities and working people of Maine, as a proud son of Munjoy Hill in Portland, Longfellow's "City by the Sea"; (HLS 286)

the following top 10 students of the 1991 graduating class of Edward Little High School in Auburn: Lincoln Hayes, Eric Obie, Matthew Hayes, Christine Morin, Patricia Hill, Kathleen Dunn, Jacob Gersen, Dana Rosen, Jennifer Charpentier and Marla Zando; (HLS 287)

Victoria Waller, a sophomore at Dexter Regional High School, who has been chosen to participate in the Girl Scout USA "Wagons West" event to be held in North Dakota during June 1991; (HLS 288)

Tanner Buck Grover, of Boothbay Harbor, who is serving his second year as the State of Maine Muscular Dystrophy Poster Child. Tanner is the 7-year-old son of Merritt and Trish Grover and is a second grade student at Boothbay Region Elementary School; (HLS 289)

Kerri Ann Malinowski, of Pittston, who has been crowned "Miss Maine Teen USA" for 1991 and will represent Maine in the National Miss Teen USA Pageant in August; (HLS 290)

Jim Thibodeau, of Waterville, who has been selected as Fisherman of the Decade by the Kennebec Valley Trout Unlimited Association for his tireless efforts regarding fish restoration, water quality protection and educational efforts involving catch and release in the State of Maine; (HLS 291)

Monsieur Emile Michaud, born 95 years ago at Sainte Luce in Upper Frenchville on February 22, 1896. He was a potato grower in Sainte Agathe until his retirement in 1962 and is the father of 7 children, 17 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren; (HLS 292)

Charlton Wesley Wilbur, who has been named Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class at Fort Kent Community High School; (HLS 293)

Carrie Levesque, who has been named Honor Essayist of the 1991 graduating class at Fort Kent Community High School; (HLS 294)

Lee P. Kragh, of Jackson, on the occasion of his retirement after 17 years of dedicated service as an employee at the Maine State Prison; (HLS 295)

St. Dominic Regional High School in Lewiston, on the occasion of its 50th anniversary. From its proud French heritage, St. Dominic Regional High School continues to enrich and contribute significantly to the religious, cultural and educational environment of the youth it serves; (HLS 296)

Hattie May Smith, of Kenduskeag, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, May 1, 1991; (HLS 297)

Sylvia-Lee Arleigh, on the occasion of her retirement after 7 years of invaluable service as a teacher at the Limestone Elementary School; (HLS 298)

Albert L. Watt, on the occasion of his retirement after 33 years of invaluable service as a teacher at the Limestone Junior-Senior High School; (HLS 299)

Philip G. Adams, on the occasion of his retirement after 21 years of invaluable service as a teacher at the Limestone Junior-Senior High School; (HLS 300)

Robert P. White, on the occasion of his retirement after 26 years of invaluable service as a teacher at the Limestone Junior-Senior High School; (HLS 301)

Janice C. Bugbee, on the occasion of her retirement after 21 years of invaluable service as a teacher at the Limestone Junior-Senior High School; (HLS 302)

Fred D. Robinson, on the occasion of his retirement after 30 years of invaluable service as a teacher at the Limestone Elementary School; (HLS 303)

Paul M. Albert, on the occasion of his retirement after 25 years of invaluable service as a teacher at the Limestone Junior-Senior High School; (HLS 304)

Band Director Jeff Priest and the Old Town High School Concert Band, who placed first at the 1991 Dixie Classic Music Festival held in Richmond, Virginia; (HLS 305)

Mabel F. Sidelinger, of Nobleboro, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, May 6, 1991. Mrs. Sidelinger is well known for her teaching abilities and service to others; (HLS 306)

Nicole Clavette, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class at Fort Kent Community High School; (HLS 307)

the League of Women Voters of Maine, for 52 years of dedicated service and commitment in promoting political responsibility through active participation of citizens in government; (HLS 308)

Irma P. Mitchell, on the occasion of her retirement after 10 years of dedicated service as an accounting supervisor to the Mid-Coast Mental Health Service of Rockland; (HLS 309)

Jonathan C. Waugh, of Boy Scout Troop #419 in Madison, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 310)

Fred Swasey, of West Paris, upon his induction into the United Professional Horseman's Association's Hall of Fame for his considerable contributions to the professional horse industry; (HLS 311)

John Holmquist, who has been named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class at Washburn District High School; (HLS 312)

Terri Chandler, who has been named the Valedictorian for the 1991 graduating class at Washburn District High School; (HLS 313)

Phyllis J. Roberts, of Buxton, a woman well known as a caring and dedicated citizen who took an active role in civic, historical and religious affairs of the state, county and community and who has provided sound leadership. Mrs. Roberts represented the former Maine House District 118 from 1980 to 1984; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 314)

Georgeanne Morgan, a junior at Hermon High School, recipient of the Eric L. Thompson Award as the 1990-91 outstanding member of the Key Clubs of New England, the highest award a Key Club member can receive; (HLS 315)

Valerie Knowles, a senior at Bangor High School, recipient of the Allegheny College Provost's Merit Award in recognition of strong academic records and distinguished achievements in arts, leadership, science, math, scouting and volunteerism; (HLS 316)

Shawn Thayer, a guard for the Hermon High School Basketball Team, who has been named to the first team of the 1991 Bangor Daily News All-Maine Schoolboy Basketball Team; (HLS 317)

the top 10 honor students of the 1991 graduating class at Livermore Falls High School: Amy Brown, Pamela Clark, Neal Gammon, Terri Gay, Lisbeth Groomes, Timothy Jones, John Junkins, Scott Loewe, Sherry Martin and Ryan Ward; (HLS 318)

Norman W. Johnson, Vice President and General Manager of WAGM-TV and Houlton CATV, Inc., who has been named the 1990 Presque Isle Citizen of the Year by the local Kiwanis, Lions and Rotary clubs for his dedicated service and commitment to the community during the past year; (HLS 319)

Mrs. Beverly Johnson, Principal; Ms. Amy-Marie Wood and Ms. Deborah Stone, Co-Directors; Allen Marsh, Coach; Mrs. Jeanne Wilkins, Assistant Coach and the following students from the Shapleigh School in Kittery: Megan Marsh, Elizabeth Arnold, Robert Stoodley, Shawn Burton, Cedric Godnig and Paul Wilkins, who are state winners of the Odyssey of the Mind competition; (HLS 320)

Harold O. Bouchard, recipient of the Outstanding Logging Operator Award presented by the Northeastern Loggers' Association and the Northern Logger and Timber Processor magazine in recognition of his outstanding safety practices, innovative technological advances and overall sound business habits; (HLS 321)

Todd Haskell, a junior at Mt. View High School in Thorndike, who will be a guest of the German Government on June 21st through July 22nd. Todd is one of 69 students to qualify for the trip from among 21,000 students who participated in a test sponsored by the American Teachers of German; (HLS 322)

Jason Paradis, of Boy Scout Troop #270, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 323)

Jason McLaughlin, of Boy Scout Troop #270, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 324)

Tharan Talbot, of Boy Scout Troop #270, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 325)

Bruce Thibeault, of Boy Scout Troop #270, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 326)

Rose Albert Chasse, of Fort Kent, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 85th birthday; (HLS 327)

Gilman and Blanche Dube Bouchard, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, May 12, 1991; (HLS 328)

Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Leavitt, of Eliot, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 28, 1991; (HLS 329)

Riley Maquire, a senior at Lincoln Academy, who won the 1991 State Class B Wrestling Championship for the 112 pound weight class; (HLS 330)

Harold W. Hickey, of Westbrook, a longtime educator and superintendent of Westbrook schools, who will long be remembered for his devotion and commitment to the youth of Maine; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 331)

Julia "Katie" Katherine Ricker, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, May 13, 1991; (HLS 332)

Doctor Marcella Belanger-Violette, who is admitted to the degree of Doctors of Humane Letters at the University of Maine at Fort Kent for having rendered stewardship of extraordinary benefit to others; (HLS 333)

Raymond F. Phinney, a prominent businessman, avid sportsman and woodsman, who was a lifelong resident of Gorham, a member of the American Tree Farm System and a former corporator and trustee of Gorham Savings Bank; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 334)

William Deschesne, a recipient of the 1990 State Golden Eagle Award presented by the Casco Northern Bank for his volunteer work with Boy Scouts; (HLS 335)

Gordon W. H. Buzza, Jr., a recipient of the 1990 State Golden Eagle Award presented by the Casco Northern Bank for his volunteer work with Boy Scouts; (HLS 336)

Joyce Gray, who has been named Volunteer of the Year by the staff at Deer Isle Elementary School in partnership with the Adult Education Parenting Class of C.S.D. #13 for her dedication, time and caring that encompass not only our schools but all of the island and its citizens; (HLS 337)

Derek M. Finkelman, who has been named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class at Deering High School; (HLS 338)

Christian Force, who has been named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class at Deering High School; (HLS 339)

Scheherazade C. Fowler, who has been named the Honor Essayist of the 1991 graduating class at Deering High School; (HLS 340)

Stacy F. Mitchell, who has been named the Bible Reader of the 1991 graduating class at Deering High School; (HLS 341)

Berwick Academy in South Berwick, the oldest educational institution in the State, on the occasion of its 200th anniversary. From its founding in 1791, Berwick Academy has enriched and contributed significantly to the educational and cultural lives of generations of youths; (HLS 342)

Martha Hall Clark, on the occasion of her 85th birthday, May 20, 1991; (HLS 343)

Carl and Barbara Kirkpatrick, of Windsor, recipients of the 1991 Outstanding Citizen Award presented by the Modern Woodmen of America, for their many hours of volunteer service to community and state organizations; (HLS 344)

Brianna Mowry, a student at the Hanson School in Lebanon, who is an Odyssey of the Mind state winner; (HLS 345)

the following students from the Noble Junior High School in North Berwick: Adam Mason, Jeremy Raymond and Matt Girard, who are Odyssey of the Mind state winners; (HLS 346)

George Perreault and Josh Smith from the Berwick Middle School, who are state winners of the Odyssey of the Mind competition; (HLS 347)

Reno Deschaine, on the occasion of his retirement. Mr. Deschaine has been involved with education for 33 years, 27 years of which have been with the Messalonskee School District; (HLS 348)

Elizabeth Hurtubise, on the occasion of her retirement after 26 years of thoughtful and dedicated service to the people of the State of Maine. Mrs. Hurtubise worked in the Bureau of Child and Family Services of the Department of Human Services; (HLS 349)

Melissa Paquette, a junior at Thornton Academy, who has been selected for the Walt Disney Dreamers and Doers program. Selection for this program is based on participation in interscholastic activity programs and demonstration of the traits of curiosity, confidence, courage and constancy; (HLS 350)

Kelly Larson, who has been named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class at Foxcroft Academy; (HLS 351)

Katrina M. Santore, who has been named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class at Foxcroft Academy; (HLS 352)

Jeremy Fink, a junior at Thornton Academy in Saco, who received the Xerox Award in the humanities and social sciences presented by the Xerox Corporation. The award in the humanities and social sciences is designed to recognize and reward the academic achievements of outstanding students and to recognize the importance of a broad educational background in preparing students for future careers;

(HLS 353)

the following students from the Noble Junior High School in Berwick: Adam Mason, Jeremy Raymond and Matt Girard, who are Odyssey of the Mind state winners; (HLS 354)

Philip H. Chadbourne, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 90th birthday. Mr. Chadbourne was the founder and president for over 45 years of P. H. Chadbourne Co. in Bethel, and has been long recognized as an outstanding leader in forest management; (HLS 355)

Edward Blackmore, of Stonington, on the occasion of his retirement after years of dedicated service to the Maine Lobstermen's Association; (HLS 356)

the following top 20 students of the 1991 graduating class of Mountain Valley High School: Carla Holliday, Kristine M. Bolduc, Tammy L. Spaulding, Thomas W. Goodridge, Christopher Larsen, Arthur Stickney, Amy Law, Ron Duguay, Bobbi Jo Blodgett, Janet Hoyle, Pamela Bragdon, Terry Stewart, Darcie Ann Ames, Michelle Bell, Darcy L. Wheeler, Robert Marin, Tricia A. Belskis, Catherine H. Kimball, Susan Kimball and Jeremy Vashaw; (HLS 357)

William "Bill" Brunett, recipient of the Fin-Feather Club's Adrian Batson Award for 1991. The award is given for conservation and good sportsmanship; (HLS 358)

Cadet Troy Eric Kelley, of Sherman Mills, upon graduating from West Point Military Academy; (HLS 359)

the students of the Southern Maine Technical College, for their impressive talent and skill in preparing and serving the Welcome Back Day luncheon on Thursday, April 30, 1991; (HLS 360)

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Barlow, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, April 19, 1991; (HLS 361)

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Murch, of Greene, whose dedication and commitment to the town as evidenced by the donation of land to the town for a baseball field exemplify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 362)

the increasing evidence of the existence of the debilitating disease known as chronic fatigue and immune dysfunction syndrome and the continuing efforts by State Government, health care professionals and the Maine Chronic Fatigue and Immune Dysfunction Syndrome Association to assist those who suffer from the disease and to educate others of this growing health problem; (HLS 363)

the following students from the Marshwood Junior High School in South Berwick: Harmond Buzzell; Michael Collier; Judy Emery; Michael Kumin; John S. Roy; and Jennifer Taylor, who are Odyssey of the Mind state winners; (HLS 364)

the delegates from Gardiner Area High School who have been chosen, by virtue of their excellent scholarship, dedicated leadership and citizenship, to represent their school at the forthcoming Girls State for 1991: Jeni Glidden, Kathleen Joyce, Julie Crabtree, Nicole Shardlow, Shelly Roper, Amy Roper and Jessica Yankura; (HLS 365)

the delegates from Gardiner Area High School who have been chosen, by virtue of their excellent scholarship, dedicated leadership and citizenship, to represent their school at the forthcoming Boys State for 1991: Matt Wing, Todd McKay, Jon Kakasenko, Jeremy Porter, Kurt McCollett, Bill Gardner and David Hachey; (HLS 366)

Nicole O'Bar, of Caswell, who has been named Miss Limestone 1991. Nicole, the daughter of Henry and Adelma O'Bar, also received the Miss Congeniality trophy; (HLS 367)

Mabel Desmond and her 5th grade students at the Zippel School in Presque Isle, who earned "Overall State Winner" placement in the Maine Energy Education Program's Youth Awards and Recognition competition. By devoting much of the school year to gathering energy information and sharing their knowledge, the 5th graders created an energy awareness throughout their school and community; (HLS 368)

David Willis, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of South Portland High School; (HLS 369)

Justin Lombardelli, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of South Portland High School; (HLS 370)

Gerald S. Beaulier, Jr., of Fort Fairfield and a member of Boy Scout Troop #271, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 371)

the Miles Health Care Center, of Damariscotta, for 50 years of dedicated service to the people of Damariscotta and the State; (HLS 372)

Lorraine Duplessie, in appreciation of 22 years of invaluable service to the East Vassalboro Elementary School, upon her retirement from her position as secretary/office manager; (HLS 373)

Edith Bell, of Windham, for her many years of commitment and dedication to Girl Scouting. Mrs. Bell was honored on Girl Scout Leaders Day, April 22, by Brownie Girl Scout Troop #435 for 55 years of service to Girl Scouting; (HLS 374)

Catherine Lebowitz, of Bangor, State Representative for District 115, who has been named Outstanding Community Leader of 1991 by the Bangor Zonta Club; (HLS 375)

Dominic Fecteau, of Kittery, who has been named a United States National Award winner in history and government, an honor attained by fewer than 10 percent of all American high school students; (HLS 376)

Presque Isle High School, for being one of 3 schools in Maine awarded the National School of Excellence designation; (HLS 377)

Nanette Smith, of Gorham, who has earned the highest achievement in Girl Scouting, the prestigious

Girl Scout Gold Award; (HLS 378)

the Fairview School in Auburn and the students who participated in the Odyssey of the Mind program. The Odyssey of the Mind program is a national program involving problem solving and creative thinking. A team of students from Fairview School has brought statewide honor to Auburn by qualifying for the World Finals in The Odyssey of the Mind competition in Knoxville, Tennessee. We congratulate the following members of the Give & Go Division II team: Jacie Whitney; Elizabeth Gould; Sarah Bullett; Brittany D'Augustine; Eric Keough; Chris Snow; and Jim Warner, statewide winners. They will be competing with students from 48 states and 26 countries in the World Finals in Knoxville, Tennessee, May 21-25, 1991; (HLS 379)

Paul K. Levensalor, of Dover-Foxcroft, who received the prestigious "George Meany" award for his many years of service to youth through scouting; (HLS 380)

Laura Armstrong, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Piscataquis Community High School; (HLS 381)

Eloise Prickitt, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Piscataquis Community High School; (HLS 382)

Douglas McLean, of Boy Scout Troop #190 in Madawaska, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 383)

Preston Powell, who has been selected as the first recipient of the Lauren Shulman Volunteer Award given by Southern Maine Medical Center; (HLS 384)

Robert Waugh, of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, who has been inducted into the National Hall of Fame for Persons with Disabilities. Mr. Waugh, a Maine native, was selected for the award because he has a significant disability as a quadriplegic, is a high achiever in overcoming obstacles, handicaps and limitations imposed by his disability and has made significant contributions to humanity; (HLS 385)

Eryn Cole, of Patten and a sophomore at Katahdin High School, who earned a first place standing in the Senior Level Multi and Single Activity categories of the Maine Energy Education Program's Youth Awards and Recognition competition; (HLS 386)

Richard Fogg, of Sherman Mills and a sophomore at Katahdin High School, who earned a first place standing in the Senior Level Multi and Single Activity categories of the Maine Energy Education Program's Youth Awards and Recognition competition; (HLS 387)

Dorothy Wright, of Chesterville Grange No. 20, who was recently honored as a member in good standing for 65 years; (HLS 388)

Wilmont Weeks, of Chesterville Grange No. 20, who was recently honored as a member in good standing for 55 years; (HLS 389)

Dr. Harold Cross, who has devoted his life to improving people's health and attitudes. Dr. Cross was recently honored by the communities of Hampden, Newburgh and Winterport for his dedication to the health of others by naming the health center at Hampden Academy after him; (HLS 390)

Gertrude Peterson, on the occasion of her retirement at the age of 88 after 23 years of dedicated service as a member of the Arrowsic Planning Board, whose personal contribution of time, care and concern for her community is appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 391)

Cheryl Hanington Russell, of Chester, whose devotion and efforts on behalf of women in the small business community earned her the U.S. Small Business Administration's Woman in Business Advocates Award; (HLS 392)

Mabel Desmond, whose efforts inspired her 5th-grade class to achieve 1991 "Overall State Winner" placement in the Maine Energy Education Program's Youth Awards and Recognition competition, on the occasion of her retirement from the Zippel School in Presque Isle after 40 years of teaching and her husband Jerry Desmond, Sr., who retired after 30 years of teaching. These two dedicated teachers have earned the love and respect of their students, colleagues and community; (HLS 393)

Moe Greenleaf, of Livermore Falls, who has been named Male Vocalist of the Year in a nationwide contest sponsored by the Down East Country Music Association; (HLS 394)

the Honorable Joseph E. Brennan, on his being named the Greater Portland Boys and Girls Club Alumni Association's Man of the Year, in appreciation of his long service to youth in Maine and the Greater Portland Area; (HLS 395)

the past and present members of the Rumford Fire Department, in appreciation of their personal time, care and concern in promoting and educating others throughout the State about the hazardous material response vehicle and accompanying response team available through Boise Cascade; (HLS 396)

Aaron Morris, of Limestone, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Limestone Junior-Senior High School; (HLS 397)

Travis Leighton, of Limestone, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Limestone Junior-Senior High School; (HLS 398)

Rosemarie Merckens, of Canaan, in appreciation of 26 years of commitment and dedication to teaching Maine's students, upon her retirement as a teacher at Canaan Elementary School; (HLS 399)

Dudley E. Foley, of North Vassalboro, who has spent his entire adult life in service to local government. To honor Mr. Dudley's service to the town, the citizens of Vassalboro recently dedicated the 1990 Vassalboro Town Report to him; (HLS 400)

Julie Crocker, who has been selected to participate in the Bigelow Laboratory Science Program in West Boothbay Harbor. The program is offered to one student in each county through the Secondary School Principals' Association and high school science teachers; (HLS 401)

Wendy Shorey Flannery, Valedictorian of the class of 1987 at Searsport District High School, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of the University of Maine, Orono; (HLS 402)

Sister Solange Bernier, a member of the Ursurline Order of Lewiston, in appreciation of her dedication and commitment as a teacher of French for 50 years; (HLS 403)

Robert Gould, of Wells, who has been named a finalist in the School/Business Partnership category of the National Association of Partners in Education 1991 Outstanding School Volunteer Awards Program; (HLS 404)

Tracy Clarrage, of Wells, who has been named a finalist in the Youth Volunteer/Peer Tutor category of the National Association of Partners in Education 1991 Outstanding School Volunteer Awards Program; (HLS 405)

Diana Abbott, of Wells, who has been named a finalist in the Volunteer Program Coordinator category of the National Association of Partners in Education 1991 Outstanding School Volunteer Awards Program; (HLS 406)

Edith Wormwood Welch, of Wells, on the occasion of her 90th Birthday on May 29, 1991. Edith is well-known for her former participation as an actress in community theatre and for her membership in the Ladies Aid group of the Highpine Baptist Church and the Bauneg Beg Grange; (HLS 407)

James R. Wilson, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Central High School in Corinth; (HLS 408)

Lidie Whittier, of Vienna, who, for high academic achievement, has earned the distinction of being one of the top 10 students of the 1991 graduating class of Mt. Blue High School; (HLS 409)

Eddie and Winnie McGreevy, of Millinocket, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 22, 1991; (HLS 410)

Stacey Thibodeau, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Caribou High School; (HLS 411)

Francis and Albertine Cyr, of Mt. Chase, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, April 21, 1991; (HLS 412)

Erwin P. Flewelling, in appreciation of 35 years of dedicated service to the U.S. Government, upon his retirement after 15 years as the U.S. Customs Port Director at the Van Buren Port of Entry; (HLS 413)

Hilary Anne Smith, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Van Buren District Secondary School; (HLS 414)

Tracy LaJoie, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Van Buren District Secondary School; (HLS 415)

Michelle Martin, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Caribou High School; (HLS 416)

Betsey O'Donnell, a student at Narraguagus High School in Harrington, recipient of the DAR "Good Citizen" award for 1991; (HLS 417)

Mr. and Mrs. John Willey, of Cherryfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 31, 1991; (HLS 418)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cirone, of Addison, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, May 16, 1991; (HLS 419)

Totally Teens, the Dexter area teen club, whose efforts this year are responsible for mobilizing the entire community around important teen issues; (HLS 420)

the Nokomis High School Jazz Ensemble and Jazz Chorus, on being named Division I State Champions for the 1990-91 school year; (HLS 421)

Erica J. Parkhurst, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Central High School in Corinth; (HLS 422)

Merle E. Peacock, Jr., on the occasion of his retirement after contributing 30 years to the education and enrichment of the youth in SAD #11. His service as Superintendent of SAD #11 for 20 years has earned the everlasting gratitude and appreciation of his community; (HLS 423)

Priscilla White, in appreciation of 46 years of commitment and dedication to teaching Maine's students, upon her retirement as a teacher at Foxcroft Academy; (HLS 424)

James Ugone, Principal of Caribou High School, who was selected as the 1991 Principal of the Year by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association; (HLS 425)

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Adams, of Boothbay, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 29, 1991; (HLS 426)

Franklin Smith, of Beals, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Jonesport-Beals High School; (HLS 427)

Ralph Smith, Jr., of Jonesport, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Jonesport-Beals High School; (HLS 428)

Joshua Bragg, of East Machias, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Washington Academy in East Machias; (HLS 429)

Joshua Maker, of East Machias, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Washington Academy in East Machias; (HLS 430)

Sarah Richmond, of Machias, who has the distinction of being named as one of two top students of the 1991 graduating class of Machias High School; (HLS 431)

Cathy Tower, of Marshfield, who has the distinction of being named as one of two top students of the 1991 graduating class of Machias High School; (HLS 432)

Kenneth Clifton Jordan, Director of the Lewiston Regional Vocational Center, on the occasion of his retirement after thirty-six years of distinguished public service, whose outstanding contributions to the promotion of excellence in vocational education for students throughout the state is sincerely appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 433)

Roger Keezer, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Shead High School; (HLS 434)

Hiedi Preston, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Shead High School; (HLS 435)

Vaughn and Audrey Thornton, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 31, 1991; (HLS 436)

Chad Poland, a senior at Foxcroft Academy, who received the 1991 Principal's Award by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association for academic achievement and citizenship; (HLS 437)

