11

Amend the bill by striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting the following:

12

13

'Sec. 1. 34-A MRSA §3036-A, sub-§10-A is enacted to read:

14

10-A. Prisoner committed crime prior to attaining 26 years of age. With the consent of the prisoner, the commissioner may transfer a prisoner committed to the department from a correctional facility to supervised community confinement without meeting the eligibility requirements of subsection 2, paragraphs B, C and D if:

15

17

18

A. The prisoner has served at least 2/3 or 20 years of the term of imprisonment imposed, whichever occurs first;

19

20

B. The crime or crimes for which the prisoner is serving the term of imprisonment were committed before the prisoner attained 26 years of age; and

21

22

C. The prisoner has continuously maintained a custody classification level of minimum for the 5 years preceding the prisoner's consideration for transfer to the supervised community confinement program, or the prisoner would otherwise be classified as a minimum custody prisoner if not for the sole reason that the prisoner is not within 5 years of the prisoner's release date at the time of the prisoner's consideration for transfer to the supervised community confinement program.

10

SUMMARY

11 This amendment, which is the majority report of the committee, replaces the bill. The 12 amendment establishes an exception to the standard eligibility criteria of the Department
13 of Corrections' supervised community confinement program by allowing a prisoner to be 14 eligible for transfer to the program if the prisoner has served either 2/3 or 20 years of the 15 prisoner's term of imprisonment, whichever occurs first; the crime or crimes for which the 16 prisoner is serving the term of imprisonment were committed before the prisoner attained
17 26 years of age; and the prisoner maintained a minimum custody classification for the 5
18 years preceding the prisoner's consideration for the supervised community confinement
19 program, or the prisoner would otherwise be classified as a minimum custody prisoner if 20 not for the sole reason that the prisoner is not within 5 years of the prisoner's release date.
