'Sec. 84. Resident auctioneers licenses. Every resident person in the State desiring to do business as an auctioneer in the State who is over 21 years of age, submits evidence of good moral character and satisfies the Secretary of State, or an agent designated by him, that he has knowledge of the laws of this State pertaining to auctions and sales, the ethics and practices of auctioneers and such other related subject as the Secretary of State may select, upon application in form designated by the Secretary of State and by payment of $15, shall receive a one-year license to conduct auctions. Said license shall be renewed annually upon payment of a fee of $10. In addition, any municipality may require a local license to hold auctions therein of more than 3 days duration upon payment of a local license fee not to exceed $10.'

'Every nonresident person desiring to do business as an auctioneer in this State must obtain an auctioneer's license. The Secretary of State may issue a license to any nonresident auctioneer duly licensed as an auctioneer in the State in which he resides without an examination; provided such other state permits an auctioneer's license to be issued to a licensed resident auctioneer of this State without examination, upon compliance with the following requirements:

I. Proof. The applicant shall furnish proof to the Secretary of State that he is licensed to conduct auctions in the state in which he resides.

II. Bond. The applicant shall file with the Secretary of State an approved surety company bond conditioned upon satisfying any judgment for damages sustained by any person arising out of any auction to be conducted by him. The penal sum of such bond shall be at least $2,000. This bond provision may be waived if the applicant deposits with the Secretary of State cash security in a like amount.

III. Fee. The applicant shall pay an initial license fee of $50.'

Any person who is aggrieved by any act of the Secretary of State under this chapter shall have the right to appeal to the Superior Court in Kennebec County.'
