DAREK M. GRANT
Secretary of the Senate

Presented by Senator POULIOT of Kennebec.

1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 32 MRSA §1352-A, sub-§1, ¶A-1 is enacted to read:

3 A-1. An applicant for licensure by endorsement or comity who provides proof that the 4 applicant is a licensed professional engineer in good standing in another state, territory
5 or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia or any foreign country who 6 has been licensed under qualifications that in the opinion of the board are substantially 7 equivalent to the requirements in this chapter may be licensed without additional 8 qualifications in accordance with this paragraph. The board, giving due consideration
9 to the protection of the public, may waive additional qualifications if an applicant
10 seeking licensure under this paragraph has practiced as a licensed professional engineer 11 for a minimum of 8 years and has never been subject to disciplinary action in this or 12 any other jurisdiction.

13 SUMMARY

14 This bill allows the State Board of Licensure for Professional Engineers to grant 15 licensure to applicants who have been licensed in good standing in another jurisdiction with 16 substantially equivalent qualifications to this State if the applicant has been licensed for at 17 least 8 years and has never been subject to disciplinary action.
