FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" to H.P. 352, L.D. 533, "An Act to Allow Residents of the Department of Corrections to Opt In to Additional Restitution for Their Victims"

Amend the bill by striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting the following:

'Sec. 1. 5 MRSA §3360-I, first ¶, as amended by PL 2023, c. 316, §1 and c. 412, Pt. GG, §1, is further amended to read:

As part of the sentence or fine imposed, the court shall impose an assessment of $70 on any person convicted of murder, a Class A crime, a Class B crime or a Class C crime and $40 on any person convicted of a Class D crime or a Class E crime, except that the court shall impose an assessment of $2,000 on any person convicted of aggravated sex trafficking as described in Title 17-A, section 852, an assessment of $1,000 on any person convicted of sex trafficking as described in Title 17-A, section 853, an assessment of $1,000 on any person for the first conviction and $2,000 for each subsequent conviction of engaging a person for prostitution as described in Title 17-A, section 853-B and an assessment of $1,000 on any person for the first conviction and $2,000 for each subsequent conviction of commercial sexual exploitation of a minor or commercial sexual exploitation of a person with a mental disability as described in Title 17-A, section 855. Notwithstanding any ~~other~~ provision of law to the contrary, the court may not waive the imposition of the assessment required by this section. For purposes of collection and collection procedures, this assessment is considered part of the fine. At the time of commitment, the court shall inform the Department of Corrections or the county sheriff of any unpaid balances on assessments owed by the offender to the Victims' Compensation Fund. All funds collected as a result of these assessments or transferred in accordance with Title 34-A, section 1214-C, subsection 5 accrue to the Victims' Compensation Fund.

Sec. 2. 34-A MRSA §1214-C is enacted to read:

§1214-C. Victims' Reparative Account

R O F S

1        The Victims' Reparative Account, referred to in this section as "the account," is
2        established within the department for the purpose of providing a mechanism for offenders
3        to voluntarily make reparations to the victims of their crimes.

4        1. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise indicates, the 5        following terms have the following meanings.

6        A. "Offender" has the same meaning as in Title 17-A, section 2002, subsection 5; and

7        B. "Victim" includes an authorized claimant for restitution described in Title 17-A,
8        section 2004, subsection 1 or 4.

9        2. Administration. The Victim Services Coordinator under section 1214 shall 10       administer the account. Except as otherwise provided in this section, all administrative 11       costs of the account must be absorbed by the department.

12       3. Funding. Money donated by an offender seeking to make reparations to the 13       offender's victims must be deposited into the account and designated to the victim for 14       whose benefit the offender wishes to deposit the money. Money may not be donated to the 15       account by an offender if the donation would affect the offender's ability to pay any 16       court-ordered restitution to all victims of the offender's crimes. Once deposited in the 17       account, an offender may not reclaim the money.

18       4. Use. The Victim Services Coordinator shall ensure that reasonable efforts are made 19       to locate and notify the victim for whose benefit an offender has deposited money into the 20       account. If a victim opts to claim the money deposited for that victim's benefit, a victim
21       may use the money claimed under this section for any purpose.

22       5. Final disposition. If, within 5 years of deposit from an offender, money has not 23       been claimed by the victim for whose benefit the offender has deposited the money, the 24       department may deduct an amount necessary to defray administrative costs of the account
25       and shall transfer the remaining money in the account designated for that victim to the 26       Victims' Compensation Fund established by Title 5, section 3360-H.

27       6. Confidentiality. All records of deposits or claims in the account and the use of the 28       money deposited in accordance with subsections 3 and 4 are confidential and may not be 29       disclosed except by the victim. The records may also be disclosed to employees of the 30       department as necessary for those employees in the performance of any official duty.

31       7. Participation voluntary. The deposit of money in the account by an offender is 32       voluntary. An adverse action may not be threatened or taken against an offender for not 33       depositing funds in the account. An offender may not be offered or given any incentive for 34       participating in the deposit of money in the account and the decision of an offender whether 35       to deposit funds into the account may not be used as either a mitigating or aggravating
36       factor in any decision made by the department. An offender may not disclose the offender's
37       donation of money to the account for any purpose, including to influence a clemency
38       petition. If an offender violates this subsection, the chief administrative officer of the 39       correctional facility shall prohibit the offender from donating to the account.

40       Sec. 3. Appropriations and allocations. The following appropriations and 41       allocations are made.
