18 manifestly unfounded, excessive or repetitive nature of the request.

21 comply with a request to initiate an action pursuant to this section and shall provide 22 notice to the consumer that the controller is unable to authenticate the request to 23 exercise the right until the consumer provides additional information reasonably 24 necessary to authenticate the consumer and the consumer's request to exercise the right.

26 than the consumer is in compliance with a consumer's request to delete that data 27 pursuant to subsection 1, paragraph C by:

31 to the provisions of this chapter; or

38 the 60th day after receipt of an appeal, a controller shall inform the consumer in writing of 39 action taken or not taken in response to the appeal, including a written explanation of the 40 reasons for the decisions. If the appeal is denied, the controller shall also provide the

The consumer may designate an authorized agent by way of, among other methods, technology, including, but not limited to, an Internet link or a browser setting, browser extension or global device setting, indicating the consumer's intent to opt out of such processing. A controller shall comply with an opt-out request received from an authorized agent if the controller is able to verify, using commercially reasonable efforts, the identity of the consumer and the authorized agent's authority to act on the consumer's behalf.

8 consumer.

9 4. Loyalty and rewards programs. Subsection 3 may not be construed to require a 10 controller to provide a product or service that requires the personal data of a consumer that 11 the controller does not collect or maintain or prohibit a controller from offering a different 12 rate, level, quality or selection of goods or services to a consumer, including offering goods 13 or services for no fee, if the offering is in connection with a consumer's voluntary 14 participation in a bona fide loyalty, rewards, premium features, discounts or club card 15 program.

16 5. Privacy notice. A controller shall provide consumers with an accessible, clear and 17 meaningful privacy notice in plain language that is understandable by a reasonable 18 consumer that includes:

19 A. The categories of personal data processed by the controller;

20 B. The purpose for processing personal data;

21 C. How consumers may exercise their consumer rights, including how a consumer 22 may appeal a controller's decision with regard to the consumer's request;

23 D. The categories of personal data that the controller shares with 3rd parties, if any;

24 E. The categories of 3rd parties, if any, with which the controller shares personal data; 25 and

26 F. An active e-mail address or other mechanism that the consumer may use to contact 27 the controller.

28 6. Consumer rights request mechanism. A controller shall establish, and shall 29 describe in a privacy notice, one or more secure and reliable means for consumers to submit 30 a request to exercise a consumer right pursuant to this chapter. The design of the secure 31 and reliable means must take into account the ways in which consumers normally interact 32 with the controller, the need for secure and reliable communication of requests and the 33 ability of the controller to verify the identity of the consumer making the request. A 34 controller may not require a consumer to create a new account in order to exercise a 35 consumer right, but may require a consumer to use an existing account.

36 7. Notice of sale and targeted advertising; opt-out mechanism. If a controller sells 37 personal data to a 3rd party or processes personal data for targeted advertising, the 38 controller shall clearly and conspicuously disclose such processing, as well as the manner 39 in which a consumer may exercise the right to opt out of such processing. The disclosure 40 required under this section must include:

41 A. A clear and conspicuous link titled "Do Not Sell My Personal Data" or bearing a 42 substantially similar title on the controller's publicly accessible website that directs the consumer, or an agent of the consumer, to a publicly accessible website that enables the consumer, or an agent of the consumer, to opt out of the sale of the consumer's personal data; and

B. A clear and conspicuous link titled "Opt Me Out of Targeted Advertising" or bearing a substantially similar title on the controller's publicly accessible website that directs the consumer, or an agent of the consumer, to a publicly accessible website that enables the consumer, or an agent of the consumer, to opt out of processing of the consumer's personal data for targeted advertising.

In lieu of providing the 2 links described in paragraphs A and B, a controller may satisfy the requirements of this subsection by providing a single conspicuous and clearly labeled link on the controller's publicly accessible website that allows a consumer, or an agent of the consumer, both to opt out of the sale of the consumer's personal data and to opt out of the processing of the consumer's personal data for targeted advertising. If the controller maintains a specific section or page of its publicly accessible website that allows a consumer, or an agent of the consumer, to opt out of the sale of the consumer's data or the processing of the consumer's data for targeted advertising and to select additional privacy controls, the controller may satisfy the requirements of this subsection by providing a single conspicuous and clearly labeled link on the controller's publicly accessible website titled "Your Privacy Choices" or bearing a substantially similar title that directs the consumer, or an agent of the consumer, to that specific section or page of its publicly accessible website.

