16

SENATE AMENDMENT "B" to COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" to H.P. 703, L.D. 967, Bill, "An Act to Expand Recycling through Reduced Burning"

18

20

Amend the amendment by striking out all of sections 7 to 9 and inserting in their place the following:

22

Sec. 7. Department of Environmental Protection to Study Backyard Burning. The Department of Environmental Protection shall, within its existing budgeted resources, examine the following issues:

24

26

1. The extent of backyard burning in the State and a comparison of the extent of and issues involved with backyard burning in urban, suburban and rural areas;

28

30

2. The impact of cultural influences and economic incentives on backyard burning;

32

34

3. The impact of backyard burning on local air quality and the level of human exposure to pollutants. Existing data may be used to examine these issues;

36

38

4. The state solid waste management and recycling infrastructure and its impact on backyard burning, including existing disincentives to recycle or dispose of trash properly;

40

42

5. Alternative solid waste management strategies that may reduce backyard burning;

44

6. Where backyard burning should be prohibited or restricted; and