Catherine Santore, a student at Sedomocha Middle School, whose poem, "Pollutants of Man," earned her a Finalist Award in the United States Environmental Protection Agency's Elementary Education Ecology Poem and Poster Program; (HLS 438)

Richard N. Lord, Jr., a biology instructor at Presque Isle High School, who was awarded 1st place in the fourth annual Arts and Entertainment Network National Teacher Grant Competition; (HLS 439)

Jennifer Moonlight, of Dover-Foxcroft, on the completion of the BABES Program; (HLS 440)

John F. Welch, whose dedication and commitment of 39 years of service to the York Beach Volunteer Fire Department exemplifies the generous spirit of Maine. During that time, Mr. Welch served as Second Assistant Chief, First Assistant Chief and for the last 17 years as Fire Chief; (HLS 441)

the following top 14 students of the 1991 graduating class of Wells High School: Adam Andrew Hodgdon, Alison Staples, Denis Richard Clark, Debra Alexandre, Sean Patrick Lazzara, Kimberly Jolene Martin, Jennifer L. Smith, Tammi Lee Gregoire, Aliscia Ann Tuohey, Lisa Jolene Breton, Angel Marie Camire, Lori Ann Gould, Leisa Kristen Osborn and Frederick G. Rocket, III; (HLS 442)

the Sea Road School in Kennebunk and the Consolidated School in Kennebunkport, who have worked together to earn second place in the Elementary Level (grades 5-6) Multi Activity category of the Maine Energy Education Program's Youth Awards and Recognition competition; (HLS 443)

the following top four students of the 1991 graduating class of Buckfield High School: Margaret Fulenwider, Christopher Chesley, Jennifer Young and Pauline Perron; (HLS 444)

Sister Jeannette Loubert, C. S. J., in commemoration of her 50 years of service as a religious woman in Maine and 17 years of dedicated service to the people and children at St. John the Baptist Parish in Winslow; (HLS 445)

Welden W. Hanson, of Milo, well-known for his active participation in the civic, fraternal, religious, and political affairs of his community and who provided sound leadership in his service as a State Representative during the 99th, 100th and 104th State Legislatures; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 446)

the University of Southern Maine "Huskies" Baseball Team, and in extending our congratulations on their victory in the NCAA Division III College World Series; (HLS 447)

the delegates from Narraguagus High School who have been chosen, by virtue of their excellent scholarship, dedicated leadership and citizenship, to represent their school at the forthcoming Boys State and Girls State for 1991: Fred Brown, Travis Noyes, Shannan Curtis, Kathy Flaherty, Jennifer Kearns, Ellen Whitten and Saundra Lord; (HLS 448)

Travis Willey, of Milbridge, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian for the 1991 graduating class of Narraguagus High School; (HLS 449)

Sterling Paul, of Addison, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian for the 1991 graduating class of Narraguagus High School; (HLS 450)

Samuel Robbins, a student at Narraguagus High School who has been chosen, by virtue of his excellent scholarship, dedicated leadership and citizenship, to be a delegate to represent his school at the forthcoming Boys State for 1991; (HLS 451)

Norman K. Ferguson, Jr., who is retiring from Boise Cascade after 34 years of continuous service. Mr. Ferguson started work as a clerk in the Accounting Department and is retiring as Purchasing Agent in the Purchasing Department. He is a dedicated leader who has served his town, county and state with distinction; (HLS 452)

Dorothy M. Myles, who is retiring from Boise Cascade after 26 years of dedicated service. Mrs. Myles started work as a spare in the Janitorial Service Department. Since 1985 she has served in the very important position of Telecommunications Operator for the mill; (HLS 453)

Constance T. Roy, who is retiring from Boise Cascade after 32 years of continuous service. Mrs. Roy started work as a key punch operator, served as a very capable and friendly secretary in several departments, and is retiring as Administrative Secretary for the Purchasing Department; (HLS 454)

Dawn Kearns, a recipient of the 1991 Bob Clark Memorial Award presented by the Union Street Alternative School in Brunswick; (HLS 455)

Kevin McCartney, a recipient of the 1991 Bob Clark Memorial Award presented by the Union Street Alternative School in Brunswick; (HLS 456)

Buckfield Volunteer Rescue Service, for its service to the community and the devotion to duty of the individuals who make up its squad at great personal sacrifice of time and energy; (HLS 457)

Buckfield Volunteer Fire Department, for its service to the community and the devotion to duty of the individuals who make up its squad at great personal sacrifice of time and energy; (HLS 458)

Hartford First Responder Volunteer Service, for its service to the community and the devotion to duty of the individuals who make up its squad at great personal sacrifice of time and energy; (HLS 459)

Sumner Volunteer Fire Department, for its service to the community and the devotion to duty of the individuals who make up its squad at great personal sacrifice of time and energy; (HLS 460)

Sumner Volunteer Rescue Service, for its service to the community and the devotion to duty of the individuals who make up its squad at great personal sacrifice of time and energy; (HLS 461)

Canton Volunteer Rescue Service, for its service to the community and the devotion to duty of the individuals who make up its squad at great personal sacrifice of time and energy; (HLS 462)

Canton Volunteer Fire Department, for its service to the community and the devotion to duty of the individuals who make up its squad at great personal sacrifice of time and energy; (HLS 463)

the Boise Cascade Paper Group, of Rumford, in appreciation of its commitment to preparedness for hazardous material disasters for Oxford County and its willingness to respond countywide in the event of a hazardous material incident; (HLS 464)

Robert Aceto, of Cape Elizabeth and a member of the University of Southern Maine "Huskies" Baseball Team, whose record-breaking pitching includes a six-hitter in the 1991 NCAA Division III College World Series, making the victory his 11th of the season and the 24th of his college career; (HLS 465)

the following top 10 students of the 1991 graduating class of Gray-New Gloucester High School: Danielle Johnson, Valedictorian; Kenneth Karcher, Salutatorian; Betsey Morrison; James Farwell; Heather Mason; Ian Hardesty; Maria Matson; Stephanie Neal; Alycia Thompson; and Sarah Thompson; (HLS 466)

Mr. and Mrs. N. Allen Savage, of Cherryfield, on the 50th anniversary of their marriage, June 25, 1991; (HLS 467) the sixth-graders of the Bowdoin Central School, who successfully completed the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (D. A. R. E.) program sponsored by the Sagadahoc County Sheriff's Department; (HLS 468)

Armand "Pete Dixon" Paquette, of Saco, who has earned the distinction of being named to the Maine Country Music Hall of Fame; (HLS 469)

Pam Kenoyer, of Whitefield, the guidance counselor at Lincoln Academy, who has been named Maine's Counselor of the Year by the New England Association of College Admission Counselors; (HLS 470)

Andrew R. Gaspar, of Boy Scout Troop #312 in North Berwick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 471)

Michael Mahar, who has earned the distinction of being named the Honor Essayist of the 1991 graduating class of Lubec High School; (HLS 472)

Sandra McFadden, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Lubec High School; (HLS 473)

Michelle Bailey, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Lubec High School; (HLS 474)

Frances Wallace, in appreciation of 38 years of commitment and dedication to teaching Maine's students, upon her retirement as a teacher at Livermore Falls High School; (HLS 475)

June Davis, in appreciation of 21 years of commitment and dedication to teaching Maine's students, upon her retirement as a teacher in School Administrative District No. 36; (HLS 476)

Will LaVerdiere, in appreciation of 32 years of commitment and dedication to teaching Maine's students, upon his retirement as a teacher in School Administrative District No. 36; (HLS 477)

John Junkins, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Livermore Falls High School; (HLS 478)

Scott Loewe, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Livermore Falls High School; (HLS 479)

Ernie Gomez, in appreciation of 28 years of commitment and dedication to teaching Maine's students, upon his retirement as a teacher at Livermore Falls High School; (HLS 480)

Dell Souther, in appreciation of 32 years of commitment and dedication to teaching Maine's students, upon her retirement as a teacher at Livermore Falls Primary School; (HLS 481)

Ruth Hartley, in appreciation of 21 years of commitment and dedication to teaching Maine's students, upon her retirement as a teacher in School Administrative District No. 36; (HLS 482)

Heather Peterson, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Erskine Academy; (HLS 483)

Chad McFarland, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Erskine Academy; (HLS 484)

Emma and Stan Estes, of Windham, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their marriage in Westbrook on May 28, 1941; (HLS 485)

Raymond and Dorothy Marshall, of Kittery, on the 50th anniversary of their marriage, June 7, 1991; (HLS 486)

the following students of the Belgrade Central School who are recipients of a Presidential Academic Fitness Award: Ryan Baker, Joey Bedard, Brian Bell, Simone Burdet, Abby Chandler, Gwen Cooper, Jeremy Damren, Becky Dostie, Amanda Green, Sarah Hammond, Lesley Mosher, Micah O'Neal, Kristin Todd, Meg Provandie, Karyn McMullin and Thomas Tracy; (HLS 487)

the fourth grade students at the John R. Graham School in Veazie, and their teacher Mary Evans, who earned 1st place in the Maine Energy Education Program's Youth Awards and Recognition Competition for their project "The Great Energy Experiment"; (HLS 488)

Megan Grumbling, who won first place in the York County Civic Oration Contest, and third place in the state contest; (HLS 489)

Donald W. Graves, of Mars Hill, whose dedication and commitment while serving as a member of the Harness Racing Commission for the past three years is appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 490)

Madeleine R. Freeman, on the occasion of her retirement after years of dedicated service to the Eastern Agency on Aging; (HLS 491)

Brittany Gordon, of Lincoln, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Mattanawcook Academy; (HLS 492)

Krista Tibbs, of Lincoln, who has earned the distinction of being named Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Mattanawcook Academy; (HLS 493)

Lola M. Guerette, of Ste. Agathe, who has been named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Wisdom High School; (HLS 494)

Ariana Talbot, of Ste. Agathe, who has been named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Wisdom High School; (HLS 495)

Scott P. Marquis, of Frenchville, who has been named an Honor Essayist of the 1991 graduating class of Wisdom High School; (HLS 496)

Tracy L. Bouchard, of Frenchville, who has been named an Honor Essayist of the 1991 graduating class of Wisdom High School; (HLS 497)

Heather Cox, a member of the Medway Middle School's "Read to Me Team" who won the state Fleet Youth Leadership competition; (HLS 498)

Tonia Perry, a member of the Medway Middle School's "Read to Me Team" who won the state Fleet Youth Leadership competition; (HLS 499)

Laura Pickard, a member of the Medway Middle School's "Read to Me Team" who won the state Fleet Youth Leadership competition; (HLS 500)

Leigh-Anna Stanley, a member of the Medway Middle School's "Read to Me Team" who won the state Fleet Youth Leadership competition; (HLS 501)

Jaime Hartford Stanley, a member of the Medway Middle School's "Read to Me Team" who won the state Fleet Youth Leadership competition; (HLS 502)

Julie Stanley, a member of the Medway Middle School's "Read to Me Team" who won the state Fleet Youth Leadership competition; (HLS 503)

Meredith Farrington, a member of the Medway Middle School's "Read to Me Team" who won the state Fleet Youth Leadership competition; (HLS 504)

Kristi Fiske, a member of the Medway Middle School's "Read to Me Team" who won the state Fleet Youth Leadership competition; (HLS 505)

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker, of Yarmouth, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 15, 1991; (HLS 506)

Robert "Danny" Daniels, of St. George, who, to the amazement of summer visitors and amusement of his neighbors, each year converts between four and six tons of scrap metal into objects of art. We recognize his creative ability, commend his sustained efforts at recycling, and appreciate his contribution to the Maine economy; (HLS 507)

Erin Perry, of Sorrento, who has been named Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Sumner Memorial High School in Sullivan; (HLS 508)

Eric Black, of Orient, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Hodgdon High School; (HLS 509)

Jason Pettengill, of Patten, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Katahdin High School; (HLS 510)

Mendy-Sue Drew, of Dyer Brook, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Southern Aroostook Community School; (HLS 511)

Maria Guerin, of Hersey, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Southern Aroostook Community School; (HLS 512)

Angela Robinson, of Patten, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Katahdin High School; (HLS 513)

Rebecca Gricus, of Linneus, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Hodgdon High School; (HLS 514)

the following top 10 students of the 1991 graduating class of Lincoln Academy: Helena Westcott, Valedictorian; Katherine Lemos, Salutatorian; Michael Anderson; Carianne Flynn; Amanda Genthner; Matthew Keegan; Adam Kelley; Abraham Ober; Douglas Pooler; and Kristen Pratt; (HLS 515)

the following top 10 students of the 1991 graduating class of Wiscasset High School: Beth Campbell, Susan Carter, Schuyler Fairfield, Darin Flanagan, Jennifer Grundy, Jennifer Harriman, Jennifer Kane, Robin Schuldenfrei, Jon Stevens and Jon Withee; (HLS 516)

Bethany Jill Alessi, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Seacoast Christian School of South Berwick. Miss Alessi also won awards for Outstanding Christian Character and is one of 15 students in the United States to receive a scholarship of a one-half year's tuition at Multnomah College in Portland, Oregon; (HLS 517)

Everard and Olive LaPlante, of Millinocket, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their marriage, June 8, 1991; (HLS 518)

Ralph and Madeline Gatchell, of Stratton, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 519)

Stephen Cyr, of Van Buren, who has been named the 1991 Employee of the Year for the Madawaska area, St. John Valley, by the Immigration and Naturalization Service; (HLS 520) the Town of Moscow, on the 175th Anniversary of its founding and in extending best wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate this special occasion; (HLS 521)

Sarah Lanning, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Lawrence High School; (HLS 522)

Aimee Lanteigne, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Lawrence High School; (HLS 523)

Jeffrey Perrigo, a top ten member of the 1991 graduating class of Thorton Academy in Saco, who has the distinction of having perfect attendance throughout his school career; (HLS 524)

United States District Court Magistrate Judge Edward H. Keith, a beloved family member and highly respected community leader whose active participation in civic, fraternal and professional organizations will long be remembered; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 525)

Jacob S. Sanders, of Boy Scout Troop #524 in Livermore Falls, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 526)

the Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, known as the Good Shepherd Sisters, on the celebration of the 100th anniversary of their arrival in Van Buren and whose presence in Van Buren continues to enrich and contribute significantly to the religious, cultural, medical and educational environment of the community; (HLS 527)

Old Orchard Beach High School, which has been selected as one of three Maine schools awarded the National School of Excellence designation; (HLS 528)

Ian Garrison, a sixth-grader from the Wayne Elementary School who represented his school in the National Geographic Geography Bee state competition held at Colby College; (HLS 529)

Coaches Merit Bean and Sarah Bean and the following members of the Mt. Abram High School Ski Team, winners of the 1991 Maine State Class B Girls Ski Championship: Corie Abbott, Stephanie Adams, Stephanie Brochu, Brenna Brown, Niki Haggan, Jen Hecker, Kristie Knapp, Kate Meldrum, Mary Meldrum, Mandy Reed, Heather Sawyer, Jessica Schniepp, Rebecca Schulz, Margot Sealy and Deanna Wilber; (HLS 530)

Coaches Doug Lisherness and Mike Wing, and the following members of the Mt. Abram High School "Roadrunners" Basketball Team, winners of the 1991 Maine State Class C Girls Basketball Championship: Tara Lisherness, Kathy Stinchfield, Shiara Campbell, Brandi Cousineau, Amy Jalbert, Corrie Bachelder, Michelle Abbott, Stephanie Yeaton, Niki Henderson, Rana Ellis, Holly Haggan, Rebecca Cram, Denise Durrell, and Denise Croteau, Manager; (HLS 531)

Robert G. Dillenback, who has been named the 1991 Citizen of the Year by the Cumberland-North Yarmouth Lions Club in appreciation of his years of dedicated service in both volunteer and elective positions for most of his 45 years as a Cumberland resident; (HLS 532)

Dorothy "Dot" MacDonald, of Mechanic Falls, whose years of dedicated service to her community and commitment to ensuring the success of the Mechanic Falls Homecoming Festivities are appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 533)

Ethan Crain, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Windham High School; (HLS 534)

Mike Timmons, on the occasion of his retirement as Principal of Windham High School, whose selection as the 1990 Principal of the Year reflects his dedication and commitment as an educator for the past 26 years; (HLS 535)

Dennis Rand, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Windham High School; (HLS 536)

the Telstar High School Girls Softball Team, winners of the 1991 Class C State Softball Championship; (HLS 537)

Leon A. Works, whose 19 years of dedicated service and commitment to the York Volunteer Ambulance Association in such capacities as an attendant, a member of the Board of Directors and the Chief of Operations are appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 538)

Robert A. Frost Memorial Library, on the occasion of its 50th anniversary celebration during the week of July 22, 1991. The Robert A. Frost Memorial Library contains 19,000 volumes and includes the Ruth Somers reading room dedicated in 1972; (HLS 539)

Reid A. Kinney, of Boy Scout Troop #100 in Dover-Foxcroft, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 540)

H. John Moore, of Boy Scout Troop #15 in Brewer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 541)

Keith H. and Edith E. Milton, of Caribou, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their marriage on June 21, 1941; (HLS 542)

Caroline Sturtevant, on the occasion of her retirement as Director of Professional Development for the Messalonskee School District after forty-five years of distinguished public service, whose outstanding contributions to the promotion of excellence in education as a teacher, assistant principal and administrator and in service with the state's Department of Education are appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 543)

Louise B. Works, whose 19 years of invaluable service and commitment to the York Volunteer Ambulance Association are appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 544)

Donald V. Marchildon, of Augusta, on the occasion of his retirement after 29 years of dedicated service in various capacities with the Maine Department of Education, whose outstanding contributions played a significant role in establishing secondary vocational education in Maine in 28 vocational centers and regions serving nearly 8000 students; (HLS 545)

Stephanie York, who has the distinction of being named the Second Honor Essayist of the 1991 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 546)

Cameron J. Adams, who has earned the distinction of being named the 1st Honor Essayist of the 1991 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 547)

Lora L. Bernier, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 548)

Travis C. Carter, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 549)

Stacey A. Mullen, who has earned the distinction of being named the 1st Honor Essayist of the 1991 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School; (HLS 550)

Jennifer L. Henderson, who has earned the distinction of being named the Second Honor Essayist of the 1991 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School; (HLS 551)

Heidi J. Lunn, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School; (HLS 552)

Angela B. Bell, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School; (HLS 553)

Richard V. Bona, of Millinocket, long-time employee of the Great Northern Paper Company/Georgia Pacific, veteran of the U. S. Marine Corps and member of the Katahdin Aero Club, whose unexpected death has shocked and saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 554)

Neil P. Ippoliti, of Millinocket, long-time employee of the Great Northern Paper Company, veteran of the U. S. Army and a member of St. Martin of Tours Council No. 680 Knights of Columbus, whose death has saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 555)

Barbara A. Butler, of Palermo, on the occasion of her retirement after nearly 21 years of dedicated service with the Support Enforcement Unit of the Maine Department of Human Services; (HLS 556)

Carl W. Butler, of Palermo, on the occasion of his retirement after nearly 23 years of dedicated service with the Maine Department of Education, whose outstanding contributions helped shape the statewide network of state-of-the-art vocational and applied technology centers in Maine and who was particularly instrumental in securing access to quality vocational education programs for students with disabilities and other special needs and in the implementation of the Carl D. Perkins Vocational Act; (HLS 557) the family of Bert L. Call and the University of Maine Special Collection Department, in recognition of his work in the field of photography for over 60 years. Mr. Call left behind a photographic record of the Maine woods and rural Maine; (HLS 558)

Steven M. Spaulding, of Dexter, and in extending our congratulations on being named the 1990 "Trooper of the Year;" (HLS 559)

Lucien and Marie Ann Fournier, of Plaisted, who have been named the 1991 Father of the Year and Mother of the Year at St. Joseph's Parish in Wallagrass; (HLS 560)

James A. Dumond, of Portage, on being named the 1990 Maine Game Warden of the Year, the 1991 recipient of the Conservation Officer of the Year Award from the Conservation Law Enforcement Chiefs Association and the Shikar-Safari Club's Outstanding Wildlife Officer of the Year Award; (HLS 561)

Coach Bruce Meader, Assistant Coach John Hersom, Managers Nicky Pelletier and Brian Dutill and the following members of the Messalonskee Girls Softball Team: Becky Sirois, Angie Weeks, Sarah Wood, Margaret Henrick, Kelly Pinney, Danielle Dennis, Amy Morrell, Kelly Knight, Kristie Brown, Kelsey Albanese, Nancy Kitchin, Jill Downing and Nancy Pavia, winners of the

1991 Class B State Softball Championship; (HLS 562)

Chief Gardner Sperry and the Caribou Fire Department, on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the department and in extending special recognition to the following past fire chiefs who so admirably served the community: H. D. Collins, F. L. Oak, F. W. Barker, A. A. Garden, C. C. King, David Allyn, E. J. Briggs, S. M. Straight, G. Havelock Knox, Murray Briggs, Fred Hawkes, Murray E. Mockler, Elray DeMerchant, Russell Getchell, Donald E. Woods and Arnold Gahagan; (HLS 563)

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard F. Marsh, of Gorham, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their marriage, June 28, 1991; (HLS 564)

The following members of the Cadet Track Team, who won first place in the 400-meter relay in the boys 7 - 8 year old division at the 1990 state finals of the Maine Junior Olympics: Douglas Campbell and Andrew Ketterer, of Madison; Scooter Gleason, of Anson; and Dylan Miller, of Athens; (HLS 565)

Eric and Adrea Thorbjornson, of Tenants Harbor, on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of their marriage, August 19, 1931; (HLS 566)

Eric M. and Svea M. Olson, of St. George, who were married July 3, 1931, in Rockland, on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 567)

JoAnne R. Magill, on the occasion of her retirement after 28 years of dedicated service to the University of Maine System; (HLS 568)

Danielle Beaulieu, a senior at Presque Isle High School, who has been named as a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Program. This distinction places her in the top 99th percentile among all students nationwide who took the 1989 college board examinations; (HLS 569)

Andrew Leblanc, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Presque Isle High School; (HLS 570)

Derek Adams, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Presque Isle High School; (HLS 571)

the employees of the Boise Cascade White Paper Division, in Rumford, for their one million hours of work without a lost time accident; (HLS 572)

Chris Caruso, of Girl Scout Troop #116 in Eliot, who has earned the Gold Award for high excellence in Girl Scouting activities; (HLS 573)

Allison Languell, of Girl Scout Troop #116 in Eliot, who has earned the Gold Award for high excellence in Girl Scouting activities; (HLS 574)

Jennifer Pupkis, of Girl Scout Troop #116 in Eliot, who has earned the Gold Award for high excellence in Girl Scouting activities; (HLS 575)

William Drost, Jr., of Caribou, on the occasion of his retirement on July 1, 1991, after more than thirty-nine years of dedicated service at the Maine Public Service Company; (HLS 576)

the 4th grade class and student body of Sea Road School, of Kennebunk, for their caring contribution to the restoration of the Henry Wadsworth Longfellow monument in Portland, the poet's beloved "City by the Sea"; (HLS 577)

Daryl G. Garland, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #25 in Hermon, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 578)

Tom Langstaff, Chris Paquette, Craig Boston and Derrick Martin, of Thornton Academy, who have been named to the Class A, Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Boys Track Team in recognition of their outstanding ability in the 400 relay; (HLS 579)

Derrick Martin, of Thornton Academy, who has been named to the Class A, Maine Sunday Telegram All-State Boys Track Team in recognition of his outstanding ability in the 800 event; (HLS 580)

Abraham Leibowitz, of Portland, businessman, world traveler, philanthropist and friend to Maine's disadvantaged children; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 581)

Stanley and Shirley Dean, of Brownville Junction, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 3, 1991; (HLS 582)

Gary H. Williamson, of Andover, a member of the University of Southern Maine "Huskies" 1991 NCAA Division III College World Series champion baseball team, who has been selected as the Most Valuable Player of the series; (HLS 583)

Nicole M. Whitmore, who for high academic achievement has earned the distinction of being one of the top 3 students of the 1991 graduating class of Fort Fairfield High School; (HLS 584)

Gilbert D. Thibeau, who for high academic achievement has earned the distinction of being one of the top 3 students of the 1991 graduating class of Fort Fairfield High School; (HLS 585)

Patricia A. Nelson, who for high academic achievement has earned the distinction of being one of the top 3 students of the 1991 graduating class of Fort Fairfield High School; (HLS 586)

Ronald K. Melendy, M.S.W., L.C.S.W., who has served as the Assistant Director of the Mid-Coast Mental Health Center for twenty years and as a psychiatric social worker helped serve the mental health needs of the citizens of Knox County; (HLS 587)

