Presented by Senator CURRY of Waldo.

1           Sec. 1. Office of the Attorney General online landlord registry. Resolved:
2           That the Office of the Attorney General shall develop and promote an optional online
3           landlord registry for landlords renting rooms within their primary residences. The registry
4           must include information informing landlords of their rights and obligations as landlords.

5   SUMMARY

6           This resolve directs the Office of the Attorney General to develop and promote an
7           optional online landlord registry for landlords renting rooms within their primary
8           residences. It stipulates that the registry must include information informing landlords of 9           their rights and obligations as landlords.
