6 program."

7 A. The program must:

8 (1) Encourage landowners to allow outdoor recreationists access to their
9 property to hunt, fish or engage in other outdoor recreational pursuits;

10 (2) Foster good relationships between landowners and outdoor recreationists;
11 and

12 (3) Promote high standards of courtesy, respect and responsibility by outdoor 13 recreationists in their relations with landowners.

14 B. The commissioner shall appoint a landowner relations coordinator to oversee the 15 program and any other landowner relations activities of the department.

16 C. To the extent resources allow, the program must include the following elements:

17 (1) Building and maintaining an educated and motivated group of outdoor 18 recreationists who meet and promote high standards of courtesy, respect and 19 responsibility in their relations with landowners and who are willing to volunteer
20 in program-related projects or efforts to improve landowner relations;

21 (2) Issuing a certificate to persons wishing to support or participate in the 22 program. The commissioner may establish a fee for the certificate, which may not 23 exceed $20. All proceeds from the fees must be deposited in the Landowner
24 Relations Fund established in section 10265;

25 (3) Developing and disseminating to outdoor recreationists a code of ethics or 26 other information promoting high standards of courtesy, respect and 27 responsibility in their relations with landowners;

28 (4) Developing an outreach program that provides educational materials and 29 signs and that disseminates information to landowners and land users about 30 landowner rights, landowner liability protections, the tradition of allowing 31 outdoor recreationists to use private land and law enforcement resources
32 available to landowners;

33 (5) Engaging organizations and companies representing landowners,