Mrs. Elie (Marie Guerrette) Morin, on the occasion of her 80th birthday. Mrs. Morin, the mother of Milford, Donald, Clifford, Bert, Richard, Rena, Nancy, Leo and Elie, Jr., grandmother of 32 and great grandmother of 17, was born in Sainte Agathe on March 21, 1911; (HLS 588)

the Florent and Edith (Bouchard) Raymond family reunion held in Frenchville on July 4, 1991. The Raymond children include Emile, Patrick, Cecile, Laura, Eugenie, Lillian, Louis, Rosaire, Helen, Gerard, Aurelle, Luc, Camille, Yvette, Leo, Jean, Claude, Etienne, Nomand, Maurice and Evangeline; 35 grandchildren; 65 great grandchildren; and 37 great great grandchildren; (HLS 589)

Jeffrey Vigue, a senior at Presque Isle High School, who has been named as a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Program. This distinction places him in the top 99th percentile among all students nationwide who took the 1989 college board examinations; (HLS 590)

Howard E. Eisman, of Lewiston, Director of Operations, Bureau of Veterans' Services, who has been awarded the "Veterans' Services Bureau Advocate of the Year Award" by the Veterans' Services Small Business Administration; (HLS 591)

the Prime Tanning Company, Inc., of Berwick, for its enthusiastic efforts in supporting adult education through an on-site high school completion program offered in collaboration with the Noble Adult and Community Education Program of M.S.A.D. #60; (HLS 592)

Ethel Sezak, of Orono, who has been given the Maine Sports Hall of Fame Presidential Award for her outstanding contribution to women's sports; (HLS 593)

the Island Pantry, for its efforts in providing food assistance to the needy in the Deer Isle area, and in special recognition of Ruth and Dick McKenney, whose cross-country bicycle trip intended to explore and bring attention to the problem of hunger in the nation as well as to raise money for the Island Pantry, is appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 594)

Billie Gammon, of Livermore, Founder of the Norlands Living History Center, for 37 years of volunteer service in preserving the Washburn Family Homestead and creating its nationally recognized "living history" programs to present Maine's rural heritage to future generations; (HLS 595)

Dana Kelley, on the occasion of his promotion to the position of Police Chief of the Old Orchard Beach Police Department. Police Chief Kelley, a native of Old Orchard, began his police career nineteen years ago as a summer special and steadily rose through the ranks to obtain his present appointment; (HLS 596)

James Pickle, of Boy Scout Troop #650 in Readfield, who, through hard work and dedication, has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 597)

Jon Kindig, of Boy Scout Troop #650 in Readfield, who, through hard work and dedication, has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 598)

Fred Bechard, for his outstanding dedication and service to the students, families, staff and schools of C.S.D. #10 and to wish him well in his new position as Superintendent of Schools in S.A.D. #57; (HLS 599)

Milton Lindholm, who, surrounded by an admiring and devoted extended family, celebrated his 80th birthday on June 3, 1991; (HLS 600)

Grace and Bob Burleigh, of Wayne, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 27, 1991; (HLS 601)

Megan Hart, a junior at Winthrop High School, who has been chosen, by virtue of her excellent scholarship, dedicated leadership and citizenship, to represent Winthrop High School at the forthcoming Girls State for 1991; (HLS 602)

Jennifer Heckman, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Monmouth Academy; (HLS 603)

C. Robert Bowlby, of Sheepscot Village in Alna, respected civil engineer, beloved father, member of the Bristol Lodge of Masons and avid bear hunter whose love of the out-of-doors will always be remembered; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 604)

Kenneth and Lovina Cochran, of Princeton, on the 60th anniversary of their marriage on August 26, 1991; (HLS 605)

Christopher Towns, of Woodland, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Woodland High School; (HLS 606)

the Elizabeth Wadsworth Chapter, National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, for its caring contribution to the restoration of the Henry Wadsworth Longfellow monument in Portland, the poet's beloved "City by the Sea"; (HLS 607)

Margaret A. Taber, of Gorham, whose death has deeply saddened family and friends. Mrs. Taber was the oldest resident of Gorham, a holder of the Boston Post Cane, a member of the Williston West Church, Portland Country Club, and was recently honored as a 50-year member of the Gorham Woman's Club and a volunteer at the Maine General Hospital; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 608)

Jennifer Maureen St. Denis, of Cooper, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Woodland High School; (HLS 609)

Myra Van Fleet, recipient of the Private Sector Award given by the Biddeford-Saco Rotary Club to people in the area who have spent years in helping to make Biddeford-Saco the special place it is; (HLS 610)

the 3rd and 4th grade students of the Longfellow School, Portland, for their caring contribution to the restoration of the statue of their namesake poet, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, in Portland, his beloved "City by the Sea"; (HLS 611) the Spring Point Museum, South Portland, on the 140th anniversary of the launching of the "Snow Squall," the last remaining American-built clipper ship. Built in the Cornelius Butler Yard in Cape Elizabeth, now South Portland, she sailed the Pacific trade to South America, China and Gold Rush California from 1851 - 1864. Rescued in the Falklands in 1987, her remains are being restored at Spring

Point Museum as a symbol of the era when Mainers "went down to the sea in ships"; (HLS 612)

Mrs. Pasqualene M. Orlandello, of Portland, a daughter of Italian immigrants, who was named 1991 "Outstanding Woman of the Year" by St. Peters's Catholic Church, Portland, where she was a communicant for 60 years; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 613)

Heather Bannon Gilmour, a sophomore at Winthrop High School, who has been named to the MVC Class C All-star 1st team as a shortstop and has received the Winthrop High School coaches award for softball; (HLS 614)

Jeni Cook, of Wayne, for her outstanding and record-setting junior high school track career in the 800-meter event, with a time of 2:41 in the 7th grade and 2:34 in the 8th grade; (HLS 615)

Carleton E. Edwards, of Raymond, our well respected colleague and community leader, who served as a member of the House of Representatives during the 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th and 101st Legislatures. He was well-known as a caring and dedicated citizen who took an active role in the civic affairs of Raymond and provided sound leadership to the State of Maine; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 616)

Joan Levesque, of Jefferson, who among her many achievements served as a Legislative Proofreader in the Office of the Revisor of Statutes since 1987, who was known to us as a caring mother and who served her town as Deputy Town Clerk, as Chair of the Jefferson School Building Committee, as a member of the school committee and as a member of the Jefferson Town Land Planning Committee. Joan's sense of humor, generous spirit and kind heart have served as a source of strength for all those who knew and loved her; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 617)

Raymond and Barbara Garland, of Anson, on the occasion of their 45th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 618)

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Nash, of Camden, on the occasion of the 55th anniversary of their marriage on July 10, 1936; (HLS 619)

Edith Dunphey, of Dover-Foxcroft, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday; (HLS 620)

Burton "Lefty" Vinal, of Wilton, on his July 14, 1991, induction into the Maine Baseball Hall of Fame; (HLS 621)

the New England Vaudeville Festival on the occasion of the festival's 10th anniversary performance from July 26 to July 28, 1991, at Quimby Field in Gardiner, and in recognizing its founder, Gardiner resident and Maine performer Benny Reehl, and Johnson Hall, Inc., a nonprofit community-based project working to bring quality, original theatre education and performance to the State; (HLS 622)

Beatrice W. Nutter, of North Berwick, on the occasion of her retirement after 17 years of dedicated service as the Town Clerk of South Berwick; (HLS 623)

Johanna Von Tiling, of Cliff Island, a teacher, librarian, musician and Vassar graduate. For 30 years an activist and officer of the Casco Bay Island Development Association and the Casco Bay Island Transit District, she has been a resident of Cliff Island since 1914 and a lifelong friend to all who cherish her beloved Casco Bay; (HLS 624)

Victor Panov's Archangel'sk Theater Studio, of Archangel'sk, U. S. S. R., sister city of Portland, Maine, U. S. A., with affection and appreciation upon successful completion of their American appearance at the Mad Horse Theater, Portland, proving that peace knows no language and that "All the world's a stage"; (HLS 625)

Tammy Merrill Campbell, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of the Husson College/Eastern Maine Medical Center Baccalaureate Nursing Program and was the recipient of the Husson College Plaque Award in Nursing for her outstanding service to Husson College and the community; (HLS 626)

L. Wayne Allen, of Windham, on the occasion of his retirement as an employee of the Maine Correctional Center, whose 37 1/2 years of dedication and commitment to the center exemplify the generous spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 627)

Dale Morgan, proprietor of Dale's Snack Bar, and in extending our sincere thanks and appreciation for her many long hours of serving the Legislature and the people of the State House by providing food, drink, respite and a congenial meeting place for all of us; (HLS 628)

SPC John McCutcheon, Capt. Hugh (Chip) Berglund, Sgt. Miguel Castaneda, PFC Roland J. Cote, III, Lt. Andrew Cyr, U.S.N., Major Richard Cyr, U.S.A.F., Corporal Tim Drake, SPC 4 Charles A. Hopkins and Sgt. Susan Hewes, whose participation in Operation Desert Storm and commitment to the ideals of our nation and to the freedom of all people are gratefully appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 629)

Cpl. C. A. Kelley, Lance Corp. Randall G. Lovely, A1C Jim MacMichael, SPC Joseph P. Mass, PFC Neil E. McLean, Jr., SPC William J. Nixon, Sgt. Paul Pelletier, Spc. Paul G. Pelletier and S. Sgt. John F. Proulx, whose participation in Operation Desert Storm and commitment to the ideals of our nation and to the freedom of all people are gratefully appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 630)

SKI Glenn Quirion, E-4 Paul S. Sylvain, Sgt. Robin B. Weed, Sgt. Kevin R. Welch, Airman 1C Keith Welch, Pvt. Vance A. Cayford, Spc. John E. Icenogle, PFC Kenneth Miller and Spec. Libby J. Proulx, whose participation in Operation Desert Storm and commitment to the ideals of our nation and to the freedom of all people are gratefully appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 631)

1st Lt. Jennifer E. Choate, of Winthrop, whose participation in Operation Desert Storm and commitment to the ideals of our nation and to the freedom of all people are gratefully appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 632)

S. Sgt. Mike Tuttle; S. Sgt. Albert M. Gagnon USMC; L/Cpl. Richard Toussaint; Glen L. Stevens; Jon Redimaker; S. Sgt. Douglas Merrill; Lt. J.G. Eric Owen; Kevin P. Lapointe, Sr., ETID6; Daniel R. Mayrose; SN Travis Grogan; and PN3 Gerald MacPherson, of South Berwick, whose participation in Operation Desert Storm and commitment to the ideals of our nation and to the freedom of all people are gratefully appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 633)

Tom Eldridge; Sgt. Christine M. Gagne; Maj. John C. Hinds; Michael A. James; SPC Paul Levesque; 1st. Lt. Sean P. Lewis; SPC Glenn N. Marsh; Cpt. Todd Marsh; PV2 Donald Shibles; SSG Ronnie Taylor; SSG Dawn Taylor; EN2 Mark R. Thyng; LCPL Eric D. Winslow; PVG Chrispian Talbolt; and Shawn Toussaint, of North Berwick, whose participation in Operation Desert Storm and commitment to the ideals of our nation and to the freedom of all people are gratefully appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 634)

Boatswains Mate First Class Eric B. Kelley, of Searsport, who has been named the Sailor of the Year by the Military Sealift Command in Europe in recognition of his service overseeing the shipment of supplies during Operation Desert Storm; (HLS 635)

Sgt. Dana McGinnis; Lance Corp. David J. Braun; 1st Lt. Wanda Crosby; CWO II Wayne Devine; E-4 Beth Libby; Tech Sgt. John Hawes; Chief Warrant Officer Sean Winkley; Sgt. Wayne Grenier; SPC.4 Charles A. Hopkins; Sgt. Roger Lee; and Capt. Lenore Styler, whose participation in Operation Desert Storm and commitment to the ideals of our nation and to the freedom of all people are gratefully appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 636)

Jane Rancourt, wife, mother and charter member of the St. Theresa's Circle of Daughters of Isabella, on the occasion of her 100th Birthday on July 24, 1991. Mrs. Rancourt has been a longtime baseball and hunting enthusiast; (HLS 637)

Florence Burton, of Hermon, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday; (HLS 638)

George and Evelyn Cunningham, of Orono, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 639)

Orono Police Sergeant John B. Rogers, of Eddington, one of 12 national recipients of the Public Service Scholarship Award administered by the Public Employees Roundtable of Washington, D.C., for his dedication to public service in his chosen field of law enforcement; (HLS 640)

Reverend Kendall Hoffses, of Friendship, beloved family member and known in the community for his active participation in civic, church and social activities in the Friendship area; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 641)

Freeman and Thelma Beck, of Millinocket, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 642)

Erline M. Humphrey, of Hartland, whose death has deeply saddened family and friends. Ms. Humphrey served the citizens of Hartland as town clerk for many years; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 643)

the Town of Patten, well-known for its farming, lumbering activities and sporting camps, on the occasion of its sesquicentennial celebration and in extending best wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate this special occasion; (HLS 644)

Tabitha Spruce King, for her generosity in helping to create an expanded literary world for the people of the Old Town area; (HLS 645)

Howard W. Merrill, for his dedicated service as chairman of the City of Old Town's Public Library Expansion Committee; (HLS 646)

Eugene J. LeGassey, of Millinocket, whose death has deeply saddened family and friends. Mr. LeGassey was a veteran of World War II, a member of the A. O. P. A., the Maine Pilot's Association, the Donald V. Henry Post No. 80 American Legion and Bernard L. Coro Chapter No. 22 DAV; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 647)

Albert and Yvonne Jenkins, of Brewer, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 648)

Toby Hall, of Ashland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 649)

Ryan Caron, of Ashland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 650)

Dale Dunham, of Ashland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 651)

Edith Dunphey, of Dover-Foxcroft, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday; (HLS 652)

the Town of Dyer Brook, well-known as a long-standing farming and lumbering community, on the occasion of its centennial celebration and in extending best wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate this special occasion; (HLS 653)

Doris McKee, of Oakfield, on the occasion of her 90th Birthday on September 1, 1991; (HLS 654)

Malvina Fortin, of Moscow, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 95th birthday; (HLS 655)

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Coro, of Jackman, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 656)

Jennifer Diffin, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1991 graduating class of Calais Memorial High School; (HLS 657)

Heather Guire, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Calais Memorial High School; (HLS 658)

the Northeastern Longshoreman Association #1, for 10 years of upholding the highest standard in work ethic and in helping the port of Eastport achieve high success toward economic development; (HLS 659)

Richard Perry, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1991 graduating class of Lee Academy; (HLS 660)

Angela Picard Charette, upon her retirement from the Northern Maine Medical Center after 18 years of devoted service; (HLS 661)

Delsie N. Charette, upon his retirement from the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad after 41 years of dedicated service; (HLS 662)

Louis and Lorette (Boucher) Labrie on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Labrie were married in the St. Ann's Catholic Church in Bristol, Connecticut, on September 13, 1941, and are the parents of Louise, Diane, Daniel, Judith, Carol, Theresa and Elaine; (HLS 663)

Lionel and Doris Blanchette, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, August 17, 1991; (HLS 664)

Penny Brown, recipient of a New Norland Grange Community Citizen Award, for her participation in the Desert Storm Chain of Flags project; (HLS 665)

Pearl and Larry Colford, recipients of a New Norland Grange Community Citizen Award, for their participation in the Desert Storm Chain of Flags project; (HLS 666)

the employees of Boise Cascade's Rumford Mill, who have made a major contribution toward safety in the workplace with their record of 1,529,280 continuous safe work hours, breaking the 1,437,000 continuous safe work hours record set 11 years ago; (HLS 667)

Alden Wyman, of Rumford, who has been named the 1991 School Bus Driver of the Year by the Maine Association for Pupil Transportation; (HLS 668)

Paul B. "Korky" Patchell, of Millinocket, whose untimely death has shocked and saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 669)

Edmond A. Cyr, beloved husband, father, grandfather, well-known mason contractor and member of the St. Martin of Tours Council No. 680 Knights of Columbus and the Francis E. Elliott Post No. 4154 VFW of Millinocket; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 670)

Dr. John and Helen Sullivan, whose dedicated efforts toward economic development for the City of Eastport are unprecedented; (HLS 671)

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Cyr, of Millinocket, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on September 1, 1991; (HLS 672)

Chris Heath, whose heroic actions while on duty as a lifeguard on July 25th at Lake Pennesseewassee were responsible for saving the life of a drowning 3-year-old; (HLS 673)

William E. Maloney, Jr., of Portland and Falmouth, devoted husband, member of the Bricklayers and Allied Craftsmen Union, first resident manager of the North School Housing Complex and lifelong activist in his church and community for the cause of social justice; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 674)

Philip Jenkins, a proud resident of Tate Street in Portland, member of the Casco Bay Island Development Association and the Disabled American Veterans' Association, and an outspoken advocate for the young and the disadvantaged and for the preservation of the heritage of Casco Bay and Portland, Longfellow's beloved "City by the Sea"; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 675)

Lisa and Jeff Mishou, of Bangor, for their fast action and courage in responding to the assault of a child; (HLS 676)

Andrew W. Fossel, of Alna, and a student at Oberlin College in Oberlin, Ohio, whose unexpected death has deeply saddened family and friends. Andrew's academic achievements include the distinction of being named a national merit scholar as well as earning the Maine Junior High School Mathematics Championship; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 677)

Glen and Jane Torrey, of Poland, on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of their marriage. In recognition of their many years of community service and commitment to family and as a symbol of the love and affection felt by all of their neighbors and friends, this very special couple is wished a wonderful day, a wonderful year and many wonderful memories on their anniversary day, August 24, 1991; (HLS 678)

Matthew James, of Baileyville, who has been selected as a Grand Prize Winner in the United States Postal Service's Stamp Art Contest for the State of Maine. Nine thousand students participated in the contest and the Grand Prize entry was selected from over 400 winning entries. Matthew's entry will be forwarded to Postal Headquarters in Washington, D.C., for the National Stamp Art Judging Contest; (HLS 679)

J. Michel Littrell, of Boy Scout Troop #132 in Calais, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 680)

Anne Gloria Sperry, beloved mother and grandmother, whose death has saddened many. Mrs. Sperry was a citizen of Alna and served in the Army Nurse Corps in the Philippines and Japan with the 5th Air Force and worked as a professional nurse at the Togus Veterans Hospital and in hospitals in Ft. Fairfield, Calais, Damariscotta and Boothbay Harbor; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 681)

Mr. and Mrs. F. Fay Ham, of Norridgewock, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 682)

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Soucier, Sr., and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 683)

David A. Lindahl, of Northport, on the occasion of his retirement as a Sergeant with the Maine State Police after 21 years of dedicated service; (HLS 684)

Arthur Lewis and Irene Marguerite Fournier, of

Jay, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, August 24, 1991; (HLS 685)

Andrew Bond, of Boy Scout Troop #57 in Millinocket, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 686)

David R. Lord, Jr., of Post #7 in Brewer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 687)

Alena L. Starrett, of Warren, a lifelong resident of Warren, who was a well-known reporter for more than 50 years. Mrs. Starrett was a member of the Garden, Women's and Bridge clubs and of White Oak Grange. She received many awards and commendations in recognition of her outstanding work as a news correspondent; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 688)

Representative and Mrs. Walter Hichens, of Eliot, on the 50th anniversary of their wedding, November 8, 1941; a happy anniversary to 2 special people to whom we send best wishes for a wonderful day, a wonderful year and many wonderful memories; (HLS 689)

Juliet A. Saliba, of Waterville, wife, mother, sister, businesswoman, athlete, poet, musician and appreciator of the arts; a very special person who will be missed by all who knew her; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 690)

Helen S. Kinney, of Atkinson, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, September 14, 1991; (HLS 691)

Charles and Loretta Knight, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 24, 1991; (HLS 692)

the Powell Memorial Center, of Eagle Lake, for being awarded national accreditation by the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities and for being accredited by the Accreditation Council on Developmental Disabilities; (HLS 693)

Shawn Andrews, of Boy Scout Troop #44 in Orrington, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 694)

the Hancock County Agricultural Society, on the occasion of its 100th year in sponsoring the Blue Hill Fair, 1891 - 1991; (HLS 695)

Mrs. Effie Hinckley, of Blue Hill, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, September 5, 1991; (HLS 696)

Robbinson Loder, of Boy Scout Troop #171 in Presque Isle, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 697)

Peter and Bonnie Hunter, who have been named Business Persons of the Year by the Lisbon Chamber of Commerce; (HLS 698)

Ethel A. Smith, of Kenduskeag, on the occasion of her 100th Birthday on October 3, 1991; (HLS 699)

the officers and members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States Passamaquoddy Memorial Post #11299, founders of the first Veterans of Foreign Wars post named after a native American tribe in the State; (HLS 700)

Raymond and Marjorie Bearor, of North Anson, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on September 28, 1991; (HLS 701)

Patricia Berger and the staff at Mount St. Joseph, of Waterville, for 25 years of dedicated service and care to retired priests and those who are unable to take care of themselves; (HLS 702)

Catherine Hall Cooke, on the occasion of her 90th birthday on September 26, 1991; (HLS 703)

Ethel Landry, a long-time resident of Brunswick, on the occasion of her 90th birthday on October 9, 1991; (HLS 704)

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Elias, of Fairfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 705)

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tuttle, of Athens, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 706)

Evard and Irene Drake, of Washburn, on the occasion of their 71st Wedding Anniversary on August 24, 1991; (HLS 707)

James B. Bertolino, of Boy Scout Troop #16 in Brewer, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 708)

Carlton D. Pendleton, who has been named Executive Director of the Sweetser Children's Services; (HLS 709)

Clifford B. Ham, of South Berwick, on the occasion of his 30th anniversary as a member of the Rotary Club, whose dedicated service to the club and his community exemplifies the ideals of the Rotary Club; (HLS 710)

Jane and Clifford Nelson, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on October 6, 1991; (HLS 711)

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tozier, of Moscow, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on June 12, 1991; (HLS 712)

Stephanie Renee Stephenson, who has earned the highest achievement in Girl Scouting, the prestigious Girl Scout Gold Award; (HLS 713)

Donald W. Shorey, of Old Orchard and Saco, in appreciation of his many years of dedicated service to area communities and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 75th birthday; (HLS 714)

Stanley and Bertha Tobey, 1991 Kittery Citizens of the Year, for their contributions toward community activities, including the Kittery Little League, the Kittery Pirates Football Team and the Traip Academy Boosters' Club; (HLS 715)

Basil and Nora Grindle, of Blue Hill, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 27, 1991; (HLS 716)

Richard Whitney, in appreciation of his many years of service as chair of the Knox County Extension and his service to youth through 4H, the special Tanglewood Project and Old McDonald's Farm at the Union Fair, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 80th birthday; (HLS 717)

L. Paul and Irene Couture, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 29, 1991; (HLS 718)

Jason Linquist, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 719)

Justin Bell, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 720)

Troy Corbin, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 721)

Tom Peterson, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 722)

Chad Parisi, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 723)

Ryan Genz, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 724)

Jeremy Bell, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 725)

Gary Dumond, of Fort Kent, on the occasion of his retirement as a pilot for the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife after 20 years of state service; (HLS 726)

Francis H. Vail, Sr., of East Stoneham, codiscoverer of the Vail Paleo-Indian Archeological Site at Aziscohos Lake in Oxford County, and for 75 years an avid woodsman and guide in the Magalloway Wilderness of Northwestern Maine; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 727)

Kate O'Neil, of Portland, for her selection as a delegate to the National Young Leaders Conference of the Congressional Youth Leadership Council in Washington, D. C., and for the achievement of one of the highest Scholastic Aptitude Test scores in New England for the year 1991; (HLS 728) the captain and the crew of the H. M. S. Rose, the world's largest operational wooden tall ship, upon the occasion of their visit to Portland, Maine, the northernmost port of call on their cruise, commemorating the bicentennial of the United States Bill of Rights; (HLS 729)

Jason LaPlante, of Boy Scout Troop #57 in Millinocket, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 730)

Tyler G. Dunphy, of Boy Scout Troop #432 in North Anson, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 731)

Nellie H. Downs, of Brewer, beloved mother, grandmother, great - grandmother and great - great - grandmother, on the occasion of her 95th birthday; (HLS 732)

R. Kevin Ready, of Boy Scout Troop #195 in Limestone, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 733)

Michael D. Wunderlich, of Boy Scout Troop #195 in Limestone, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 734)

Jane Therriault Rancourt, of Fairfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday; (HLS 735)

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence B. Ridley, of Fairfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 15, 1991; (HLS 736)

Marion B. Noble, of Wells, who has been elected President of the Maine Town and City Clerks Association; (HLS 737)

Linda Cornett, of Dover - Foxcroft, whose courageous stand in support of homemakers and attitude toward mothering helped to earn her the honor of being named Maine's Full-Time Homemaker of the Year for 1991 by the Eagle Forum, a pro-family movement; (HLS 738)

Rene Lizotte, Fire Chief for Townships 17 R4 and 17 R5, on the occasion of his retirement on July 1, 1991, after 41 years of dedicated service; (HLS 739)

