SUMMARY

14 This amendment:

15 1. Retains the provisions in law relating to: the Department of Education activities
16 relating to substance use disorder, the Department of Health and Human Services 17 activities relating to performance-enhancing substances and the Obesity and Chronic 18 Disease Fund;

19 2. Instead of requiring the Department of Education to maintain a central information
20 system on resources for people with disabilities, it requires the Department of Education 21 to develop and maintain a comprehensive database of resources for people with 22 disabilities on the department's publicly accessible website;

23 3. Removes a gendered pronoun;

24 4. Allows an elementary school student who resides in the unorganized territory to 25 attend as a tuition student any public or private elementary school approved for tuition 26 purposes and a secondary school student who resides in the unorganized territory to 27 attend as a tuition student any public or private secondary school to which that student 28 may gain entrance that is approved for tuition purposes; and 29 5. Clarifies that the amount of the adjustment for economically disadvantaged 30 students is the amount computed as the school administrative unit's total allocation for 31 economically disadvantaged students.
