35 the value of which is computed at a rate of at least the State's minimum wage.

36 B. A person may not be required to work under this subsection for a nonprofit
37 organization if that work would violate a basic religious belief of that person.

42 not in need of emergency assistance may be required to satisfactorily fulfill a workfare

1 requirement prior to receiving the nonemergency assistance conditionally granted to
2 that applicant.

3 E. Expenses related to work performed under this subsection by an eligible person
4 must be considered in determining the amount of net general assistance to be provided
5 to the person.

6 F. General assistance provided by a municipality for work performed by an eligible
7 person under this subsection must be:

- 8 (1) Included in the reimbursable net general assistance costs; and
- 9 (2) Itemized separately in reports to the Department of Health and Human Services 10 under section 4311.

11 G. A person may not be required to work under this subsection if that person is 12 physically or mentally incapable of performing the work assigned.