Louis and Ethel O'Leary Pelletier, of Allagash, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, October 31, 1991; (HLS 740)

the Southern Aroostook Community School "Warriors" Boys Baseball Team, winners of the 1991 Class D Eastern Maine Baseball Championship; (HLS 741) the Southern Aroostook Community School "Warriors" Boys Basketball Team, winners of the 1991 Class D State Basketball Championship; (HLS 742)

Franklin R. McElwain, an agriculture teacher at Limestone Junior-Senior High School, whose dedication to teaching and innovative classroom integrating computers, videos and the outdoors have earned him the distinction of being named the State's Teacher of the Year for 1992; (HLS 743)

Nicholas P. Frank, II, of Canaan, a member of Boy Scout Troop #432, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 744)

Frank Maguire, on the occasion of his retirement after 36 years of dedicated service as the Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop #22 at the Holy Cross

Church in South Portland; (HLS 745)

Carl and Barbara Kirkpatrick, of Windsor, in appreciation of their many years of contribution to the community, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 746)

Jeffrey Kaleta, of Boy Scout Troop #196 in Van Buren, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 747)

Mario Byram, of Boy Scout Troop #196 in Van Buren, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 748)

Keith Ouellette, of Boy Scout Troop #196 in Van Buren, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 749)

Joel Dufour, of Boy Scout Troop #196 in Van Buren, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 750)

Jay A. Gustin, of Boy Scout Troop #271 in Presque Isle, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 751)

Dominic D. DiFrancesco, National Commander of the American Legion, member of the Middletown, Pennsylvania Post 594, who has served his town, state and nation with distinction and who has always been ready to stand and defend the freedoms and liberties that make our country a great place in which to live; (HLS 752)

Trudy Florini, of East Boothbay, whose 40 years of service as a community volunteer with the Girl Scouts, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Food Pantry, helping to provide toys for children at Christmas and Thanksgiving baskets for the needy and participating in church activities are greatly appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 753)

Sylvin Cyr, of Millinocket, the Maine 1991 Multiple Sclerosis Mother of the Year; (HLS 754)

Molly A. Call, Windham school nurse and beloved family member, who will be remembered by students, faculty and educators statewide for raising public awareness about the dangers of substance abuse. Mrs. Call served as a state consultant promoting drug and alcohol awareness and training for teachers and was a member of the Legislative Committee of the Maine State Nurses Association, working on legislation aimed at promoting health among school-age children; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 755)

Charles G. Bourque, of Oxford, for his immeasurable service to the community for 25 years and in extending our best wishes on his retirement as town manager of the Town of Oxford; (HLS 756)

Matthew Cole, of Boy Scout Troop #177 in Washburn, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 757)

David Thomas Hammond, of Boy Scout Troop #171 in Presque Isle, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 758)

Howard Schonberger, of Bangor, who was an accomplished scholar, author, teacher and activist for peace and justice; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 759)

Levine's, of downtown Waterville, on the occasion of its 100th Anniversary and in extending congratulations to Ludy and Pacy Levine and Howard Miller, along with their many dedicated employees, whose dedication and enthusiasm have helped the store remain a success in the Waterville area since its founding by William Levine a century ago; (HLS 760)

Millard C. Sennett, of Albion, a member of the 87th Maine Legislature, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 93rd birthday, November 14, 1991; (HLS 761)

Russell V. Broad and Phyllis R. Broad, of Corinth, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, November 15, 1991; (HLS 762)

Mary W. Noyes, of Limestone, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, November 19, 1991; (HLS 763)

Vincenta Gage, on the occasion of the dedication of the Vincenta Gage Library at Mt. Abram High School, and in extending appreciation for her many years of invaluable service in her capacity as the Librarian; (HLS 764)

Louie and Donna Barker, of New Vineyard, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 40th Wedding Anniversary, November 18, 1991; (HLS 765)

Fredericka Alane Boynton, of Millinocket, beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great - grandmother, whose death has deeply saddened family and friends. Mrs. Boynton was an active member in civic organizations and the community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 766)

the Stearns High School "Minutemen" Football team, of Millinocket, winners of the 1991 Eastern Maine Class C Football Championship; (HLS 767)

the Civil Air Patrol, on the occasion of its 50th Anniversary, in extending best wishes for its continued success in the promotion of aerospace education and its operation of the Cadet Program, and in expressing our appreciation for its invaluable assistance in providing emergency services to national, state and local authorities; (HLS 768)

Jean Davis Baker, of Aledo, Texas, on the occasion of the 175th anniversary (1816 - 1991) of the incorporation of Moscow, formerly called Bakerstown, Maine. Jean Davis Baker is a direct descendant of Joseph Baker and Dorcas Smith, the first white settlers in 1783 of Moscow after Benedict Arnold's march to Quebec; (HLS 769)

Patrick J. Dorney, for distinguished service to the veterans of the State of Maine; (HLS 770)

Earle and Shirley Haley, of South Bristol, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, November 15, 1991; (HLS 771)

the Stearns High School "Minutemen" Football

Team, winners of the Class C State Championship; (HLS 772)

Jamie Nyman, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #57 in Millinocket, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 773)

Walter and Ella Kershner, of Waterville, on the occasion of their 64th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 774)

Jason Beaupre, of Boy Scout Troop #185 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 775)

Joshua Poulin, of Boy Scout Troop #185 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 776)

Barbara Churchill, on her retirement after 27 years of dedicated service with the Department of Human Services; (HLS 777)

John H. Doe, Chief of Police of the East Millinocket Police Department, on the occasion of his retirement on December 31, 1991, after 34 years of dedicated service with the department; (HLS 778)

Bengal D. Dow, of Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 779)

Gardiner Sperry, of Caribou, on his retirement after 35 years of service and dedication to the people of the City of Caribou. Mr. Sperry was fire chief for 6 years and contributed to the formation of the City of Caribou's fire and ambulance service; (HLS 780)

Kenneth Cunningham, of Caribou, on his retirement after 36 years of dedicated service as a member of the City of Caribou highway department; (HLS 781)

Thelma Cushman, of Chesterville, who celebrated the occasion of her 80th birthday with family and friends at a surprise birthday party at Kineowatha Park in Wilton; (HLS 782)

Henry and Alice Purington, of Chesterville, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on September 27, 1991; (HLS 783)

James Palmer and his son, Jamie Dewar, of Livermore Falls, whose drag racing hobbies have earned them trophies during 1991 drag racing competitions. Jamie is credited with taking 1st place in the Street Eliminator sand dragging competition on September 29th, one of his first competitive races; (HLS 784)

the following members of the 1991 Livermore Falls Girls Cross-country Team, who won the 4th consecutive Class C State Championship for their school: Katherine Chabot, Rachelle Leger, Jackie Castonguay, Jaime Pelletier, Amanda Lee, Amy Zelasko, Erica Richard, Stephani Salisbury, Sherry Chretien, Christina Damon, April Brackett, Sarah Damon, Sarah Pike, Megan Sampson, Jodie Lake, Heather Given and coach Gerry Hoff; (HLS 785)

Christopher D. Nelson, of Boy Scout Troop #648 in Brunswick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 786)

Carolyn Davis Thompson, of South Thomaston, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, November 15, 1991; (HLS 787)

the Mt. Ararat High School "Lady Eagles" Girls Soccer Team, winners of the Class A State Soccer Championship. This is the 3rd state championship win in 8 years for the girls soccer team; (HLS 788)

Virgil and Gertrude Hinckley, of Kittery, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on December 6, 1991; (HLS 789)

Freeman and Estelle Wright, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on December 22, 1991; (HLS 790)

Bev Libby, of Caribou, on his induction into the "United Parcel Service Circle of Honor" for 20 years of accident-free driving; (HLS 791)

Robert Heald, of Union, well-known for his leadership and dedicated service to the citizens of this State. Mr. Heald was a member of the Maine House of Representatives from 1956 - 1960, a member of former Governor John H. Reed's Executive Council from 1961 - 1962 and a Knox County Commissioner from 1963 - 1980; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 792)

Corey M. Ellis, of Boy Scout Troop #594 in Farmington, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 793) the 1991 Van Buren "Lady Crusaders" Girls Soccer Team who won the State Class D Championship. This is the second consecutive year for winning a state title for their school; (HLS 794)

Sarah Roy, a member of the Van Buren High School Girls Soccer Team, whose 104 goals during her high school soccer career have set a school record and established her as a top player in the State; (HLS 795)

the Van Buren "Crusaders" Boys' Soccer Team who won the 1991 Eastern Maine Class D Soccer Championship; (HLS 796)

Vivian Perrault, of Bangor, recipient of the Girl Scouts of America Medal of Honor for saving the life of her younger sister, Monique, by administering the Heimlich maneuver; (HLS 797)

Helen Dubbs, on the occasion of her 100th birthday on December 27, 1991. A well-loved and respected resident of Gorham, whose advocacy in maintaining written history and her active involvement with the First Parish Congregational Church, of Gorham, have endeared her to all; (HLS 798)

Katie Knox, of Wayne, for her outstanding career at Maranacook Community School. Ms. Knox's dedication and commitment to school and community activities have made a significant impact on students and adults well beyond the school's boundaries; (HLS 799)

Susan Tree, for 12 years of dedicated service as an Associate Director of Admissions at Bates College; (HLS 800)

Laura G. Sanborn, of Monmouth, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of her 80th birthday, September 2, 1991; (HLS 801)

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Goodine, of Hartland, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 27, 1991; (HLS 802)

the following members of the Messalonskee Field Hockey Team, 1991 State Class B Champions: Margaret Henrick; Jen Hunter; Lesley Corbett; Jessica Desrosiers; Dori Flewelling; Jen Mitchell; Beth Morin; Amy Morrell; Amy Morneau; Allyson Nye; Angel Paradis; Christena Pillsbury; Jessica Pillsbury; Krystal Bickford; Heather Bilodeau; Alicia Breznyak; Marsha Simpson; Jessica Rancourt; Sarah Wood; Meghan O'Donnell; Becky Higgins; Nicki Pelletier, manager; Gwen Bacon, varsity coach; and Janet Hutchinson, assistant coach; (HLS 803)

Walter Cowing, of Boy Scout Troop #622 in Manchester, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 804)

Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Bubar, on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary on October 3, 1991; (HLS 805)

Chris Dreher, of Boy Scout Troop #214 in Thomaston, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 806)

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Lewis, of Boothbay, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on November 29, 1991; (HLS 807)

Angela Robb, from the Woodland Recreation Department, who won the Maine Hot Shot Championship in the 9 to 10 year old category; (HLS 808)

Curtis W. West, of Boothbay Harbor, recipient of the Paul Harris Fellow Award from the Boothbay Harbor Rotary Club in recognition of his 22 years of service to the club and community. A $1,000 donation was made to the Rotary Foundation in Mr. West's name; (HLS 809)

Norman and Marjorie (Knight) Morehouse, on the occasion of their Golden Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse were married in Presque Isle on November 27, 1941; (HLS 810)

Dr. Ralph K. Ryder, on his retirement as Superintendent of Schools. Dr. Ryder has been in education for 32 years, 12 of which he served as Superintendent of Schools for Union #113; (HLS 811)

Coach Karla Allen and the following junior high school 8th - grade cheerleaders from S. A. D. #70 in Hodgdon, who won the "Award of Excellence" at the Husson College Summer Cheerleading Camp and earned the opportunity to attend the National Cheerleader Competition to be held in conjunction with the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Texas: Khylee McGary, Jessica McLaughlin, Linda Bouchard, Joy Allen, Corey Hill, Laura Nason, Philippa Content, Heather Little, Beth Riley and Kara Malone; (HLS 812)

James McAleney, who has been chosen "Mr. Long Island" by his fellow Long Islanders in recognition of his daily service and unending dedication to his neighbors and friends; (HLS 813)

Richard Milligan, on the occasion of his retirement after 26 years of dedicated service on the Monmouth Fire Department, serving as the First Assistant Chief Engineer for 22 years; (HLS 814)

Reverend Russell L. Wallace, of Ogunquit, on the occasion of his 90th birthday on January 29, 1992. Reverend Wallace's years of dedicated ministerial service, including his current "retirement" as Associate Minister of the First Parish Federated Church in South Berwick and as a chaplain in the Pacific during World War II, exemplify his generous spirit, love and devotion toward humankind; (HLS 815)

Marie Kennison, of Bingham, who, at the age of 90, is Maine's oldest Girl Scout. She is an honorary member of Bingham Troop #207 and has maintained her interest in Girl Scouting by selling cookies and working with the girls when they visit her; (HLS 816)

W. Henry Weston, of Gardiner, long-time resident and friend of the City of Gardiner, city councilor for many years, veteran and past commander of the Smith - Wiley Post, American Legion, cofounder of the Gardiner Little League and umpire. His devotion to the City of Gardiner and his many years of service will be long remembered and appreciated; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 817)

Jennifer Hodgkins, winner of the National Art Contest for Young Students, sponsored by Binney & Smith; (HLS 818)

C. Irving and Belle S. Porter, of Unity, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, January 24, 1992; (HLS 819)

James Redfield, of Chesterville, on the occasion of his retirement after 11 years of dedicated service as treasurer of the Town of Chesterville; (HLS 820)

Stephen and Jessie McAvoy, of Sherman Station, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, January 18, 1992; (HLS 821) and in extending our sincere appreciation to the Maine Committee on Aging and its staff for the exceptional advocacy they have performed on behalf of the elderly since the committee's establishment by P&SL 1953, chapter 176. The work accomplished by the committee will be missed by all the citizens of Maine; (HLS 822)

Mr. and Mrs. Waino Ray, of Gorham, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on January 23, 1992; (HLS 823)

Janet Mills, District Attorney for Franklin, Oxford and Androscoggin Counties, who has been chosen "Maine's Person of the Year" by the readers of the Central Maine Morning Sentinel in recognition of her professionalism, strength and unwillingness to yield under pressure when faced with bitter controversy; (HLS 824)

Susie E. "Sirri" Clark, of Medway, a well-known and respected member of her community, who worked for the Eastern Area Agency for the Aging for 12 years and served on the Medway Board of Selectmen for 12 years. Mrs. Clark also donated much of her time to the Meals for Me and the American Association for Retired Persons. She was a contributing member of the Ellis Island Foundation and a proud member of the Finnish - American Heritage Society; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 825)

Michael Thomas Vogt, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 826)

James F. Slocomb, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 827)

Edward P. Cyr, of Madawaska, our respected colleague, who served as a member during the 100th, 101st, 105th, 106th and 107th Legislatures, a man well known as a caring person and dedicated citizen, who provided sound leadership to the State of Maine; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 828)

Jeremy Bean, of Greenbush, a member of Explorer Post 315 in Bangor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 829)

Goldie McKinnon, of Waterville, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 80th birthday, February 10, 1992; (HLS 830)

Emily Gove, of Boothbay, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, January 26, 1992; (HLS 831)

Isabel Buck, of Dover-Foxcroft, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her retirement after serving 64 years as a volunteer and salaried worker at the Thompson Free Library in Dover-Foxcroft; (HLS 832)

Elizabeth Ring, of Portland, teacher, author and historian, on the occasion of her 90th birthday. From 1938 - 1941 she served as WPA Research Editor for Maine's Historic Records Survey. As acting director of the Maine Historical Society, a founder of Greater Portland Landmarks and, for 25 years, a teacher at Deering High School, she has devoted a lifetime of scholarship to the people and the past of her beloved "Pine Tree State"; (HLS 833)

Charles Ansell, of Dexter, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 98th birthday, January 14, 1992, and in congratulating him on receiving the Boston Post Cane, which is given to the oldest member of a community; (HLS 834)

Trisha Ripton, a junior at Stearns High School, who scored her 1000th point in basketball; (HLS 835)

Sterling Shepperd, of Boy Scout Troop #57 in Millinocket, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 836)

Joseph A. Malcolm, of Boy Scout Troop #57 in Millinocket, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 837)

Fred "Pete" and Pauline Portwine, of Millinocket, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, February 9, 1992; (HLS 838)

Jessica Garrett, of Winslow, Maine's Young Woman of the Year for 1992; (HLS 839)

the graduates of the Certified Logging Professional Program, who will be honored on February 7, 1992, by the Maine TREE Foundation at graduation ceremonies, and in commending them on their outstanding commitment to safety, proper forest management and environmentally sound wood harvesting, as well as to the future of the State's logging profession; (HLS 840)

Stanton Yeaton, of Farmington, a prominent and respected member of his community, whose warmth, insight and outstanding service to this community endeared him to all of those whose lives he touched. In addition to civic duties, Mr. Yeaton was a member of several fraternal organizations and an active member of Henderson Memorial Baptist Church; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 841)

N. Douglas Starbird, on the occasion of his retirement after 15 years as Chief of Police for the Town of York, whose years of dedicated law enforcement service also include 20 years as a Maine State Trooper, retiring as a Captain in 1975; (HLS 842)

Seth Adam Hedgecock, of North Yarmouth, of Boy Scout Troop #58, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 843)

Chris Gauvin, of Boy Scout Troop #271 in Presque Isle, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 844)

Boy Scout Troop #1, of Brewer, on the occasion of its 75th anniversary, and in extending our best wishes for its continued success in serving the youths of the Brewer area; (HLS 845)

Agnes Flaherty, who has received the Maine State Nurses Association's Board of Directors Award for her leadership in local, state and national nursing issues for more than 40 years in both her professional and volunteer activities. Ms. Flaherty has been an active and dedicated member of the association since 1954; (HLS 846)

Lee Phillip Theriault, of Boy Scout Troop #64, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 847)

Richard E. Cooper, of Boy Scout Troop #609 in Windsor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 848)

Helen Belanger, on the occasion of her 90th birthday; (HLS 849)

John Jay Willard, Sr., of Bethel, our respected colleague, who served as a member of the House of Representatives during the 106th Legislature, and who was a prominent member of the community. In addition to civic duties, Mr. Willard was a member of the Knights of Templar, the Bethel Lions Club, the Gould Academy Alumni Council and the West Paris Congregational Church of Bethel. He was a 50-year member of the Grange and a Past Master of Jefferson Lodge 100 AF and AM; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 850)

Dana, Dennis and David Turner, of Eastport, recipients of the Harry E. Mattin award for outstanding community service; (HLS 851)

the following members of the Shead High School Cheerleading squad: Sherrie Metcalf, Jennifer Bishop, Michelle Pulk, Jana Craig, Heather Brown, Kendra MacDonald, Susan Segien, Debbie Pottle, Crystal Toni Rosa and Shelley Bishop and manager Arian Purdy, manager Dymphana Estep, assistant manager Suzy Follis, mascot Tonia Brown and Coach Heidi Brown and in extending our congratulations on winning the 1991-92 Class D Cheerleading Championship; (HLS 852)

Lucille Hussey, of Alfred, and in extending our congratulations and best wishes on the occasion of becoming a United States citizen. Mrs. Hussey is an art teacher at the Alfred Elementary School. Mrs. Hussey and her husband Michael have played an important role in organizing the Alfred Elementary School Recreation Program; (HLS 853)

Calais Recreation Hotshot champion Holli Tapley, winner of the Maine Recreation and Park Association Hotshot basketball contest in the 13 - 14 year old division; (HLS 854)

Harmon Harvey, Mayor of Hallowell, on the occasion of his retirement after 33 years of dedicated service to the Department of Human Services; (HLS 855)

the Marshwood High School Cheerleaders, Coach Lori McPherson and Co-captains Angie Parent and Becky Rockafellow, winners of the 1991-92 State Class B Cheerleading Championship; (HLS 856)

Robert "Bob" Greeley, of Lisbon Falls, who has been named the Lisbon Rotary Club Citizen of the Year; (HLS 857)

Donald G. Webster, a beloved family man who for 25 years was a dedicated firefighter, 20 years with the Portland Fire Department and the last 5 years as the chief of the Cape Elizabeth Fire Department. Mr. Webster's warmth, insight and outstanding service to his community endeared him to all of those whose lives he touched; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 858)

Warren H. Hilton, a successful businessman in South Berwick for 42 years, whose years of dedicated service as a charter member of the Lions Club, member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion, member of the South Berwick Emergency Ambulance Squad and recipient of the Fire Department Award exemplify his generous spirit and commitment to his community; (HLS 859)

Robert I. Curran, in appreciation of his long and dedicated service to the citizens of the State of Maine. Mr. Curran's service includes 16 years of involvement with adults through community education. Mr. Curran is known by his colleagues and friends as a caring and dedicated person; (HLS 860)

Lisa Pohlmann, of Rockland, for ten years of work to increase the public's awareness of domestic violence through her dedicated service to New Hope for Women, the Maine Coalition for Family Crisis Services and the Maine Commission on Domestic Abuse; (HLS 861)

Duane Small, Principal at the Gilman Street School and Curriculum Coordinator for the entire Waterville school system, who has been named the 1991 Educator of the Year; (HLS 862)

Serge Dostie, of Boy Scout Troop #100 in Dover-Foxcroft, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 863)

Marion Copp Hanlon, of York Harbor, on the occasion of her 80th birthday on February 7, 1992; (HLS 864)

Rockland City Councilor Robert Gagnon, who has been named Person of the Year by the Rockland - Thomaston Area Chamber of Commerce in recognition of his accomplishments and contributions toward the betterment of the Rockland area; (HLS 865)

the 1991-92 Rockland District High School Boys Basketball Team on the accomplishment of its superb undefeated regular season of play; (HLS 866)

Bob Morrill, who celebrated 37 years of coaching at Rockland District High School: 34 years as coach of the school's "Tiger" jayvee basketball team and 3 seasons as the school's varsity coach. Coach Morrill, who will retire from his position as a mathematics teacher and coach in June, has compiled more than 400 jayvee wins during his tenure as coach; (HLS 867)

Judith Rickett, President of the Department of Maine American Legion Auxiliary, member of Unit 197, Westbrook, Maine, a very gracious and capable lady who has served with distinction her city, state and nation and always stands ready to defend the freedoms and liberties that make this State and Nation such a great place to live; (HLS 868)

Madeline Cowette, on the occasion of her retirement after 18 years of dedicated service to the Town of Wellington; (HLS 869)

the City of Old Town, for providing 100 years of outstanding library service to the citizens of Old Town and the surrounding communities; (HLS 870)

Joyce Williams, of Vassalboro, who has been honored as an Outstanding Big Sister by Wendy's restaurant chain in recognition of her 4 years of service as a volunteer, member of the Board of Directors and chairperson of the Jail'n'Bail fundraiser for the Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Kennebec Valley; (HLS 871)

Talbot W. and Constance R. Johnston, of Washington, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on March 26, 1992; (HLS 872)

Coach Christian Elkington; Assistant Coaches Larry Terrio, Robert Morrill and Todd Sanders; Managers Greg Lemoine and Matt Ames; and the following members of the Rockland District High School Boys Basketball Team: Chris Gamage, Greg

Knight, Erik Carleson, Paul Benjamin, Mike Montgomery, Jim Montgomery, Shane Leblanc, Jeff Woodman, Chris Curtis, Tim Calderwood, Kevin Blackwell, Mark Fishman, Jamie York and Mike Norton, winners of the 1992 Class B State Basketball Championship; (HLS 873)

Coaches Dave Poulin and Dave Cook; Managers Tara Karczewski, Laura Paul, Mandy Schultz, Seth Towle, Mairi Bryant and Sally Martel; and the following members of the Winthrop High School "Ramblers" Boys Basketball Team: Captains Ben Dwinal, Bill Harris and Jeff Love; Larry Ciembroniewicz, Geoff Cobb, Brian Doughty, Dana Gross, RJ Jenkins, Greg Leighton, Mike Piper, Joel Stoneton, Eric Wilkins, Adam Wagner, Steve Contreras and Jeff Packard, winners of the 1992 Class C State Basketball Championship; (HLS 874)

Praveen Prasanna, a member of Boy Scout Troop #171, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 875)

Darcy Clark, who scored her 1,000th career point as a member of the Schenck High School "Wolverines" Girls Basketball Team; (HLS 876)

the Schenck High School Girls Basketball Team, of East Millinocket, winners of the Class C State Basketball Championship; (HLS 877)

Lisa Gass, a member of the Madawaska High School Girls Ski Team, who won the State Class C Cross-country Championship with a winning time of 20:18; (HLS 878)

Debbie Plourde, a member of the Madawaska High School Ski Team, who has been named the 1992 State Class C "Skimeister;" (HLS 879)

the Madawaska High School Girls Ski Team, who have captured the Class C State Ski Championship for the 3rd consecutive year. Members include Debbie Plourde, Lisa Gass, Kayla Baker, Pat Pelletier, Keela Bretemps, Stefanie Cyr, Mary Rancourt, Audrey Baker and Danielle Fillion; (HLS 880)

the Madawaska High School Boys Ski Team, who were runners-up in the 1991-92 Class C Ski Championship. Members include Craig Cyr, Doug Marston, Pete Michaud, Pierre Dumais, James Michaud, Jason Cyr, Ryan Cyr, Kevin Deschaine, Billy Levesque and Ed Lavertu; (HLS 881)

