STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED SIXTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to Digging of Clams in Deer Isle and Stonington, Hancock County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Sec. 1. P. & S. L., 1959, c. 155, § 17, repealed. Section 17 of chapter 155 of the private and special laws of 1959 is repealed.

Sec. 2. P. & S. L., 1959, c. 155, §§ 17-A and 17-B, additional. Chapter 155 of the private and special laws of 1959 is amended by adding thereto 2 new sections, to be numbered 17-A and 17-B, to read as follows :

'Sec. 17-A. Digging of clams in Deer Isle. It shall be unlawful for any person not a resident of the Town of Deer Isle, Hancock County, to dig for clams within the limits of said town. This shall not interfere with any law relating to taking shellfish for bait for fishermen.

Nothing shall prohibit a resident or riparian owner of shores or flats in the Town of Deer Isle from digging and taking in any one day not exceeding one peck of clams therefrom for food for himself and family.

Sec. 17-B. Digging of clams in Stonington. It shall be unlawful for any person not a resident of the Town of Stonington, Hancock County, to dig for clams within the limits of said town. This shall not interfere with any law relating to taking shellfish for bait for fishermen.

Nothing shall prohibit a resident or riparian owner of shores or flats in the Town of Stonington from digging and taking in any one day not exceeding one peck of clams therefrom for food for himself and family.'
