AN ACT Providing for Hunting Moose in Aroostook County in 1963.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 37, § 90, amended. The first paragraph of section 90 of chapter 37 of the Revised Statutes, as revised, is amended to read as follows:

'No person shall hunt, kill or have in his possession any caribou or moose, or parts thereof; ~~provided that no~~ except that there shall be an open season on bull moose in the County of Aroostook from October 1st to October 5th, in the year 1963, during which period any person legally licensed to hunt may hunt and kill one such moose not less than one year old and having not less than 2 prongs on one horn. All moose killed under this section shall be registered as provided for deer in section 100, and all provisions of this section shall apply to moose killed hereunder. No person who has legally killed a caribou or moose beyond the limits of this State shall have in his possession or import such caribou or moose, or parts thereof, into this State, unless he has obtained a permit from the commissioner to import such caribou or moose, or parts thereof, for the purpose of consumption or for mounting, but not for sale. Such permit authorizing the importation of caribou or moose, or parts thereof, shall set forth the inclusive dates when such possession shall be legal.'