Benjamin C. Bubar, Jr., an ordained Baptist minister who pastored several churches in Aroostook County and served as Superintendent of the Christian Civic League of Maine from 1953 to 1984, the longest tenure in the history of the league. Benjamin Bubar served 3 terms in the Maine House of Representatives and was twice nominated for President of the United States by the National Prohibition Party. Mr. Bubar's courage, tenacity, energy and perseverance has had a significant impact on the political and social life of Maine for more than 3 decades. His decency, compassion and marvelous sense of humor have earned him the respect and affection of both politicians and the press at the State House; (HLS 882)

Robert and Susan Wallace, whose 10 years of outstanding community service to the City of Eastport in the areas of port development, youth activities and health care are appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 883)

Ed Guiski, veteran coach of the boys basketball team at Dexter Regional High School for 25 seasons, who has joined the elite "300 Club" upon achieving his 300th coaching career victory; (HLS 884)

Coach Tom Lablonde and the members of the Lewiston High School "Blue Devils" Hockey Team, winners of the Class A State Hockey Championship; (HLS 885)

Trisha Ripton, a member of the Stearns High School Girls Basketball Team, of Millinocket, who has been chosen as a member of the Big East Conference All Star Team and named the Big East Player of the Year; (HLS 886)

Lisa McLean, a member of the Stearns High School Girls Basketball Team, of Millinocket, who has been chosen as a member of the Big East Conference All Academic Team and named as a Big East Conference Honorable Mention All-Star; (HLS 887)

Beth Mott, a member of the Stearns High School Girls Basketball Team, of Millinocket, who has been named as a Big East Conference Honorable Mention All-Star; (HLS 888)

Cory Santerre, a member of the Stearns High School Girls Basketball Team, of Millinocket, who has been named as a Big East Conference Honorable Mention All-Star; (HLS 889)

Kelly Reeves, a member of the Stearns High School Girls Basketball Team, of Millinocket, recipient of the Big East Conference Pepsi Spirit Award; (HLS 890)

Sean Dewitt, a member of the Stearns High School Boys Basketball Team, of Millinocket, who has been named to the Big East Conference All Academic Team; (HLS 891)

Josh Bernier, a member of the Stearns High School Boys Basketball Team, of Millinocket, who has been named as a Big East Conference Honorable Mention All-Star; (HLS 892)

Aaron Vinson, a member of the Stearns High School Boys Basketball Team, of Millinocket, who has been named as a Big East Conference Honorable Mention All-Star; (HLS 893)

Josh Wildman, a member of the Stearns High School Boys Basketball Team, of Millinocket, recipient of the Big East Conference Pepsi Spirit Award; (HLS 894)

the Fraternal Order of the Eagles #1248, of Rumford, whose generosity and commitment to local endeavors are appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 895)

Patrick W. Murphy, survivor of Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941, and a member of the American Legion Cole Post #19 in Sanford; (HLS 896)

Edgar Turmelle, survivor of Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941, and a member of the American Legion

Cole Post #19 in Sanford; (HLS 897)

Bernard H. Hall, survivor of Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1941, and a member of the American Legion Cole Post #19 in Sanford; (HLS 898)

Brady and Norma Scott, for their 35 years of service to the citizens of Maine and elsewhere as integral parts of the Allagash Wilderness Waterway. They have been friends, guides, caretakers and advisors to the thousands of visitors to the waterway. They will be sorely missed and we wish them well in their retirement; (HLS 899)

Ocena Additon, on the occasion of her 100th birthday on March 17, 1992. Mrs. Additon, of Leeds, who formerly was an active participant in local organizations, including the Grange, the Twin County Extension, the local school board and the Leeds Presbyterian Church, maintains an interest in local and world affairs; (HLS 900)

Jennifer R. Welch, 13-year-old daughter of Edward and Linda (Lucarelli) Welch and a student at Livermore Falls Middle School, whose accidental death has shocked and saddened family and friends; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 901)

Coach Bruce Cooper; Assistant Coaches Ron Voisine, Larry Deans and Scott Ballard; Managers Brandy Boutin and Christy Hamlin; and the following members of the Lawrence High School "Lady Bulldogs" Basketball Team: Marsha Hamlin, Taffy Witham, Jessica Giorgetti, Jessica Daigle, Erin Bennett, Danielle Batey, Katie Flood, Cindy Blodgett, Wendy Atwood, Jill Atwood, Janet Francoeur, Karen Weymouth, Catherine Suttie and Shannon York, winners of the 1992 Girls Class A State Basketball Championship; (HLS 902)

Justin Jamison, a member of Boy Scout Troop #478 of Orono - Veazie, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 903)

Janice E. Lytle, recipient of the 1992 Fabyan Drake Award for outstanding service to the residents of the Town of Eliot as an active member of the Eliot Health Council, the Eliot Recreation Commission and the Eliot Festival Committee, for her work with the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and for her volunteer nursing services to many residents of Eliot; (HLS 904)

Boatswain's Mate First Class Ronald L. Chadwick, Machinery Technician Second Class Albert M. Fernandez, Boatswain's Mate Third Class Eric F. Jones and Seaman Apprentices John E. Martin and Thomas R. Letendre who, in cooperation with three Matinicus men, saved the lives of the crew of the tug HARKNESS, which sank on the night of January 16, 1992. Their prompt response and excellent seamanship made possible a successful rescue despite sub-zero temperatures, high winds and poor visibility. They are a credit to the Coast Guard and to the people of the State of Maine; (HLS 905)

Vance Bunker, Paul Murray and Richard Kohls, of Matinicus Isle, Maine, who, in cooperation with the United States Coast Guard, saved the lives of the crew of the tug HARKNESS, which sank on the night of January 16, 1992. Their concern for others, shown by their venturing into high seas, sub-zero temperatures and poor visibility, serves as an example to all Maine citizens and we commend their seamanship and courage; (HLS 906) the following students of Scarborough High School: Ben Demicco, Brian Lawrence, Jennifer Pandiscio, Kyle Holman, Bryan Jackson, Kelly Noonan, Tim Libby, Kris Peterson and Jim Connolly and Coaches Ellen K. Ross and Jennifer Hudson, and in extending our congratulations on being the State Champions of the 1992 Maine Academic Decathlon; (HLS 907)

Matthew Michael McIntosh, of Boy Scout Troop #177, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 908)

Leeman and Ethel Curtis, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on April 11, 1992; (HLS 909)

the descendants in North America of Jean Cote and Anne Martin who came from Northern Perche and settled in Beauport, Quebec, in 1634, and in extending best wishes as they celebrate their family reunion in the St. John Valley on July 3rd, 4th and 5th of 1992; (HLS 910)

the Crescent Park Elementary School in Bethel, and the school's educators and staff: Kathy Acker, Guidance; Chris Cole, District Nurse; Heidi Steele, Grade 4; Brenda Wight, Grade 3; and David Murphy, Principal, recipients of the 1992 Maine Drug-Free School Excellence Award for a Comprehensive Program and the 1992 Maine Drug-Free School Excellence Award for an Innovative Program; (HLS 911)

Department Commander Richard M. Blouin, member of the Smith - Tobey Post #21 of Bath, a capable and dedicated leader who has served his town, state and nation with distinction and who has always been ready to stand up and be counted to protect his family, religion and country. Many people, especially the veterans, widows and orphans, are better off because he walked their way; (HLS 912)

Richard Gray, of Windsor, Scoutmaster of Troop 609, for his many years of dedicated service to the Boy Scouts of America, which earned him the 1981 District Award of Merit and the Silver Beaver Award from the Pine Tree Council and also the satisfaction of helping 26 young men to achieve the rank of Eagle Scout under his leadership; (HLS 913)

Katie Knull, a junior at Thornton Academy in Saco, who has been selected as a member of the All-State Band for the second consecutive year; (HLS 914)

Scott Keaton, a senior at Thornton Academy in Saco, who has been selected as a member of the All-State Choir; (HLS 915)

Allyson Albert, a student at Thornton Academy, who has been named by the Daughters of the American Revolution as a "Good Citizen Senior" for her dependability, leadership, service and patriotism; (HLS 916)

freshman pianist Anastasia Antonacos, of Saco, who placed first in the Maine High School Music Competition sponsored by the Bangor Symphony

Orchestra, winning the Annas - Cupp Award; (HLS 917)

Ben Hanscom, a member of the Stearns High School Hockey Team, of Millinocket, who has been named as an Honorable Mention member of the Big East B All-Star Hockey Team; (HLS 918)

Chris Kenneson, a member of the the Stearns High School Track Team, of Millinocket, who placed 2nd in the triple jump and 3rd in the long jump at the state meet; (HLS 919)

Micah Illingworth, a member of the Stearns High School Hockey Team, of Millinocket, who has been named as an Honorable Mention member of the Big East B All-Star Hockey Team; (HLS 920)

Trevor Boutaugh, a member of the Stearns High School Hockey Team, of Millinocket, who has been named as an Honorable Mention member of the Big East B All-Star Hockey Team; (HLS 921)

Chris Sharpe, a member of the Stearns High School Hockey Team, of Millinocket, who has been named to the Big East B All-Star Hockey Team; (HLS 922)

Jeff Daigle, a member of the Stearns High School Hockey Team, of Millinocket, who has been named to the Big East B All-Star Hockey Team; (HLS 923)

Brian Barnes, a member of the Stearns High School Hockey Team, of Millinocket, who has been named to the Big East B All-Star Hockey Team; (HLS 924)

Ben Vail, of Brunswick High School, champion debater, winner in the Lincoln - Douglas category at the State High School Debate Championship; (HLS 925)

Kevin Calderwood, of Brunswick High School, who has been selected as a representative to the 45th Annual American Legion Boys State; (HLS 926)

Heath Ryan Hudson, of Boy Scout Troop #81 in Hancock/Franklin, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 927)

Coach Tony DiBiase; Assistant Coaches Ken Joyce, Bill Whitmore and Michael Giordano; Managers Eric Carson and Gau Junnakew; and the following members of the South Portland High School Basketball Team: Bert Rich, Tim West, Chris Keene, Jeff Hogan, John Coyne, Mike Skillings, Robbie Neill, Matt Olesen, Steve Thombs, John Wassinbergh, Ryan Hodge and Rich Perruzzi, winners of the 1992 Boys Class A State Basketball Championship; (HLS 928)

Keith H. and Bessie D. Schoppee, of Jonesboro, for 40 years of outstanding service to the Jonesboro Board of Selectmen as a member and a bookkeeper, respectively. Mr. Schoppee also has served the Town of Jonesboro as Fire Chief, Fire Commissioner and volunteer firefighter and is a charter member and the current President of the International Firemen's Association, working to refine mutual aid agreements and to improve public safety; (HLS 929)

Fred Pasquine, Chad MacArthur, Tom Ambrose, Chris Dubois and Sean Ives, members of the Stearns High School Jazz Combo, first place winners in the State Jazz Festival; (HLS 930)

the following members of the Stearns High School Weight-lifting Team for their outstanding showing at the Bates College Weight-lifting Championship: Warren Morrison, first place in the competition for 15 year olds; Keith Eubank, first place in the competition for 16 year olds and Jamie George, first place in the competition for 17 year olds and the highest competitor, bench pressing his body weight 26 times. The team won the first place High School Team Award; (HLS 931)

Head Coach Mike MacDonald; Assistant Coaches Merle Grant and Galen Thibodeau; and the following members of the Millinocket Blue PeeWee Hockey Team: Captain Josh Perry, Robert Chasse, Josh MacDonald, Jake Shorette, Jesse McEwen, Jeremy Brown, Matt Lynch, Frank Bowley, Justin Grant, Jeremy "Rocket" Munoz, Justin Birt, and alternate Aaron Thibodeau, on their very successful hockey season that included winning the conference championship and representing Maine in the Northeast Regional Playoffs; (HLS 932)

Corey David Streams, the phenomenal 13-year-old basketball star from Millinocket, whose sensational season of 1992 basketball play includes scoring 398 points for the "Lakers," scoring over 500 points for the Millinocket All-Stars and obtaining his cumulative 3-year All-Star career high of 1,000 points; (HLS 933)

Gladys Ganiel, a freshman at Narraguagus High School in Harrington, who won the State Foul Shooting Championship held during the McDonald's East-West Senior All-Star tournament game; (HLS 934)

Olympian Julie Parisien, of Auburn, for her exceptional performance in the 1992 Winter Olympics in France, whose inspiring example of success and determination as a world class skier is admired by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 935)

Olympian Rob Parisien, of Auburn, for his exceptional performance in the 1992 Winter Olympics in France, whose inspiring example of success and determination as a world class skier is admired by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 936)

Ruth Donovan, mother of Representative Ruth Joseph of Waterville, to whom we wish much happiness on the occasion of her 80th Birthday on April 2, 1992; (HLS 937)

Coach Jack O'Brien; Assistant Coach Jim Tortorella and the following members of the Northern Maine Midget Ice Hockey Team: Brian Boucher, Paul Champagne, Anthony Fasulo, Craig Johnson, Sven Johnson, Jason Lawrence, Derek Merrill, Joe Perryman, Earl St. Hilaire, Casey Small, Alan Veranteran, Ed Hannan, Jon Kakasenko, Jeff Libbey, Ryan McDonough, James Ouellette, Reuben Sevigny, Eric Geoffroy and Dan Nadeau, winners of the New England Regional Championship Midget Ice Hockey Tournament; (HLS 938)

Joseph D. and Mary L. Michaud, of South Berwick, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, April 4, 1992; (HLS 939)

Dr. Clifford O. T. Wieden, 1991 Presque Isle Citizen of the Year; (HLS 940)

Neal W. Allen, Jr., of Portland and Sebago, scholar, humanitarian and President of the Maine Historical Society. As recipient of the Bowdoin Distinguished Educator Award, a professor of the University of Maine and, for 30 years, the chair of the History Department and Dean of Humanities at Union College, New York, he devoted a lifetime of scholarship to the people and the past of his beloved "Pine Tree State"; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 941)

Thesil Morlan, of Waldoboro, upon receiving the Second Annual Human Rights Award of the Maine Chapter of Amnesty International and in recognition of a decade of contributions toward promoting awareness, education and participation in the prevention of the abuse of human rights worldwide; (HLS 942)

K. Ronald McClinton, of Portland, former head of Anesthesiology at Mercy Hospital and founder and co-chair of the Matlovich Society, for his commitment and caring contributions to AIDS education and the fullness of life for all his fellow Mainers; (HLS 943)

Philip L. Boyd, a member of Boy Scout Troop #8 in Bangor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 944)

Bradford L. Bilotta, of Boy Scout Troop #8 in Bangor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 945)

Sean Ives, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Stearns High School; (HLS 946)

Christian Dubois, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Stearns High School; (HLS 947)

Christian Dubois, a senior at Stearns High School, who won the District 2 level in the VFW Voice of Democracy Essay Contest sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4154; (HLS 948)

Coach Norm Dubois and the following members of the Stearns High School Math Team: Heather Givens, Jana Montgomery, Andrew Barker, Karlina Lyons, Andrew Bond, Chris Dubois, Seann Ives, Sterling Shepperd, Kyle Warren and Jamie Beadnell, winners of the 1992 Class A Eastern Maine Math League Championship; (HLS 949)

Coaches Jack Pinette, Joseph Lynch and Charles Welch and the following members of the Millinocket Youth Hockey Association Black Squirts team: Justin Cummings, Loanie Pinette, Jon Seamans, Danny Gardiner, Aaron Buzzle, Robbie Landry, Matt Welch, Chad James, Adam Ouellette, Darrin Daniels, Matt Lynch, Adam Birt and Toby Osborne, who have been named champions of the Penobscot Valley Hockey Conference; (HLS 950)

the following Bangor High School seniors, who have been named National Merit Finalists: Kevin Foss, Jennifer Peithman, Laurie Rosenthal, Jessica Sexton and Sarah Shubert; (HLS 951)

Sarah L. Jordan, a student at Bangor High School, whose academic achievements have earned her the distinction of being named a Blaine House Scholar; (HLS 952)

Sarah B. Shubert, a student at Bangor High School, whose academic achievements have earned her the distinction of being a Blaine House Scholar; (HLS 953) the Bangor High School drama members, who won 1st place in the Maine Drama Festival One-act Play Competition with their performance of "The Boys Next Door"; (HLS 954)

John Frawley, city engineer for Bangor, on the occasion of his retirement after more than 3 decades of service to the city where he was instrumental in the development of Bangor's sewers and streets, urban renewal and the airport; (HLS 955)

Robert Dyer, physical education teacher at Katahdin Junior High School, who has been honored by the Maine Association of Health, Physical Education and Dance as Middle School Teacher of the Year for 1991; (HLS 956)

Janet S. Allen, an English teacher and chairperson of the English Department at Presque Isle High School, recipient of a 1991 National School of Excellence Maine Educator Award; (HLS 957)

John W. Hurst, Director of the Fisheries Health Division of the Department of Marine Resources in West Boothbay Harbor, who has been presented with the 1991 Biologist of the Year Award, Department of Marine Resources, by the Sunkhaze Stream Chapter, Trout Unlimited, in Brewer. Mr. Hurst is also the recipient of a special citation by the Food and Drug Administration for his exemplary marine biotoxin monitoring and his significant contributions of data and information regarding marine biotoxins in federal waters; (HLS 958)

Bill Harris, recipient of a first place award in the New England Press Association newspaper competition for his "Good Ol' Boy" advertisement. The advertisement earned the award for "highest achievement in local advertising"; (HLS 959)

Richard Dill, of Southport, who, nearly 50 years after he earned it, was awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious achievement in ground combat against the armed enemy during World War II while serving as an Army infantryman during the Battle of the Bulge; (HLS 960)

Ruth Shook, on the occasion of her retirement as Director of United Cerebral Palsy of Northeastern Maine after more than 3 decades of invaluable service, dedication and commitment to the agency; (HLS 961)

Jared Tardy, of Palmyra, a senior at Nokomis Regional High School in Newport, who has been named one of the 25 young musicians in the country to the 1992 McDonald's All-American High School Band; (HLS 962)

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Worcester, Sr., of Harrington, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on February 14, 1992; (HLS 963)

Saundra Lord, a senior at Narraguagus High School, who has been selected to receive the 1992 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship; (HLS 964)

Mr. and Mrs. Rosario DiPaolo, of Portland, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on August 26, 1992; (HLS 965)

Randall Martin, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Fort Kent Community High School; (HLS 966)

Jemelie Robertson, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Fort Kent Community High School; (HLS 967)

Henry Carbone, who has earned the distinction of being named the Honor Essayist of the 1992 graduating class of Fort Kent Community High School; (HLS 968)

Don Annis, of Monson, who has been named Warden of the Year by the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife; (HLS 969)

Nina K. Witham, of Skowhegan, on the occasion of her 100th birthday on May 3, 1992; (HLS 970)

Anthony L. Newcomb, of Shead High School, who has been selected to receive the 1992 Maine Secondary School Principals Award based on academic excellence and citizenship; (HLS 971)

John S. Appleby, II, of Lubec High School, who has been selected to receive the 1992 Maine Secondary School Principals Award based on academic excellence and citizenship; (HLS 972)

Roberta Douglass, on the occasion of her retirement as a teacher at Marshwood Junior High School, whose 24 years of dedicated service as a teacher, 22 years of which have been in S. A. D. #35 schools, are appreciated by the citizens of Maine; (HLS 973)

Esther Hutchinson "Polly" White, of Newcastle, well-known for her active community service involving Kno-Wal-Lin, Miles Health Care, Damariscotta Women's Club and the Old Bristol Garden Club and her membership at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. Mrs. White will be remembered by the community for her research and documentation of the history of the Lincoln County Militiamen who fought at Bunker Hill under the county flag; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 974)

the University of Maine School of Law Moot Court Competition team, consisting of 3rd-year law students Thomas Diebold, David Herzer and Damon Stewart, who have been named the winners of the 1992 National Environmental Law Moot Court Competition; (HLS 975)

William and Dorothy Porter, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 3, 1992; (HLS 976)

Eugenia H. Gould, of Ellsworth, a very special person who is wished much happiness on the occasion of her 90th birthday; (HLS 977)

Robert Quinn, of Bangor, recipient of a 1992 Jefferson Award in recognition of his outstanding community service; (HLS 978)

Bill Zoidis, of Bangor, who has been named the 1992 Maine Restauranteur of the Year; (HLS 979)

Eaton Weatherbee Tarbell, well-known and respected architect in the Bangor area, whose distinctive designs during his 44-year career earned him national recognition; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 980)

Annie Hanscom, on the occasion of her retirement after nearly 19 years of dedicated service as clerk of the 4th District Court in Machias; (HLS 981)

Frederic A. Reynolds, of Machias, on the occasion of his retirement on June 30, 1992, as President of the University of Maine at Machias. President Reynolds served the Machias campus for over 37 years and has been a guiding force in its growth from a state teachers college to a multipurpose institution offering a variety of associate and baccalaureate degree programs; (HLS 982)

Karen Hartman, of Limestone, a senior guard for the St. Joseph's College basketball team who scored her 1000th career point on January 21, 1992; (HLS 983)

Brad Boothby, winner of the Livermore Elementary School geography bee; (HLS 984)

Katherine Chabot, who placed first in her age group in the National Junior Olympics cross-country competition in Oregon. Katherine holds the course record for Livermore Falls High School and was a key member of the 1991 cross-country team that won the State Class C Championship for the 4th consecutive year; (HLS 985)

Troy Bean, of Vienna, who was named the 1991 Christmas Seal Chairman by the American Lung Association of Maine; (HLS 986)

Christine Brennick, of Jay, who placed second in the Voice of Democracy contest sponsored by the Frank L. Mitchell Post #3335; (HLS 987)

Dale Blake, of Livermore Falls, who placed first for the third consecutive year in the Voice of Democracy contest sponsored by the Frank L. Mitchell Post #3335; (HLS 988) the Mt. Blue High School Wrestling Team, winners for the 3rd consecutive year of the Eastern Maine Class A Wrestling Championship; (HLS 989)

Peter and Phyllis Heikkinen, of Livermore Falls, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 990)

Melissa Rogers, who won first place in the National Girl Scout Earth Matters Poster Contest. Melissa's winning entry will be displayed at the National Museum of Women and Arts in Washington, D.C.; (HLS 991)

the Southern Aroostook Community School Girls Basketball Team, of Dyer Brook, winners of the 1991-92 State Class D Basketball Championship; (HLS 992)

the following top ten students of the 1992 graduating class of Katahdin High School: Cristy Bouchard, Tonya Carr, Shannon Craig, Randy Cyr, Rachel Kelley, Kelly Lane, Amy Lord, Leslie McDonald, Lorna Qualey and Kirsten Richardson; (HLS 993)

April Cox, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Schenck High School in East Millinocket; (HLS 994)

Amy Morin, who has earned the distinction of being named Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Schenck High School in East Millinocket; (HLS 995)

Donald Verrill, of Minot, on the occasion of his retirement as Selectman after 21 years of invaluable service, dedication and commitment to the town; (HLS 996)

the dedicated staff and administration of the Norway Convalescent Center for their efforts in achieving deficiency-free results for 3 consecutive years in federal and state nursing home quality surveys; (HLS 997)

Kermit and Vera Sawtelle, of Sidney, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, April 11, 1992; (HLS 998)

Doris Gilbert Porter, of Vassalboro, and in extending congratulations on the occasion of her 90th birthday on March 22, 1992; (HLS 999)

Faculty Advisors Sumner Hayward and Earl Coombs and the following members of the Winslow Scott Hi-Q team: Kevin Ahearn, Chuck Dorval, Anders Hopperstead, Charlie Mitchell, Lee Moreau, Christina Perez, Jasa Porciello and Stephanie Trapnell who won the 1992 Scott Hi-Q championship sponsored by the Scott Paper Company; (HLS 1000)

Carroll York, who was recognized at the Windsor town meeting for his 39 years of service as Windsor's Fire Warden; (HLS 1001)

Mark Reed, of Bangor, who has been named to the 1992 Bangor Daily News All-Maine Schoolboy Basketball 1st Team; (HLS 1002)

Bill Newman, who has been named to the 1992 Bangor Daily News All-Maine Schoolboy Basketball 3rd Team; (HLS 1003)

Geoff Getz, of Cumberland, who as a member of Boy Scout Troop #58 has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1004)

Jason E. Carville, of Boy Scout Troop #124 in Lisbon, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1005)

Mrs. Isabelle Clifford, of South Rumford, who observed her 101st birthday on March 27, 1992. Mrs. Clifford, who heads six generations of family, received flowers, cards and telephone calls from the Rumford area and throughout the United States; (HLS 1006)

