Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. 17-A MRSA § 104, sub-§§ 6 and 7 are enacted to read:

6. A person in possession or control of premises or a person who is licensed or privileged to be thereon is justified in the use of nondeadly disabling chemicals upon another when and to the extent that he reasonably believes it necessary to prevent an attempt or the actual commission of a criminal act upon those premises.

A. When he reasonably believes it necessary and he reasonably believes that other person is:

- (1) About to use unlawful, deadly force against himself or a 3rd person; or
- (2) Committing or about to commit a kidnapping, robbery or a forcible sex offense against himself or a 3rd person; or

B. When he reasonably believes that nondeadly disabling chemicals are necessary to prevent or terminate the commission of a criminal trespass by that other person, who he reasonably believes:

(1) Has entered or is attempting to enter the dwelling place or has surreptitiously remained within the dwelling place without a license or privilege to do so; and

(2) Is committing or is likely to commit some other crime within the dwelling place.

Sec. 2. 17-A MRSA § 1002, sub-§ 3, as enacted by PL 1975, c. 499, § 1, is amended to read:

3. This section shall not apply to the use of such nondeadly disabling chemicals when said that use is for the purpose of self-defense or property protection in accordance with sections 104 and 105.
