OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

NO. 2017-006
DATE July 4, 2017

AN ORDER RESCINDING THE CIVIL PREPAREDNESS EMERGENCY EXECUTIVE ORDER OF JULY 3, 2017

WHEREAS, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Maine, I declared a state of emergency in this State on July 1, 2017, thereby deployed those forces and resources necessary and appropriate to execute those laws that minimize the risk of harm to persons and their property; and

WHEREAS, in order to appropriately manage to the emergency, I issued Executive Order #2017-005, "An Order Regarding Civil Emergency Preparedness"; and

WHEREAS, a budget document that appropriates and allocates funds sufficient to operate State government during the coming biennium has since become effective; and

WHEREAS, I have therefore declared the immediate termination of the state of emergency that began on July 1, 2017;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Paul R. LePage, Governor of the State of Maine, do hereby rescind Executive Order #2017-005 "An Order Regarding Civil Emergency Preparedness." This Executive Order shall be effective upon my signature.

Paul R. LePage
Governor