Oscar Legere, of Rumford, a very gifted leader, who for over 50 years has dedicated himself to the betterment of the community and the people who live in the greater Rumford area. Under Oscar's guidance, many people have developed into fine artists. He is a faithful member of the Rumford Rotary Club and has never missed a meeting in over 50 years; (HLS 1007)

Fannie L. Cummings, of West Bethel, a very gracious and capable lady who will observe the occasion of her 90th birthday on July 10, 1992. Mrs. Cummings served as the Department of Maine American Legion Auxiliary President in 1942 and is the only living charter member. She has been a member of the American Legion Auxiliary for 70 continuous years. Mrs. Cummings' dedicated service to her town, state and nation is appreciated by the citizens of Maine. Many people are better off because she and her wonderful husband, Alanson, walked their way; (HLS 1008)

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Neily, of Gorham, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on June 7, 1992; (HLS 1009)

Vinal Turner, on the occasion of his retirement from the Ashland Water and Sewer District after 16 years of dedicated service; (HLS 1010)

Larry Hall, for eight years of dedicated service as Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop #179 in Ashland. Thirteen scouts have attained the rank of Eagle Scout under Mr. Hall's leadership; (HLS 1011)

Lucille M. Pelletier, recipient of the University of Maine at Fort Kent's Distinguished Service Award. Mrs. Pelletier served the university as an accountant, clerk, business manager, dining services manager and alumni director before retiring after more than 28 years of dedicated service; (HLS 1012)

Coaches Dave Keys and Bobbi Allen, Manager Irma Marquis and the following members of the Millinocket Girls Junior Pro Basketball All-Star Team: Andrea Marquis, Alison Shedd, Shannon Boynton, Leigh Woodbury, Toni Kelley, Amanda Ripton, Kim Lommler, Lisa Santerre, Joy Conover, Amber Russell, Katie Goodwin, Leana Larlee, Kamie Jo Preble and Angela Waite on their outstanding 33-0 season of basketball play; (HLS 1013)

Thornton Academy senior Allyson Albert, recipient of the 1992 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association; (HLS 1014)

the 1991-92 Thornton Academy Drama Club, for its outstanding performance of Edna St. Vincent Millay's "Aria Da Capo." Through the hard work of the club members, Thornton Academy tied for first place in the State Division II One-Act Play Festival and won the festival's awards for best ensemble and best makeup and the following members were named to the State All-Star Cast: Kirsten Cyr, Zachary Oberzan, Phoebe Pollock, James Sanborn and Heather Vitters; (HLS 1015)

Matthew Reynolds, an 8th-grade student at the D. W. Merritt School in Addison, who won the Washington County Spelling Bee Championship; (HLS 1016)

Samuel Robbins, a student at Narraguagus High School, who received the "Good Citizen Award" sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution for his dependability, leadership, service and patriotism; (HLS 1017)

Coach Howard "Buddy" Mills, Managers Michael Kearns and Josh Paul and the following members of the Narraguagus Junior High District Boys Basketball Team: Kameron Grant, Robbie Worcester, Shawn Fenton, Lester Look, Timothy Tabbutt, Ricky Norton, John McCloud, Colon Haskell, John Pray, Andrew Davis, Timothy Smith, Jeffery Redimarker, Eric Benge, Lucas Wallace, Scott Strout, Chad Dorr, Kellen Hutchins, Jason Pinkham and Andrew Woodward, who won the 1992 Down East Junior High League Basketball championship; (HLS 1018)

the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #4154, for its contribution of the use of its hall by Meals for Me; (HLS 1019)

Brian Scott Chamberlin, of Boy Scout Troop #51 in Windham, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1020)

Brian Guerrette, who received the 1991 Future Farmers Degree award. Brian's father, Ronald Guerrette, received the award in 1966. They are the 1st father and son team to win this award in the history of the Caribou F. F. A.; (HLS 1021)

Shane Theriault, recipient of the 1991 Eastern Region "American Star in Agri-Business" award presented by the national Future Farmers of America organization. Shane is the 1st Maine person to achieve this outstanding recognition in the 62-year history of the Maine Future Farmers of America; (HLS 1022)

Brian T. Higgs, of Boy Scout Troop #307 in Kittery, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1023)

Wilfred J. Robichaud, of Rumford, a very active member of the Church and the Rumford Benevolent and Protective Order of the Elks, who celebrated his 92nd birthday on April 7, 1992. Mr. Robichaud received many calls, cards and visits from family and friends in honor of his birthday; (HLS 1024)

Alfred and Virginia Elliott, of Corinth, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on May 20, 1992; (HLS 1025)

Noah Weisleder, of Corinth, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Central High School; (HLS 1026)

April Lynn Wallace, of Corinth, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Central High School; (HLS 1027)

Craig A. Zedwick, of Baileyville, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the class of 1992 at Washington Academy in East Machias; (HLS 1028)

Judd L. Bragg, of East Machias, who has earned the distinction of being named the Second Honor Essayist of the class of 1992 at Washington Academy in East Machias; (HLS 1029) the Washington Academy Basketball Team and coaches for an outstanding season as Eastern Maine Champions and runners-up in the 1992 Class C State Basketball Championship Finals; (HLS 1030)

Lucus Stuart, of Marshfield, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the class of 1992 at Machias Memorial High School; (HLS 1031)

Rebecca L. Smith, of Beals, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the class of 1992 at Jonesport - Beals High School; (HLS 1032)

Wally Barron, recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award sponsored by the Maine Trappers Association; (HLS 1033)

James Berry Vickery, of Bangor, teacher, author and antiquarian, on the occasion of his 74th Birthday. As an author of numerous town histories, president of the Bangor Historical Society and trustee of the Maine Historical Society, he has devoted a lifetime of scholarship to the people and the past of Maine, his beloved "Pine Tree State"; (HLS 1034)

Robert M. Earle, of Boy Scout Troop #124 in Lisbon, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1035)

John and Joan Mayo, of Enfield, Connecticut, on the occasion of their 40th Wedding Anniversary on June 6, 1992; (HLS 1036)

Edmund and Pauline O'Brikis, of Millinocket, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on May 4, 1992; (HLS 1037)

Amy L. Chamberlain, of East Machias, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the class of 1992 at Washington Academy in East Machias; (HLS 1038)

Natalie T. Harmon, of East Machias, who has been named the First Honor Essayist of the class of 1992 at Washington Academy and has been selected to receive the Principal's Award sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association; (HLS 1039)

Andrea J. Coffin, of Machias, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the class of 1992 at Machias Memorial High School and has been selected to receive the Principal's Award sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association; (HLS 1040)

Gretchen M. Backman, of Beals, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the class of 1992 at Jonesport-Beals High School and has been selected to receive the Principal's Award sponsored by the Maine Principals' Association; (HLS 1041) the Machias Memorial High School Basketball Team and coaches, runners-up in the 1992 Class D State Championship finals, on an outstanding season; (HLS

1042)

Donald Lord, of Machias, for his exemplary act of bravery in rescuing 4 injured victims from a vehicle that plunged into the frigid water of the Machias River; (HLS 1043)

Clifford H. Peterson, of Boy Scout Troop #186 in Woodland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1044)

Coach Darrell Farnsworth and the following members of the Cherryfield Elementary School Girls Basketball Team: Dara Knapp, Tara Stanley, Jamie Feeney, Heather Dalton, Heather Knapp, Kristen Stanley, Kim Verschuyl, Rachel Fuller, Maeve Perry, Starley Moffitt, Candace Kelley, Becky Meyer, Kathy Redmond, Shaylee White, Jenni Pagels and Angela Curtis, 1st place winners in the S. A. D. #37 Elementary District Basketball Championship; (HLS 1045)

Jonathan Gay, a 7th grader at Cherryfield Elementary School, who won the National Geographic Bee for Cherryfield; (HLS 1046)

Coach R. Michael Beal and the following members of the Cherryfield Pee Wee Boys Basketball Team: Nicholas Morse, Jon Baldwin, Ben Perry, Charles Gardner, P. J. Rossi, Tim Linscott, Jared Look, Adam Meyer, Kyle Stanley, Zac Gage-Croll, Robert Brooks, Brian Redmond and Jerry Robinson, 1st place winners in the S. A. D. #37 Elementary District Basketball Championship; (HLS 1047)

Coaches Garry Curtis and Kelly Barbee and the following members of the Cherryfield Pee Wee Girls Basketball Team: Kristen Stanley, Rachel Fuller, Shaylee White, Starley Moffitt, Kathy Redmond, Maeve Perry, Becky Meyer, Heather Knapp, Kim Verschuyl, Holly Moore, Andrea Caler, Erin Kimmerly, Natashia Roy, Rebecca Robinson, Laura Morse, Tara Moffitt and Kristen Barbee, 1st place winners in the S. A. D. #37 Elementary District Basketball Championship; (HLS 1048)

Jonathan Baldwin, a 6th grader at Cherryfield Elementary School, who was the 1st place Archery Cub Division winner in the limited category of the State Archery Tournament held in Ellsworth; (HLS 1049)

the following students from the D. W. Merritt School in Addison who won 1st place in the Downeast Community Hospital Poster Contest for National Children and Hospital Week: kindergarten, Hannah Rittenhouse; 1st grade, James Greene; and 3rd grade, Zeb Strout; (HLS 1050)

Regina Breton, a parishioner of St. John the Baptist Church of Winslow, who has been named Maine's 1992 Mother of the Year; (HLS 1051)

Arthur Bonenfant, who is the 1992 recipient of Le Club Calumet's "Le Medaille d' Honneur"; (HLS 1052)

David Ouellette, of North Berwick and a senior at Noble High School, who has been selected as one of 141 Presidential Scholars throughout the nation. The Presidential Scholar recognition is the highest federal honor bestowed upon a graduating senior and is based on academic achievement, test scores, extracurricular activities and essays; (HLS 1053)

Peter Ebeling, for his dedicated commitment to coaching the members of the Brooksville Elementary School Chess Club; (HLS 1054)

Coach Peter Ebeling and the following members of the 1991-92 Brooksville Elementary School Chess Club which placed 13th in national chess competition: Kristen Herrick, Trevor Cribben-Merrill, Sorcha Cribben-Merrill, Adam Rankin, Kestrel Dickerson, Josh Fowler, Tristan Benoit, William Bussey, Matthew Smedal, Samuel Vaughan, Gerald Hooper, Sarah Merritt, Francis Lymburner, Brian Osgood, Shawn Fowler and Timothy Littlefield; (HLS 1055)

Trevor Cribben-Merrill, of the Brooksville Elementary School Chess Club, who placed 2nd in national chess competition during the 1991-92 school year; (HLS 1056)

Gerald Hooper, of the Brooksville Elementary School, who placed 3rd in national chess competition during the 1991-92 school year; (HLS 1057)

Constanze McDonnell O'Brien, of Portland, pioneer antiquarian, animal welfare advocate and activist in the cause of human rights, and a former officer of the Portland League for Peace and Freedom, who for sixty years with her husband, F. M. O'Brien, was proprietor of Maine's oldest antiquarian book dealership; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1058)

Dale F. Speed, of Princeton, on the occasion of his retirement after 30 years of dedicated service as Postmaster at Princeton; (HLS 1059)

Raymond Woodworth, the 1992 Fin & Feather's Adrian Batson Sportsman of the Year; (HLS 1060)

Tammy J. Pelletier, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Wisdom High School in Ste. Agathe; (HLS 1061)

Scott R. Dubois, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Wisdom High School in Ste. Agathe; (HLS 1062)

Jonathan P. Violette, who has earned the distinction of being named the Honor Essayist of the 1992 graduating class of Wisdom High School in Ste. Agathe; (HLS 1063)

Chad Markie, of Boy Scout Troop #154 in Mattawamkeag, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1064)

Scott Tolman, of Boy Scout Troop #154 in Mattawamkeag, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1065)

Saundra C. Lord, of Addison, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the class of 1992 at Narraguagus High School in Harrington; (HLS 1066)

Shannan L. Curtis, of Milbridge, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the class of 1992 at Narraguagus High School in Harrington; (HLS 1067)

Eugene H. Kiely, Commander of the Department of Maine Amvets, for his many years of service to the department and veterans; (HLS 1068)

Kathryn H. Kiely, President of the Department of Maine Amvets Auxiliary, for her many years of service to the auxiliary and veterans; (HLS 1069)

Daina M. Allen, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Foxcroft Academy; (HLS 1070)

Ryan Blanchard, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Foxcroft Academy; (HLS 1071)

Eliza Thompson, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Piscataquis Community High School; (HLS 1072)

Sunny Stutzman, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Piscataquis Community High School; (HLS 1073)

Tim Lacasse, of the Jackman Post, recipient of the District United States Customs Explorer of the Year Award; (HLS 1074)

Wayne Suomi, Principal of Mount View High School in Thorndike, who was awarded the 1992 Principal of the Year Award by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association. Mr. Suomi has been described as an administrator who goes the extra mile, whether it is to support staff in new initiatives, express concern for students or provide steadiness and vision by which to educate the young people of his school community; (HLS 1075)

Reney Newman, of Milo, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the class of 1992 at Penquis Valley High School in Milo; (HLS 1076)

Stacie Jo Whiting, of LaGrange, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the class of 1992 at Penquis Valley High School in Milo; (HLS 1077)

the following members of the "Juke Box" jazz ensemble who won the Bronze Award in Senior Group Jazz at the Dance Excellence competition held in Los Angeles: Rachael VanVranken, Barrett Silver, Jennifer Sarjeant, Hanne Filtvedt and Olivia Fitzpatrick; (HLS 1078)

the following top 10 students of the 1992 graduating class of Mountain Valley High School: Craig Allen Blodgett, Kim Marie Buotte, Karri Ellen Clohosey, Anne Marie Desrosiers, Dianne Lynn Goodwin, James Murray Haines, Matthew Scott Irish, David Brett Kasregis, Trudi Lin Turnbull and Amy Elizabeth Welch; (HLS 1079)

Benjamin Arnold, a student at Foxcroft Academy, who has been named a summa cum laude Gold Medal Winner in the nationwide Latin I test; (HLS 1080)

Daniel Winship, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Lawrence High School; (HLS 1081)

Andrea LeBlanc, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Lawrence High School; (HLS 1082)

Ryan Brockway, who has earned the distinction of being named the third highest ranking student of the 1992 graduating class of Lawrence High School; (HLS 1083)

Jennifer Lee Reynolds who has earned the distinction of being named the fourth highest ranking student of the 1992 graduating class of Lawrence High School; (HLS 1084)

David Best, an outstanding senior at Orono High School, who was chosen by Maine football coaches to receive the 1992 Bobby Dodd Award as the best lineman in the State of Maine; (HLS 1085)

Michael Rickert, of Veazie, who is a junior at John Bapst Memorial High School and winner of the Maine High School Individual Chess Championship; (HLS 1086)

Raymie McKerrow, professor of Speech Communication and Coordinator of Student Academic Services, who was awarded the University of Maine's 1992 Distinguished Maine Professor Award, in recognition of his respect for and devotion to education and students; overall teaching effectiveness; research accomplishments; and public service; (HLS 1087)

Lucille Zeph, an associate professor of Education and recipient of the 1992 Presidential Public Service Achievement Award of the University of Maine, for her State and national leadership on issues that affect persons with disabilities; (HLS 1088)

J. Malcolm Shick, an internationally recognized comparative physiologist and outstanding professor at the University of Maine, who was selected to receive the university's 1992 Presidential Research and Creative Achievement Award for his contributions as a teacher and research scientist for 18 years; (HLS 1089)

Daniel Wagner, of Boy Scout Troop #478 in Orono-Veazie, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1090) the members of Mrs. York's 5th grade class at Zippel Elementary School in Presque Isle, 1st-place winners in the Multiactivity Category and overall winners in the Elementary Division for the energy project they submitted to the Maine Energy Education Program. Their project was submitted as an entry at the national level and was chosen best in the nation; (HLS 1091)

the following top 10 students of the 1992 graduating class of Livermore Falls High School: Angela Jones, J. Bradley Wright, Karen Burnett, Christopher Castonguay, Adrienne Curtis, Jenifer Bibeau, Timothy Terranova, Wendy Churchill, Rebecca Chretien and Larry White, Jr.; (HLS 1092)

Michael Simoneau, recipient of the Maine Class C Ski Coach of the Year Award as nordic skiing coach; (HLS 1093)

Tim Fournier, recipient of the Maine Class C Ski Coach of the Year Award as alpine skiing coach; (HLS 1094)

Statler Tissue Co., one of 35 companies nationwide to receive the Administrator's Award given by the United States Environmental Protection Agency for pollution prevention; (HLS 1095)

Jim Barton, of Gray, a member of Explorer Post #86, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1096)

the following student leaders of Lincoln Middle School who earned third place in the Maine Energy Education Program's Youth Awards and Recognition Program: Bobby Agger, Kim Wilkins, Anne Nadzo and Mike Nappi; (HLS 1097)

Joe and Margaret McCluskey, of Millinocket, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on May 10, 1992; (HLS 1098)

John G. Coan, Jr., of Hallowell, on the occasion of his retirement on May 31, 1992, after nearly 40 years of loyal and conscientious service to the people of the State. Mr. Coan's tenure with the State includes 9 years with the Bureau of Accounts and Control and over 30 years in the State's Postal Service for the Department of Finance and Administration; (HLS 1099)

Nathaniel Smith, of Portland, who has been named Bible Reader for the 1992 graduating class of Deering High School; (HLS 1100)

Frank and Frances Farr, of Kittery, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on November 20, 1991; (HLS 1101)

Christopher P. Hooper, of Boy Scout Troop #307 in Kittery, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1102)

Warren Edward Anderson and Marjorie Catherine Kelley, of Caribou and New Sweden, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on June 22, 1992; (HLS 1103)

Christina L. Baker, associate professor of English and coordinator of the Humanities Division of Liberal Studies at University College and recipient of the University of Maine's 1992 Presidential Award for Outstanding Teaching, in recognition of her exemplary instruction of students; (HLS 1104)

Harold G. "Sonny" Simmons, who received the 1992 Lifetime Service Award by the Boothbay Harbor Rotary Club in recognition of a career dedicated to service to the community; (HLS 1105)

Kathryn "Kate" Gagnon, daughter of Donald and Phyllis Gagnon of Van Buren and a member of Girl Scout Troop #494, who has been awarded the Gold Award, the highest achievement in Girl Scouting; (HLS 1106)

Edward L. Atkins, of Waterville, beloved husband, father and friend, longtime owner and operator of Atkins Printing Service, whose success as a printer earned him the respect and admiration of people throughout the State. Mr. Atkins was a communicant of St. Joseph's Maronite Catholic Church; treasurer of the Lebanon Youth Society and the Pine Grove Cemetery, director of the Waterville Boys and Girls Club and a member of the Waterville Lodge of Elks; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1107)

Ryan Marston, of Boy Scout Troop #524 in Livermore Falls, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1108)

Lesley Taglialavore, a student at Belgrade Central School, who received an award from the Environmental Protection Agency for a poem she submitted in a New England poster and poem contest; (HLS 1109)

Constanze McDonnell O'Brien, of Portland, pioneer antiquarian, animal welfare advocate and activist in the cause of human rights, and a former officer of the Portland League for Peace and Freedom, who for sixty years with her husband, F. M. O'Brien, was proprietor of Maine's oldest antiquarian book dealership; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1110)

Karl Francis John Dampf, of Boy Scout Troop #171 in Presque Isle, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1111) the Chisholm Ski Club, of Rumford, for excellence and commitment in hosting the 1992 Junior Olympic Cross Country Championship; (HLS 1112)

Erma Lyons, who, at the age of 95, is the oldest citizen of Medway; (HLS 1113)

Lori Sands, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Washburn District High School; (HLS 1114)

Joseph Vaillincourt, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Washburn District High School; (HLS 1115)

Alton Bragg, a student at Washburn District High School, Gold Medal winner in Dairy Showmanship at the 1991 - 1992 National Future Farmers of America Convention in Kansas City; (HLS 1116)

Tyler O'Donnel, a student at Washburn District High School, Gold Medal winner in Dairy Showmanship at the 1991 - 1992 National Future Farmers of America Convention in Kansas City; (HLS 1117)

John C. Happel, a member of Boy Scout Troop #130 in South Paris, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1118)

Dwight H. P. Pringle, of Boy Scout Troop #805 in Windham, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1119)

Chad Smith, of Hermon, a member of Boy Scout Troop #18 in Carmel, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1120)

Casey Carter, of Brewer, a member of Boy Scout Troop #16, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1121)

William R. Canning, a student at Bangor Christian School, who has been selected to receive the 1992 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association; (HLS 1122)

Dan T. Thai, a student at Bangor High School, who has been selected to receive the 1992 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association; (HLS 1123)

Sarah Shubert, and in extending our congratulations on being one of the top scorers on the Maine Educational Assessment Test; (HLS 1124)

Sarah Jordon, and in extending our congratulations on being one of the top scorers on the Maine Educational Assessment Test; (HLS 1125)

William H. Cassidy, for his outstanding service and expert guidance in vocational education. Mr. Cassidy, after playing a leadership role for 7 years, is leaving the Department of Education to become Director of Research and Curriculum Development for the Center for Youth Apprenticeship. He has presided with great energy and vision over a period of tremendous change and innovation in vocational education in Maine. We extend our best wishes for his future endeavors; (HLS 1126)

the Sisters of the Presentation of Mary, and in extending our appreciation for the holy and spiritual service they have generously given for the past 17 years to the family in Christ of Saint Theresa's Church in Mexico; (HLS 1127)

the following top ten students of the 1992 graduating class of Telstar Regional High School: Solai Buchanan, Bridget Remington, Casey Swan, Amy Hannon, David Hanscom, Victor Hart, Troy Wing, Matthew O'Meara, Scott Higgins and Robin Michaud; (HLS 1128)

Jessica Karg, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Boothbay Region High School; (HLS 1129)

Benjamin S. Lucas, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Boothbay Region High School; (HLS 1130)

Janice Day, an elementary school teacher at the Line School in Limerick, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her retirement after 38 years as an educator; (HLS 1131) the First Maine Regiment of Heavy Artillery, upon its being named the official "Garrison of Old Fort Preble" by the City of South Portland, and for its continuing efforts in education and preservation of the history of Maine, our "Pine Tree State"; (HLS 1132)

Brad E. Nadeau, who has earned the distinction of being named the 1st Honor Essayist of the 1992 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 1133)

Julie L. Robbins, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 1134)

Shendra L. Beachell, who has earned the distinction of being named the 1st Honor Essayist of the 1992 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School; (HLS 1135)

Stacy L. Shaw, who has earned the distinction of being named the 2nd Honor Essayist of the 1992 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School; (HLS 1136)

Aaron P. Guiggey, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School; (HLS 1137)

Joel D. Bartley, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Central Aroostook High School; (HLS 1138)

Carroll J. Foren, on the occasion of the dedication in his honor of the Opportunity Training Center in Presque Isle, in tribute to his many years of outstanding and devoted service, which has contributed immeasurably in Aroostook County and throughout the State to the improvement of the lives of citizens with mental retardation; (HLS 1139)

Ben Allen and Matt Townsend, of Mars Hill, members of the Maine P. A. W. Club that won the 14-year-old division, State of Maine Basketball Championship and will represent Maine in the AAU National Championships in Yakima, Washington; (HLS 1140)

Garth M. Cronkite, who has earned the distinction of being named the 2nd Honor Essayist of the 1992 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 1141)

Briana E. Thibeau, who for high academic achievement has earned the distinction of being named the top student of the 1992 graduating class of Fort Fairfield High School; (HLS 1142)

Tracey M. Nightingale, who for high academic achievement has earned the distinction of being one of the top 3 students of the 1992 graduating class of Fort Fairfield High School; (HLS 1143)

Amy S. Nelson, who for high academic achievement has earned the distinction of being one of the top 3 students of the 1992 graduating class of Fort Fairfield High School; (HLS 1144)

Heather R. Keep, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Easton High School; (HLS 1145) the following top ten students of the 1992 graduating class of Gray-New Gloucester High School: Jonathan Matthew Morse, Jennifer Peary Blanchard, Katharine Lawrence Wroth, Angela Lee Packard, Matthew Robert Whitten, James W. Barton III, Brandy Coleen Palmer, Ann Loubeth Trundy, Darren Troy Whitney and

William E. Zajac; (HLS 1146)

and in extending our appreciation to the following foreign exchange students for their contribution to the school and communities of the Gray-New Gloucester area and for bringing the world a little closer together through peace, friendship and understanding: Piia J. Petrilainen, Ioannis N. Charizopoulos, Gustav E. Ode, Ximena M. Guzman, Carmen A. Carfora and Christine A. Schmidt; (HLS 1147)

