1 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

2 Sec. 1. 21-A MRSA §391, sub-§1, as corrected by RR 2019, c. 2, Pt. B, §50, is 3 amended to read:

4 1. Interim appointment. Within a reasonable time after the vacancy occurs, the 5 Governor shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy until that person's successor
6 is elected and qualified. If the person who vacated the office was enrolled in a political 7 party at the time of that person's last election to that office, the qualified person appointed 8 to fill the vacancy must have been enrolled in that party at the time of the most recent 9 election and at the time the office was vacated and must be enrolled in that party at the time 10 the qualified person is appointed. If the person who vacated the office was not enrolled in 11 a political party at the time of that person's last election to that office, the qualified person 12 appointed to fill the vacancy may not have been enrolled in a political party at the time of 13 the most recent election and at the time the office was vacated and may not be enrolled in 14 a political party at the time the qualified person is appointed.

15 SUMMARY

16 This bill provides that if there is a vacancy in the office of United States Senator and 17 the person who vacated the office was enrolled in a political party at the time of that 18 person's last election to that office, the qualified person appointed to fill the vacancy must 19 have been enrolled in that party at the time of the most recent election and at the time the 20 office was vacated and must be enrolled in that party at the time the qualified person is 21 appointed. If the person who vacated the office was not enrolled in a political party at the 22 time of that person's last election to that office, the qualified person appointed to fill the 23 vacancy may not have been enrolled in a political party at the time of the most recent 24 election and at the time the office was vacated and may not be enrolled in a political party 25 at the time the qualified person is appointed.