Coach Eric Hume and the following members of the Maine P. A. W. Club who won the 14-year-old division, State of Maine Basketball Championship and will represent Maine in the AAU National Championships in Yakima, Washington: Jason White, Eric Poulsen, Jason Myers, Robey Rhoads, Gavin McCarthy, Rich Day, Ben Allen, Matt Townsend, Robbie Worcester and Geoff Halber; (HLS 1148)

Robbie Worcester, of Columbia Falls, a member of the P. A. W. Club that won the 14-year-old division, State of Maine Basketball Championship and will represent Maine in the AAU National Championships in Yakima, Washington. Robbie was named the State Tournament MVP; (HLS 1149)

the delegates from Narraguagus High School, who have been chosen, by virtue of their excellent scholarship, dedicated leadership and citizenship, to represent their school at the forthcoming Dirigo Boys State and Girls State for 1992: Travis Boyd, Jude Kelley, Thomas Dowling, Aaron Bailey, Allison Reynolds, Danielle Dunphy, Jill Nicholas and Carla Ganiel and alternates Sara Cashman and Erin Look; (HLS 1150)

Daniel Nicolas, honored as the 1992 Citizen of the Year by the Fort Kent Chamber of Commerce; (HLS 1151)

Normand Ouellette, who has been named the Frenchville 1992 Outstanding Citizen of the Year for his involvement in making his community a better place to live; (HLS 1152)

Michelle A. Parent, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Deering High School; (HLS 1153)

Erik Libey, who has earned the distinction of being named the Valedictorian of the 1992 graduating class of Limestone High School; (HLS 1154)

Bethany Anne Stokka, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Limestone High School; (HLS 1155)

Jeffrey Scott Roberts, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Limestone High School; (HLS 1156)

Nikita St. Pierre, who has been selected Miss Limestone of 1992; (HLS 1157)

Niele Buck, who will retire in June after 33 years of dedicated service to School Administrative District #1. Mr. Buck was an Industrial Arts teacher at Presque Isle High School for 10 years and has been the high school's Vocational Director for the past 22 years; (HLS 1158)

Greg Lord of Holden, a member of Boy Scout Troop #16, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1159)

Francis and Josephine Larkin, of Millinocket, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 13, 1992; (HLS 1160)

Nettie M. Winchenbach, of Waldoboro, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, June 14, 1992; (HLS 1161)

the team members of the Windham Junior High School Recycling Committee, who won 2nd place in the Maine Energy Education Program; (HLS 1162)

Coach Richard Brault; Assistant Coach Robert Masi; Managers Mia Kyricos, Christopher Roy and Michael Webster; and the following members of the York High School Boys Basketball team: Ronald Avery, Christopher Fernald, Shannon Mitchell, Christopher Molda, Benjamin Nosek, David Elliott Price, James Scully, David Stanek, Jason Szczepanik, Phillip Tarbox, Jason Webber, Peter Webster and Joel D. Wladkowski, winners of the Western Maine Class B Basketball Championship for the 2nd consecutive year; (HLS 1163)

Coach Richard Clark; Assistant Coach Jon Carmichael; Managers Jessica Locke, Monica Patton and Emily McIntosh; and the following members of the York High School Girls Basketball team: Kristen Briggs, Joanna Brown, Kathleen Byrne, Laura Coughlin, Melanie Thim Griffin, Andrea Johansen, Stacy Kennedy, Andrea M. Little, Molly Macdonald, Jeseca L. Martel, Jessica O'Malley, Lindsay L. Plaisted, Melissa Stone and Johnna Weaver, winners of the 1992 Western Maine Class B State Championship and the State Class B Girls Basketball Championship; (HLS 1164)

David N. Englund, of Boy Scout Troop #301 in York, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1165)

Alma Burgess, for 27 years of outstanding service to the University of Maine at Farmington community. With her helpful attitude and cheerful smile, she has not only assisted thousands of students but has also brightened the days of her colleagues; (HLS 1166)

Laura Marie O'Hanlon, on attaining the honor of "Best Oralist" at the Trilateral Moot Court Competition at the University of Maine School of Law; (HLS 1167)

J. David Shapiro, of Wayne, who has been named Assistant Principal of the Year by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association. Mr. Shapiro has made a difference in the lives of hundreds of students during his years in the educational field; (HLS 1168)

Nelson Megna, for his outstanding service and expert guidance as Superintendent of Schools in Winthrop, and in extending best wishes for his future endeavors; (HLS 1169)

Joan Edwards, on the occasion of her retirement as a teacher for the Wayne Elementary School, whose years of dedicated service and concern for young people are appreciated by the people of the community and in extending best wishes for her future endeavors; (HLS 1170)

the following members of the Caribou High School Girls Tennis Team, winners of their first State Class A Championship: Anne Bernard, Lise Carter, Chelsea Beleanger, Karen Rockwell, Sheri Dyer, Tiffany Pelletier, Jessica Huck, Stephanie Mazerolle, Christine Solman, Jill Beaupre and coaches John Habeeb and Nona Carter; (HLS 1171)

Norma Blackstone Milton, of the Caribou Business and Professional Club, recipient of the 1992 Maine State Women of the Year Award given by the Maine Business and Professional Organization; (HLS 1172)

Kris Doody Chabre, of the Caribou Business and Professional Club, recipient of the the State of Maine Young Career Person of the Year Award for 1992 presented by the Maine Business and Professional Organization; (HLS 1173)

Leonide Ayotte, potato grower, seed shipper and businessman of Ste. Agathe, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 80th birthday, June 19, 1992; (HLS 1174)

Lucien and Wilfreda Tocchi Ouellette, who married at the St. Louis Catholic Church in Fort Kent on June 25, 1942, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1175)

Charley and Pearl Forrest, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1176)

Frederic and Grace Bagley, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1177)

Robert M. Earle, of Boy Scout Troop #124 in Lisbon, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1178)

Margaret Higginbotham Shea and Merrill Shea, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, and their incredible love of life, music and books, which is an inspiration to everyone who knows them; (HLS 1179)

Helen D. Berube, of Van Buren, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 85th birthday, July 17, 1992; (HLS 1180)

Norman G. Woodbury, of Winslow, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 90th birthday, July 7, 1992; (HLS 1181)

Keith Bisson, of Boy Scout Troop #648 in Brunswick, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1182)

Coach Steve LaPointe, assistant coaches Mike Bean and Mark Karter and the following members of the Mountain Valley High School Baseball Team, 1992 Class B State Champions: Eric Arsenault, Todd Bean, Dan Beaulieau, Seth Carey, Dan Garbarini, Ian Garbarini, Jeff Ippolito, Jamie Ippolito, Matt Irish, Dave Kasregis, Fred Kent, Ian McFawn, Ryan Plante and Tom Viger and manager Michelle Chase; (HLS 1183)

Mildred Stewart, who is retiring after 35 years of dedicated service to the Department of Human Services, Bureau of Child and Family Services; (HLS 1184)

Forrest J. Robbins, of Harrington, a member of Boy Scout Troop #130, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1185)

Frederick and Pauline Wookey, of Township 21, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1186)

the following top 12 students of the 1992 graduating class of Lincoln Academy: Jennifer Andersen, Nathan Cook, Kristin Dodge, Ann Margaret Holme, Elise Gordon Libby, Nicole Little, Jeremy Martin, Jason Masters, Barnaby Olson, Daniel Wallace, Ellen Whaler and Amy York; (HLS 1187)

the following top 10 students of the 1992 graduating class of Wiscasset High School: Gretchen Spurgat, Chris Moeller, Don Flannigan, Andy Beal, Mark Parquette, Kristin Travers, Kristin Perkins, Stephanie Walsh, Mara York and Cory Perry; (HLS 1188)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Curtis, Sr., of Cherryfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 40th Wedding Anniversary, June 15, 1992; (HLS 1189)

Eliza Strickland, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, June 7, 1992; (HLS 1190)

Bun and Pearl Carl, of Bingham, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 8, 1992; (HLS 1191)

the George Stevens Academy Girls Softball Team on their victory in the Girls Eastern Maine Class C Softball Championship; (HLS 1192)

the Ellsworth High School Boys Baseball Team, on their victory in the Eastern Maine Class B Baseball Championship; (HLS 1193)

the Ellsworth High School Girls Basketball Team, on their victory in the Girls Eastern Maine Class B Basketball Championship; (HLS 1194)

Aaron Marston Howard, of Boy Scout Troop #82 in Bucksport, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1195)

Eldena C. Ketch, of Woodland, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, June 12, 1992; (HLS 1196)

Jack Gorsuch, on the occasion of his retirement after 11 years of faithful and effective service as finance director for the Town of Gorham and in extending best wishes for his future endeavors; (HLS 1197)

the citizens of Arkhangel'sk, for their courteous hospitality and warm international friendship in welcoming the 1992 delegation of student ambassadors representing the INITIATIVE FOR UNDERSTANDING YOUTH EXCHANGE PROGRAM of the United States of America; (HLS 1198)

the citizens of Petrozavodsk, for their courteous hospitality and warm international friendship in welcoming the 1992 delegation of student ambassadors representing the INITIATIVE FOR UNDERSTANDING YOUTH EXCHANGE PROGRAM of the United States of America; (HLS 1199)

the citizens of Murmansk, for their courteous hospitality and warm international friendship in welcoming the 1992 delegation of student ambassadors representing the INITIATIVE FOR UNDERSTANDING YOUTH EXCHANGE PROGRAM of the United States of America; (HLS 1200)

the staff and students of Camp Zhemchuzina, for their courteous hospitality and warm international friendship in welcoming the 1992 delegation of student ambassadors representing the INITIATIVE FOR UNDERSTANDING YOUTH EXCHANGE PROGRAM of the United States of America; (HLS 1201)

the citizens of Ivanovo, for their courteous hospitality and warm international friendship in welcoming the 1992 delegation of student ambassadors representing the INITIATIVE FOR UNDERSTANDING YOUTH EXCHANGE PROGRAM of the United States of America; (HLS 1202)

the citizens of St. Petersburg, for their courteous hospitality and warm international friendship in welcoming the 1992 delegation of student ambassadors representing the INITIATIVE FOR UNDERSTANDING YOUTH EXCHANGE PROGRAM of the United States of America; (HLS 1203)

Charles G. Romanoff, singer, songwriter, musician and proud native of "Gorham's Corner", the heart of Portland's Irish community, who devoted his life to encouraging young talent and to the appreciation of the musical heritage of Maine, his beloved "Pine Tree State"; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1204)

the members of the Eighth Maine Regiment Memorial Association of Peaks Island, on the centennial (1891 - 1991) of their Museum and Memorial Hall, for their efforts in education and for their preservation of the civil war heritage of Maine, their beloved Pine Tree State; (HLS 1205)

the Boothbay Harbor Coast Guard Reserve Unit, for community service and the restoration of the 1942 Liberty Launch "Opportunity" for the Community Employment Project of Portland, promoting positive social and environmental change through alternative education; (HLS 1206)

Mary A. Bryant, of Clifton and Bangor, who will be missed by her husband, family and the citizens of Clifton and remembered for the kindness and courtesy she extended to those with whom she worked and came in contact; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1207)

John and Frederica Fahey, of Millinocket, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 24, 1992; (HLS 1208)

Dr. A. Douglas Glanville, of Orono, whose death has deeply saddened family and friends. Dr. Glanville was a professor of psychology at the University of Maine, co-founder of the Maine Psychological Association and an outstanding writer on early Orono history as well as a member of the Orono Historical Society; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1209)

The Reverend Elwin L. Wilson, devoted husband, Methodist minister and friend. Mr. Wilson, a founder of the Protestant Student Center at the University of Maine, now known as the Wilson Center, will be remembered for his many years of dedication to the ministry, to the educating of people of all ages and for his work in establishing a Methodist camp in Maine; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1210)

Raymond Joseph Bedard, a student at Mountain Valley High School in Rumford, who won the state Class B championships for the 110 hurdles, 300 hurdles, long jump and triple jump; (HLS 1211)

Bill and Orize (Margie) Bishop, of Caribou, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1212)

the hourly paid and salaried employees of Boise Cascade, in Rumford, for their remarkable achievement of two million consecutive working hours free of any lost time due to a workplace accident, an example for all the workers and companies in the State to follow; (HLS 1213)

Norman and Ethel Strout, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, June 21, 1992; (HLS 1214)

Sarah Shubert, who has earned the distinction of being one of the three Valedictorians of the 1992 graduating class at Bangor High School; (HLS 1215)

Andrew Richards, who has earned the distinction of being one of the three Valedictorians of the 1992 graduating class at Bangor High School; (HLS 1216)

Laurie Rosenthal, who has earned the distinction of being one of the three Valedictorians of the 1992 graduating class at Bangor High School; (HLS 1217)

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayhew, of Cherryfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 4, 1992; (HLS 1218)

Everett L. Baum, of St. George, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 90th birthday, July 12, 1992; (HLS 1219)

Theodore H. Curtis, a student at John Bapst Memorial High School, who has been selected to receive the 1992 Principal's Award for outstanding academic achievement and citizenship, sponsored by the Maine Secondary School Principals' Association; (HLS 1220)

Robert L. Vadas, Jr., of Orono, who was awarded the A. B. Massey Award for the outstanding graduate student in the College of Fisheries and Wildlife

Sciences at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University; (HLS 1221)

Claude Z. Westfall, of Orono, an avid fisherman who caught the first salmon of 1992 in the Penobscot River in front of the Veazie Salmon Club at 4:57 a.m. on May 1. The 9 1/2 pound fish was delivered to President Bush at his Maine home at Walker's Point, Kennebunkport, with an invitation to the President to come to Veazie and fish in the premier salmon run in the United States; (HLS 1222)

Virginia Culver, for 30 years of dedicated service to her community and the State of Maine as a member of the East Eddington Group of the University of Maine Cooperative Extension; (HLS 1223)

Alma Williams, of Clifton, for 50 years of dedicated service to her community and the State of Maine as a member of the East Eddington Group of the University of Maine Cooperative Extension; (HLS 1224)

Verna Higgins, for 60 years of dedicated service to her community and the State of Maine as a member of the East Eddington Group of the University of Maine Cooperative Extension; (HLS 1225)

Lillian Morse, of Clifton, for 25 years of dedicated service to her community and the State of Maine as a member of the East Eddington Group of the University of Maine Cooperative Extension; (HLS 1226)

Polly Farrar, of East Eddington, for 25 years of dedicated service to her community and the State of Maine as a member of the East Eddington Group of the University of Maine Cooperative Extension; (HLS 1227)

Jean Bragg, of East Eddington, for 20 years of dedicated service to her community and the State of Maine as a member of the East Eddington Group of the University of Maine Cooperative Extension; (HLS 1228)

Melaine Gershman-Tewksbury, M.D., of Presque Isle and Bangor, a devoted wife, mother and pediatrician. Dr. Gershman-Tewksbury received multiple teaching awards in the Tufts Pediatric Residency Program and was awarded a fellowship at Harvard University's Childrens Hospital in the division of adolescent medicine. She will be remembered for her tenacity, her absolute commitment to the people she loved and her deeply rooted sense of family; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1229)

Rosie McManus, who was presented the Parent of the Year Award by the York County Parent Awareness Association, for her leadership role and support of people with disabilities in York County; (HLS 1230)

Faustina Robinson Spring, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 95th birthday, July 22, 1992; (HLS 1231)

E. Ashley Walter, Jr., of Waldoboro, who is retiring after 44 years of dedicated service as a director of the Waldoboro Bank, F.S.B. Mr. Walter is also active in civic and fraternal organizations in the area and was a member of the House of Representatives for two terms; (HLS 1232)

the following students of the Belgrade Central School, recipients of the Presidential Academic Fitness Award: Ali Aslam, Lisa Bell, Anna Boss, Kristin Chowning, Melissa Downing, Troy Furbush, Alicia Gallant, Weatalo Hayes, Nicole Herzing, Jennifer Lemelin, Sarah Lynch, Modjulie King, John Mathias, Amanda Mosher, Erica Palmer, Kristy Roy, Rachel Saxton, Valeda Scribner, Kara Sprague, Kevin Todd, Derrick Turner, Andrew Wilkie, Isaiah Williams and Lacy Withee; (HLS 1233)

the following students of the Livermore Falls Grammar School, recipients of the Presidential Academic Fitness Award: Becca Woodard, Renata Adams, Anna Laux, Amanda Mercier, Beth Spencer, Ed Duguay, Peter Cloutier, Andrea Pratt, Jessica Tripp, Joshua Smith and Steve Witek; (HLS 1234)

Eric J. Perkins, of Boy Scout Troop #310 in Saco, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1235) the members of the 1942 graduating class at Madawaska High School, on the occasion of their 50th class reunion; (HLS 1236)

Zhi Qiao Chen, who has earned the distinction of being named the Salutatorian of the 1992 graduating class of Deering High School; (HLS 1237)

Anita Gupta, who has earned the distinction of being named the Honor Essayist of the 1992 graduating class of Deering High School; (HLS 1238)

Coach Eric Hume, Jason White, Eric Poulsen, Jason Myers, Robey Rhoads and Geoff Halber, of the Maine P. A. W. Club that won the 14-year-old division, State of Maine Basketball Championship and will represent Maine in the AAU National Championships in Yakima, Washington; (HLS 1239)

William C. and Nellie M. Hayward, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 26, 1992; (HLS 1240)

Rachel Fuller, of Cherryfield, who has been chosen Miss Maine American Preteen for 1992; (HLS 1241)

Angela M. Jones, of Livermore Falls, whose academic achievements have earned her the distinction of being named a Blaine House Scholar; (HLS 1242)

Janet Alter, of Belgrade Lakes, whose academic achievements have earned her the distinction of being named a Blaine House Scholar; (HLS 1243)

Gretchen L. Adams and Donald B. Griffeth, of Limestone, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, April 23, 1992; (HLS 1244)

Dora Bennett, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, July 15, 1992; (HLS 1245)

the students from England, Germany, Luxemburg and Belgium, who are participating in the Focus Europe "Study US Program"; (HLS 1246)

Henry J. Hurford, III, of Boy Scout Troop #274 in Boothbay Harbor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1247)

Clark's General Store, Long Island, one of Maine's oldest continuously operating island stores, upon its centennial (1892 - 1992) and the Clark and Jones families for four generations of service to the Casco Bay Island communities; (HLS 1248)

Barbara Kane, of Otisfield, on her retirement after 31 years of faithful and dedicated service to the people of the Town of Otisfield as town clerk and tax collector; (HLS 1249)

Heather Parent, of Peru, who has earned the title of Miss Grand National Champion of the East Coast Twirlers Association. During the 11 years of competition Heather has won 302 first place trophies and during the same period of time has held 55 State titles, 15 International and 5 Grand National titles; (HLS 1250)

Albert Erlon Mosher, Sr., of Gorham, an individual who will long be remembered as a loving husband, father, grandfather and friend, known in the community as an active participant in fraternal, civic and church organizations and in local and state politics, having served on town committees and as a member of the House of Representatives of the 102nd through the 105th Legislatures; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1251)

Katherine Frances Thompson Buck, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, August 15, 1992; (HLS 1252)

Tenants Harbor Baptist Church, and in extending our best wishes as it celebrates its 150th anniversary. The church was founded on August 4, 1842, with the first meeting house being erected in 1847. A large Victorian addition was erected in 1891 and is noted as being an architectural gem. We commend the church for its perseverance and in sustaining the spirit of Christ for so many years; (HLS 1253)

Ashley Lynn Marble, of Topsfield, who was crowned Miss Northern New England American Princess at the American Co-ed Princess Pageant in Danvers, Massachusetts. Miss Marble also won the talent competition. She will be representing Maine at the national competition to be held in Florida; (HLS 1254)

Nathan March, of Boy Scout Troop #58 in Cumberland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1255)

Sister Mary Louise, Sister of Mercy, on her Diamond Jubilee of Religious Profession. Sister Mary Louise served with distinction as chief pharmacist at Mercy Hospital for over 30 years. She also served as Assistant Administrator and as Co-moderator of Nursing Students' Sodality of Our Lady; was a teacher of pharmacology and Superior of the 40 sisters working at Mercy Hospital; and was active in the women's auxiliary and the Portland West Church Alliance. In 1976 she established the Eagle Lake Pharmacy and was there for eleven years. Her tireless efforts and years of dedicated service have made the communities a better place in which to live; (HLS 1256)

Michael Poulin, of Fairfield, 2-time individual Gold Medalist at the United States Olympic Festival competitions, winner of 3 consecutive United States Equestrian Team National Championships and Bronze Medalist in the Team Dressage event at the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona, Spain; (HLS 1257)

Bernard Ryder, for his dedicated service as Limestone's Superintendent of Schools from October 2, 1983, to September 1, 1992, for his commitment to the communities and the educational systems of Limestone and Caswell and for never losing sight of the fact that, in the business of education, students come first; (HLS 1258)

Basil and Rae Smith, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1259)

James "Chico" Hernandez, of Presque Isle, who earned two gold medals at the 1991 AAU Grand National Senior/Masters wrestling championships held July 10 - 14 at the Kellogg Arena in Battle Creek, Michigan. Mr. Hernandez is Maine's only national champion in wrestling; (HLS 1260)

Roland and Theresa Poulin, of Stratton, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Poulin were married at Chartieville, Province of Quebec, on September 26, 1942; (HLS 1261)

Kelly Dow, of Calais, a member of the Maine State champion Old Town Mainiacs, who has been named Most Valuable Player at the American Athletic Union national basketball championships; (HLS 1262)

Janice Carpenter, one of two persons honored by Greater Portland Landmarks, for being vice president of the Riverton Community Association and for her contributions to historic preservation, architecture, community revitalization and urban planning; (HLS 1263)

May and Kenneth Fairbanks, of Industry, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, May 17, 1992; (HLS 1264)

Charles Tucker, II, of Boy Scout Troop #179 in Ashland, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1265)

Bourcard Nesin, of Howland, who is retiring after 39 years as a devoted doctor to the people of the Howland, Enfield and Lincoln areas. Dr. Nesin is known, respected and admired for his medical skills, his human qualities and his empathy, understanding, compassion and inspiration. Dr. Nesin credits his deceased wife, Statia, with helping him to achieve his goal, because without her support, he would never have been able to complete his studies to become a medical doctor. In 1985, Dr. Nesin received the Blue Shield Award, which is an award presented by medical peers in recognition of outstanding contribution to medical care and for personal accomplishment. We congratulate him on his retirement and extend best wishes to him in his future endeavors; (HLS 1266)

Bethany G. Atkins, of Hampden, bronze medalist winner in the United States Pony Club National Tetrathlon Competition; (HLS 1267)

Enoil and Martine Pelletier, of Millinocket, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1268)

Tricia V. Wedge, of Millinocket, on being the MRPA Hot Shot State Champion for the group 13 to 15 years of age; (HLS 1269)

Lake View Plantation, on celebrating its 100th Anniversary and in extending our best wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate this Centennial; (HLS 1270)

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight D. Merrill, of Dover-Foxcroft, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, September 5, 1992; (HLS 1271)

Gerard and Helen Guay, of Bingham, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, November 14, 1992; (HLS 1272)

Verna Warman, of Madison, 102 years of age, who retired at 97 years of age after 40 years as Secretary for the Town of Anson; (HLS 1273)

Millinocket Little League, winners of the Junior Division District 3 Championship. The team will play in the State Tournament on July 29th; (HLS 1274)

John S. Porter, of Millinocket, whose death has deeply saddened family and friends. Mr. Porter was a veteran of World War II, a member of Nollesemic Lodge No. 205 AF & AM, a life member of both Francis E. Elliott Post No. 4154 VFW and Bernard L. Coro Chapter No. 22 DAV and a member of the United Transportation Union Local No. 1690; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1275)

Roger A. Manzo, upon his retirement from Bangor Hydro-Electric Company after 29 years of dedicated service; (HLS 1276)

Sarah "Sally" Murch, upon her retirement from Bangor Hydro-Electric Company after 35 years of dedicated service; (HLS 1277)

Louis R. Ouellette, upon his retirement from Bangor Hydro-Electric Company after 43 years of dedicated service; (HLS 1278)

Lloyd and Alice Grant, of Caribou, on the occasion of their 60th Wedding Anniversary, August 2, 1992; (HLS 1279)

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Parker, of Woodland, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on February 28, 1992; (HLS 1280)

Jamie Broome, of Boy Scout Troop #184 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1281)

Ellery C. Whitten, of Clifton, beloved husband of Kathleen (Wilson) Whitten, a United States Army veteran of World War II, a member of Teamsters Union Local No. 340 and, for the past 10 years since retiring from trucking, a security guard at Husson College, Bangor; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1282)

Clayton Edwin Jewett, of Hermon, beloved husband of Susan (Hanley) Jewett. Mr. Jewett served 2 terms in the Maine House of Representatives. He was employed with Cianchette Construction Company for 16 years as office manager and later with the Hermon School Department for 39 years. For 16 years, Mr. Jewett was treasurer of the Penobscot County Democratic Committee. He also served as selectman for the Town of Ripley for 7 years; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1283)

the players and coaches of the State Champion Falmouth Little League Allstars. Their outstanding performance is a great example of what can be accomplished when individuals work together to attain a common goal; (HLS 1284)

Earle Z. Noyes, of Corinth, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 100th birthday, August 29, 1992; (HLS 1285)

Philip and Marian Paton, of Troy, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, August 30, 1992; (HLS 1286)

Richard and Althea Lewis, of East Boothbay, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 64th Wedding Anniversary, July 28, 1992; (HLS 1287)

Floyd and Katherine Clements, of Chesterville, on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, August 1, 1992; (HLS 1288)

L. Gary Knight, President of Livermore Falls Trust Company in Livermore Falls, for being named 1992 Volunteer Banker of the Year by the Maine Bankers Association; (HLS 1289)

Eric Richard, a student at Mountain Valley High School in Rumford, who won the 3,000-meter race at The Athletic Congress competition in Scarborough and the 3,200-meter race at the state Class B championship and will represent Maine in the TAC New England championships to be held in New York; (HLS 1290)

Joseph and June Wilcock, of South Bristol, on the occasion of their 57th Wedding Anniversary, August 24, 1992; (HLS 1291) the following members of the Fort Fairfield Show Choir, which won the Division B State Championship, and the members of the Fort Fairfield Jazz Choir, which placed third in Division A: Kimberly Cyr, Shannon Stevens, Sarah McCullough, Michelle Massie, Kyla Cronkhite, Erin Nightingale, Sarah Libby, Kristen Barnes, Amy Nelson, Tracey Rockford, Stacey Gallagher, Kerrie Enerett, Christopher Murchison, Kris Levasseur, Briana Thibeau, Melissa Sinclair, Jessie Ouellette, Kelley McArthur, V. J. Bernier, Wendell Roy, Clifford McArthur, Steven Holbrook, Jason Brook, Melissa Plant, Tracey Nightingale, Morgan Davenport, Dominick Ullman, Seth Bird, Jon Voisine, Tami Jo McCausland, Justin Crocker, Heidi Nichols and Ben Findlen and Director Jerry Levasseur and Choreographer Larry Thibodeau; (HLS 1292)

Michael and Marian Terranova, on the occasion of their 41st Wedding Anniversary, September 8, 1992; (HLS 1293)

Mr. and Mrs. Telford McAllister on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, July 16, 1992;

(HLS 1294)

Wesley A. DeMarco, of Boy Scout Troop #86 in Gray, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1295)

Phil Fortin, of Portland, a cofounder of the Tate - Tyne Neighborhood Improvement Committee, community activist and loyal friend and worker for Harbor View Park; (HLS 1296) the Community Employment Project, of Portland, upon the 50th anniversary of the "M. V. Opportunity," the last working World War II Liberty launch on the Maine coast, now used to teach Maine youth seamanship, citizenship and conservation by public service projects on the Islands of Casco Bay; (HLS 1297)

Owen Patrick McMahon, of Boy Scout Troop 171, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1298)

Gordon and Viola Healstrom, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, December 16, 1992; (HLS 1299)

Arthur L. McLaughlin, of Corinth, beloved husband of Carol (Chesley) McLaughlin, who was a devoted father and husband, a Boy Scout leader and United States Navy Veteran; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1300)

Alexander D. Smith, of Boy Scout Troop #603, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1301)

Ada F. Baker, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday. Mrs. Baker, the mother of 6, grandmother of 18, great grandmother of 31 and great great grandmother of 5, was born on October 6, 1902; (HLS 1302)

Jesse Boudway, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 91st birthday, September 15, 1992; (HLS 1303)

Elva Bryant, of Cutler, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, June 11, 1992; (HLS 1304)

Annie Ackley, a resident of Ocean View Nursing Home in Lubec, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, August 10, 1992; (HLS 1305)

the Town of Sidney, on the 200th Anniversary of its incorporation and in extending best wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate this special occasion; (HLS 1306)

Dr. Carol Eckert, who was named Maine Family Physician of the Year by the Maine Academy of Family Physicians; (HLS 1307)

Ed Hutchins, of Bailey Island, recipient of the 1992 Retailer of the Year award presented by the Maine Merchants Association, whose many years of hard work have contributed to the betterment of his community; (HLS 1308)

Howard "Buddy" Chick, of Norway, an officer in the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary of Portland. As a photographer, friend to Maine youth and foster parent to over 100 children, he taught by example that living a full life meant sharing God's gifts with others; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1309)

Arnold and Este Beaulieu, of Millinocket, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1310)

Irvin "Cut" and Rosamond Foster, of Millinocket, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, August 27, 1992; (HLS 1311)

Charles A. Coffin, Jr., on the occasion of his retirement as business manager of the Millinocket school system, whose 16 years of dedicated service are appreciated by the people of the community, and in extending best wishes for his future endeavors; (HLS 1312)

John A. Manzo, Sr., a beloved family member and lifelong resident of Millinocket, whose death has deeply saddened family, friends and members of this community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1313)

Paul Allen Libby, of Millinocket, known in the community for his active participation in civic, church and social activities in the Millinocket area; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1314)

David Currier, of Boy Scout Troop #271 in Presque Isle, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1315)

Daniel R. Ryder, of Boy Scout Troop #8 in Bangor, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1316)

Lawrence and Hilda (Ayotte) Bosse, of Ste. Agathe, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Bosse were married in Ste. Agathe on October 26, 1942, and are the parents of Cecile, Jacqueline, Nancy, James, Larry, Patricia, Philip, Ronald and Michael; (HLS 1317)

Ward E. Olson, of Scarborough, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, September 2, 1992; (HLS 1318)

Father Laurent J. Levesque, of St. Anne de Beaupre, Quebec, Canada, upon his celebration of 50 years in the priesthood and for his devotion, dedication and love to his profession. Father Levesque has shared his beliefs with the parishioners of Millinocket for many years; (HLS 1319)

Jeannette Dumond Levesque, of Madawaska, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 80th birthday, September 25, 1992. Mrs. Levesque is the mother of Adrienne, Elbridge, Joan and Diane; (HLS 1320)

Sam Michael, of Auburn, and in extending our appreciation for his many years of dedicated service to the Democratic party and the people of Auburn; (HLS 1321)

Warren H. Horton, Professor of History, who recently retired after 40 years of distinguished service to the University of Maine at Presque Isle; (HLS 1322) the St. John Valley Times, on its 35th Anniversary of serving the people of Northern Maine; (HLS 1323)

Nathaniel Crowley, of Stockton Springs, whose 12 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 112 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1324)

Harold Macomber, of South Portland, whose 12 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 24 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1325)

Peter Manning, of Portland, whose 12 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 29 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1326)

Susan J. Pines, of Limestone, whose 12 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 145 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1327)

Carl Sheltra, of Biddeford, whose 12 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 12 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1328)

John Cashman, of Old Town, whose 10 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 131 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1329)

James Handy, of Lewiston, who is leaving the House of Representatives and running for the Senate after 10 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 68. Representative Handy's commitment to the democratic process exemplifies the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1330)

Catharine K. Lebowitz, of Bangor, whose 10 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 115 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1331)

Harriet Lerman, of Portland, whose 10 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 30 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1332)

Joseph Mayo, of Thomaston, whose 10 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 80 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1333)

Paul Parent, of Benton, whose 10 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 85 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1334)

Patricia Stevens, of Bangor, whose 10 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 117 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1335)

Tony Tammaro, of Baileyville, whose 10 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 138 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1336)

Bradford Boutilier, of Lewiston, whose 8 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 66 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1337)

Thomas Duffy, of Bangor, whose 8 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 116 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1338)

Michael F. Hepburn, of Skowhegan, whose 8 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 100 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1339)

Norman Paul, of Sanford, whose 8 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 11 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1340)

P. Kelley Simpson, of Casco, whose 8 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 45 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1341)

Cushman Anthony, of South Portland, whose 6 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 23 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1342)

Margaret Pruitt Clark, of Brunswick, whose 6 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 70 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1343)

Christopher Gurney, of Portland, whose 6 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 31 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1344)

Dana C. Hanley, of Paris, who is leaving the House of Representatives and running for the Senate after 6 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 51. Representative Hanley's commitment to the democratic process exemplifies the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1345)

Walter W. Hichens, of Eliot, whose 6 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 3 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1346)

Francis C. Marsano, of Belfast, whose 6 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 111 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1347)

John Nutting, of Leeds, whose 6 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 59 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1348)

Judy Paradis, of Frenchville, who is leaving the House of Representatives and running for the Senate after 6 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 150. Representative Paradis's commitment to the democratic process exemplifies the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1349)

Helen M. Tupper, of Orrington, whose 6 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 121 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1350)

Madeline D. Stevenson, of Unity, whose 5 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 109 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1351)

Jeffrey H. Butland, of Cumberland, who is leaving the House of Representatives and running for the Senate after 4 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 38. Representative Butland's commitment to the democratic process exemplifies the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1352)

Mary Cahill, of Mattawamkeag, whose 4 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 133 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1353)

John H. Carroll, of Southwest Harbor, whose 4 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 124 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1354)

Nason Graham, of Houlton, whose 4 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 141 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1355)

Peter Hastings, of Fryeburg, whose 4 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 48 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1356)

Mark Lawrence, of Kittery, who is leaving the House of Representatives and running for the Senate after 4 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 1. Representative Lawrence's commitment to the democratic process exemplifies the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1357)

M. Ida Luther, of Mexico, who is leaving the House of Representatives and running for the Senate after 4 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 52. Representative Luther's commitment to the democratic process exemplifies the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1358)

Kathryn D. Merrill, of Dover-Foxcroft, whose 4 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 106 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1359)

John O'Dea, of Orono, who is leaving the House of Representatives and running for the Senate after 4 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 130. Representative O'Dea's commitment to the democratic process exemplifies the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1360)

John H. Richards, of Hampden, whose 4 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 113 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1361)

Rodney V. Bowers, of Sherman, whose 2 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 140 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1362)

Susan D. Duplessis, of Old Town, whose 2 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 128 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1363)

Tracy Goodridge, of Pittsfield, whose 2 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 101 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1364)

Elmer N. Savage, of Union, whose 2 years of outstanding legislative service to the people of District 84 and whose commitment to the democratic process exemplify the spirit of Maine and its citizens; (HLS 1365)

Phyllis R. Millett, of East Stoneham, former Grand Chief of the Pythian Sisters of Maine. As a lifelong member of her church and hospital auxiliary, and in decades of work for western Maine's children's camps, she devoted her life to family, community, and young people, amid the lakes and great outdoors she so loved; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1366)

Frederick and Ann Jewell, of Portland, for their donation to the Portland Trail System of the only remaining natural waterfall in Portland, so that future generations may enjoy the riches of recreation, running waters and green spaces in Longfellow's beloved "City by the Sea"; (HLS 1367)

Gene Harrington, in his efforts in helping the men of Desert Storm, by collecting, donating and shipping rifle protection bags to the troops in Saudi Arabia; (HLS 1368)

the Town of Monmouth, on the 200th Anniversary of its incorporation and in extending our best wishes to the good citizens of this community as they celebrate this special occasion; (HLS 1369)

Don Gatti, of Wayne, for the many years of hard work and dedication to the Town as a selectman; (HLS 1370)

the Wayne Friday Club, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of its 100th anniversary; (HLS 1371)

Clair "Pud" and Nadine Tilly O'Roak, of Sherman Mills, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, November 26, 1992; (HLS 1372)

Carl "Cap" and Thelma Thomas Perrin, of Sherman Mills, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, October 3, 1992; (HLS 1373)

Drill Captain Andrew Glidden, Unit Leader Thomas Malcolm, Thomas Picard, Steve Lane and Larry MacArthur, of the Millinocket Fire Department Color Guard, who received the first-place trophy for the best overall color guard in the State of Maine during competition at the Maine State Federation of Firefighters Annual Convention. The first-place trophy was awarded based on general appearance, precision marching and drill maneuvers; (HLS 1374)

Leon J. Crommett, a well-known and respected citizen who served as a member of the House of Representatives for 5 terms and who was a member of many civic and fraternal organizations; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1375)

National Commander Roger A. Munson, Life Member of Heights - Hillcrest American Legion Post 104, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, a capable and dedicated leader who has served his town, state and nation with distinction and who has always been ready to stand up and be counted to protect his family, religion and country. Many people, especially the veterans, widows and orphans, are better off because he walked their way; (HLS 1376)

Mr. Richard Kent, teacher in the Mountain Valley Greater Rumford school system for 17 years, who has been chosen as Teacher of the Year for the State of Maine for 1993. Mr. Kent is a very dedicated, caring and extremely capable individual who has the love and respect of his students, teachers, administrators, citizens and many former students of the Greater Rumford Area. We are all a little better off because Richard Kent walked our way; (HLS 1377)

Alice Rowell, of Harmony, who was presented with the town's Boston Post Gold Cane as Harmony's oldest citizen; (HLS 1378)

James Michael Forbush, of Boy Scout Troop #156 in Houlton, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1379)

The Abused Women's Advocacy Project, for 15 years of service to victims of domestic violence in Androscoggin, Oxford and Franklin counties; (HLS 1380)

Alfred E. Lewis, of Boothbay, on the occasion of his retirement after 30 years of dedicated service as the town's postmaster; (HLS 1381)

Henrietta Langella, of North Windham, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 100th birthday, September 19, 1992; (HLS 1382)

Elias A. Joseph, of Waterville, a highly respected businessman and a friend to many, who was well known as a dedicated citizen who took an active role and provided sound leadership in the civic affairs of the community; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1383)

Clarence "Ted" LaLiberty, Jr., who has been named Vice President for Operations at Maine Medical Center in Portland, and in extending our appreciation for 18 years of service to the people of Lincoln County through his work at Miles Memorial Hospital; (HLS 1384)

Arthur Peverly, of Kittery, who has been named Kittery's 1992 Citizen of the Year, in recognition of 20 years of community service; (HLS 1385)

Onil Labbe, of Van Buren, and in extending our appreciation for 40 years of dedicated service as a devoted doctor to the people of Madawaska, Presque Isle and Van Buren; (HLS 1386)

Paul J. Cyr, of Van Buren, who has retired after 44 years as a dentist to the people of Madawaska and Van Buren; (HLS 1387)

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Harriman, on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of their marriage; (HLS 1388)

Rowland Seavey, on the occasion of his 90th birthday; (HLS 1389)

Deputy Police Chief Lewis E. Metcalf, for 25 years of untiring service for the protection of the residents of the City of Rockland; (HLS 1390)

Glenna Watton Atwood, for her prominence as a leading spokesperson for the estimated 1.5 million Americans who are afflicted by Parkinson's disease; (HLS 1391)

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred (Laurence Bouchard) Beaulieu, on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Beaulieu were married on November 5, 1940, and are the parents of Real, Roger, Guildo, Donald, Conrad, Gaetane, Muriel, Paul and Kenneth; (HLS 1392)

Willie J. Paradis, beloved uncle of State Representative Patrick E. Paradis, who will always be remembered by the family and friends who knew and loved him; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1393)

Bethany G. Atkins, of Hampden, bronze medalist winner in the United States Pony Club National Tetrathlon Competition; (HLS 1394)

Etta Doyle, of Bingham, who was presented with the Boston Post Gold Headed Cane as Bingham's oldest citizen; (HLS 1395)

Jeanette Libby, of Leeds, who has provided 15 years of caring and dedicated service to victims of domestic violence in Androscoggin, Oxford and Franklin counties through the Abused Women's Advocacy Project; (HLS 1396)

Henry S. Haskell, of St. George, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of his 80th birthday; (HLS 1397)

Enid L. Monaghan, of Port Clyde, on the occasion of her retirement after 53 years as postmaster; her consistent cheerfulness and helpfulness to the people of the community are greatly appreciated and have earned lasting appreciation and affection; (HLS 1398)

Nellie Downs, of Brewer, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 96th birthday; (HLS 1399)

Warren and Christine Chadbourne, and in extending our best wishes on the honored occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, October 23, 1992; (HLS 1400)

Frank and Mary Ellen Gilley, of Holden, winners of the 1992 National Tree Farmer of the Year award; (HLS 1401)

the Portland Railroad Museum, upon its inception with the symbolic run of the "Monson," one of Maine's last working two-foot gauge steam locomotives. From 1880 to 1940 the two-foot gauge steam locomotives, which were unique to Maine, carried passengers, produce, lumber and slate and played an important part in Maine's contribution to the Industrial Revolution and the heritage of our Pine Tree State; (HLS 1402)

Matthew Washburn, a 4th-grader at the Bloomfield Elementary School in Skowhegan, who has been named a state winner in the Invent America Contest; (HLS 1403)

Robert Taliaferro, a 3rd-grader at the Clinton Elementary School, who has been named a state winner for his invention of the "Winter Warmer" in the Invent America Contest; (HLS 1404)

Leona M. Starett, of Thomaston, whose death has saddened friends. Ms. Starett will be remembered as a good neighbor. She was a member of the Baptist Church and held the Boston Post Cane as Thomaston's oldest citizen; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1405)

Scott R. McFadden, of Boy Scout Troop #58 in Cumberland Center, who has earned the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1406)

Senator N. Paul Gauvreau, for ten years of outstanding legislative service to the citizens of Androscoggin County and to express the high esteem and affection that we hold for this fine gentleman from Lewiston; (HLS 1407)

Scott E. Maddox, of Boy Scout Troop #603 in Augusta, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1408)

Arvilla Feener, Andover's most senior citizen and holder of the Boston Post Golden Cane, who was born August 19, 1893, in Branch La Hane, Nova Scotia, and has been a resident of Andover since the age of 9. Arvilla was chauffeured in her 1930 Chevrolet in the 1992 Andover Old Home Days Parade in celebration of her 99th birthday; (HLS 1409)

Lillian O'Brien, of Lewiston, for her longtime service as a member of the Board of the Abused Women's Advocacy Project; (HLS 1410)

Janet "Jenny" Reynolds, for her dedicated service to the residents of Fields Lane and the Northern House of Fort Fairfield; (HLS 1411)

Gerald Acheson, of Eagle Lake, who has been selected as a winner in the Maxwell House "Search for 100 Real Heroes," a nationwide award program to honor people whose spirit helps make America great. Mr. Acheson was chosen for his involvement as coordinator of a senior citizen center; (HLS 1412)

Elizabeth Koons, of Sidney, who has retired after 4 decades of outstanding service to the Dr. Frederick Thayer Hill Center, where she devoted her life to giving the gift of speech to hearing-impaired children of Maine; (HLS 1413)

Dr. Maurice C. "Butch" Hyde, Jr., of Augusta, who was named 1992 Business Educator of the Year by the Business Education Association of Maine; (HLS 1414)

Valerie D. Bellomy, of Hampden, who has been selected as a winner in the Maxwell House "Search for 100 Real Heroes," a nationwide award program to honor people whose spirit helps make America great. Valerie was chosen for organizing welcome-home receptions for nearly 65,000 soldiers returning from Desert Storm through Bangor; (HLS 1415)

Clairmond and Pearle Belanger, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on October 13, 1992; (HLS 1416)

Kelton "Bruce" L. Summers, for 50 years of outstanding service to the Caribou Fire Department and the citizens of Caribou; (HLS 1417)

Carol Hawkins Paulsen, and join the people of St. George in expressing our appreciation for her 31 years of service in the St. George Post Office, first as assistant and then as postmistress since 1977. Her cheerfulness made the post office a pleasant gathering place in the community and we wish her well in her retirement; (HLS 1418)

Odile Plourde, of Millinocket, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, October 31, 1992; (HLS 1419)

Phyllis and Leon Jandreau, of Bingham, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, October 22, 1992; (HLS 1420)

Scott Breton, of Boy Scout Troop #443 in Winslow, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1421)

Alice Harrington, of Cherryfield, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, November 16, 1992; (HLS 1422)

Justin J. Anderson, of Boy Scout Troop #802 in Windham, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1423)

Michael James Weaver, of Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1424)

John O. Douphinett, Scoutmaster for Boy Scout Troop #39 in Scarborough, who is retiring after more than 15 years of selfless and dedicated service to the youth of Maine; (HLS 1425)

Estrid Viola Olson, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 90th birthday, October 16, 1992; (HLS 1426)

Tom Edge, Jr., of Boy Scout Troop #443 in Winslow, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1427)

Chandler Olfield Dalzell and Mary Brown Dalzell, of Kittery, who celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on September 6, 1992; (HLS 1428)

Elliott and Marilyn Powers, of Industry, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary, November 14, 1992; (HLS 1429)

James Freeman, of Boy Scout Troop #580 in Rumford, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1430)

Ruth Bubar, of St. Albans, who will celebrate her 97th birthday in November, and who has been presented the Boston Post Gold Cane as the oldest resident of the community; (HLS 1431)

Beulah Bean, of Eustis, and join the people of the community in expressing our appreciation for her 25 years of dedicated service in the Eustis Post Office and wish her well in her retirement; (HLS 1432)

Norma Carlson and David Turner, of Portland, cofounders of the Parkside Neighborhood Association and longtime advocates of the city park system, for their years of dedication to neighborhood activism and the public green spaces of Portland, Longfellow's "City by the Sea"; (HLS 1433)

the Central Aroostook Soil and Water Conservation District, and in extending our congratulations as they celebrate their 50th anniversary as providers of public service and education on natural resource matters to the land owners of Central Aroostook; (HLS 1434)

Tom Gordon, in appreciation of his 19 years of dedicated service as Director of the Cobbossee Watershed District; (HLS 1435)

Harry Pinkham, of Boothbay Harbor, recipient of the Melvin Jones Fellowship award given by the Lions Clubs International in recognition of his exemplary service to the community and commitment to his fellow man; (HLS 1436)

Howard L. Friant, recipient of the prestigious Paul Harris Fellows award given by the Boothbay Harbor Rotary Club in recognition of his many years of service to the club, the community and the ideals of Rotary International; (HLS 1437)

George I. "Sonny" Hodgdon, of East Boothbay, recipient of the prestigious Paul Harris Fellows award given by the Boothbay Harbor Rotary Club in recognition of his many year of service to the club, the community and the ideals of Rotary International; (HLS 1438)

Hector E. Michaud and Marie Antoinette Chasse, and in extending best wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on October 20, 1992; (HLS 1439)

Eva Michaud Bretemps, of Frenchville, and in extending our best wishes on the occasion of her 80th birthday, December 4, 1992; (HLS 1440)

Clarence and Velma Thibeault, on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Thibeault were married in the Ste. Agathe Catholic Church on November 3, 1942. They have 13 children, 21 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren; (HLS 1441) the hard work of the staff and volunteers of the Hospice of Maine, the V.N.A. and Hospice of South Portland and the C.H.S. Hospice of Community Health Services; (HLS 1442)

John H. Cashwell, III, for six years of public service on behalf of the citizens of Maine as the Director of the Maine Forest Service; (HLS 1443)

Coach Sam Pendleton and the members of the Georges Valley High School Varsity Soccer Team, winners of the 1992 Class C State Soccer Championship; (HLS 1444)

Barbara Garland, recipient of the American Association of Retired Persons Citizenship Award, presented for her outstanding service to community and state; (HLS 1445)

Reverend Chandler M. Holmes, in appreciation of his devoted service of 15 years as a volunteer fireman and as Deputy Chief of the Northern Division for 6 years. Reverend Holmes' work in improving fire coverage throughout the Town will long be remembered; (HLS 1446)

Hillary Tompkins, of Presque Isle, and her partner, Mark Drouillard, of Littleton, Colorado, who won the Southwestern Novice Ice Dance Championship in Denver, Colorado; (HLS 1447)

Frank Hussey, who was selected as the state winner in a nationwide salute to citizenship. Mr. Hussey is a member of the Maine Farm Bureau, Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club and recently celebrated his 90th birthday; (HLS 1448)

Mittie and Vaughn Stevens, and in extending our warmest wishes on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary; (HLS 1449)

John Erickson, an actor, director, producer and teacher, who will be remembered by his colleagues, audiences and students for his talent, love of the theater and devotion to his students; (IN MEMORIAM) (HLS 1450)

Shane Cote, of Boy Scout Troop #185 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1451)

Daniel Searles, of Boy Scout Troop #185 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1452)

Christopher Silsbee, of Boy Scout Troop #185 in Caribou, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1453)

Matthew L. Ward, of Boy Scout Troop #107 in Pownal, who has attained the high rank and distinction of Eagle Scout; (HLS 1454)

Virginia Katon, of Chelsea, for her 44 years of continuous public service as clerk of the Town of Chelsea, for her steadfast insistence on maintaining the highest standard of accuracy in the voting lists and other public records and for her consistent provision of reliable, courteous service to all; (HLS 1455)