8. Universal opt-out mechanism. No later than December 1, 2027, a controller shall allow a consumer to opt out of any processing of the consumer's personal data for the purposes of targeted advertising or any sale of personal data through an opt-out preference signal sent, with the consumer's consent, by a platform, technology or mechanism to the controller indicating the consumer's intent to opt out of any such processing or sale. The platform, technology or mechanism:

A. Must be consumer-friendly and easy to use by the average consumer;

B. May not unfairly disadvantage another controller;

C. May not make use of a default setting but must require the consumer to make an affirmative, freely given and unambiguous choice to opt out of any such processing or sale of the consumer's personal data;

D. Must be as consistent as possible with another similar platform, technology or mechanism required by federal or state law; and

E. Must enable the controller to reasonably determine whether the consumer is a resident of this State and whether the consumer has made a legitimate request to opt out of the sale of the consumer's personal data or targeted advertising.

A controller that recognizes an opt-out preference signal that has been approved by the laws or regulations of another state is in compliance with this subsection.

§9607. Responsibilities of processors and controllers

1. Processor responsibilities. A processor shall adhere to the instructions of a controller and shall assist the controller in meeting the controller's obligations under this chapter. Assistance provided under this section must include:

1       A. Taking into account the nature of processing and the information available to the 2       processor, by appropriate technical and organizational measures, so far as is reasonably 3       practicable, to fulfill the controller's obligation to respond to a consumer rights request;

4       B. Taking into account the nature of processing and the information available to the 5       processor, by assisting the controller in meeting the controller's obligations in relation 6       to the security of processing the personal data and in relation to the notification of a 7       breach of security, as required by chapter 210-B, of the system of the processor, in 8       order to meet the controller's obligations; and 9       C. Providing necessary information to enable the controller to conduct and document 10       data protection assessments.

11       2. Contractual requirements. A contract between a controller and a processor must 12       govern the processor's data processing procedures with respect to processing performed on 13       behalf of the controller. The contract must clearly set forth instructions for processing data, 14       the nature and purpose of processing, the type of data subject to processing, the duration of 15       processing and the rights and obligations of both parties. The contract must require that 16       the processor:

17       A. Ensure that each person processing personal data is subject to a duty of 18       confidentiality with respect to the data;

19       B. At the controller's direction, delete or return all personal data to the controller as 20       requested at the end of the provision of services, unless retention of the personal data 21       is required by law;

22       C. On the reasonable request of the controller, make available to the controller all 23       information in the processor's possession necessary to demonstrate the processor's 24       compliance with the obligations in this chapter;

25       D. Allow and cooperate with reasonable assessments by the controller or the 26       controller's designated assessor or arrange for a qualified and independent assessor to 27       conduct an assessment of the processor's policies and technical and organizational 28       measures in support of the obligations in this chapter, using an appropriate and 29       accepted control standard or framework and assessment procedure for the assessment.
30       The processor shall provide a report of the assessment to the controller upon request; 31       and

32       E. Engage a subcontractor pursuant to a written contract that requires the subcontractor 33       to meet the obligations of the processor with respect to the personal data.

34       3. Processing relationship liability. This section may not be construed to relieve a 35       controller or processor from the liabilities imposed on the controller or processor by virtue 36       of the controller's or processor's role in the processing relationship as described in this 37       chapter.

38       4. Fact-based determination. Determining whether a person is acting as a controller 39       or processor with respect to a specific processing of data is a fact-based determination that 40       depends upon the context in which personal data is to be processed. A person who is not 41       limited in the person's processing of personal data pursuant to a controller's instructions, or 42       who fails to adhere to the instructions, is a controller and not a processor with respect to a 43       specific processing of data. A processor that continues to adhere to a controller's 44       instructions with respect to a specific processing of personal data remains a processor. If

1 a processor begins, alone or jointly with other persons, determining the purposes and means 2 of the processing of personal data, the processor acts as a controller with respect to the 3 processing and may be subject to an enforcement action under section 9611.

4 §9608. Data protection assessments

5 1. Documentation. A controller shall conduct and document a data protection 6 assessment for each of the controller's processing activities that presents a heightened risk 7 of harm to a consumer. For the purposes of this section, "processing activity that presents 8 a heightened risk of harm to a consumer" includes:

9 A. The processing of personal data for the purposes of targeted advertising;

10 B. The sale of personal data;

11 C. The processing of personal data for the purposes of profiling, when profiling 12 presents a reasonably foreseeable risk of:

13 (1) Unfair or deceptive treatment of, or unlawful disparate impact on, consumers;

14 (2) Financial, physical or reputational injury to consumers;

15 (3) A physical or other intrusion upon the solitude or seclusion, or the private 16 affairs or concerns, of consumers, when the intrusion would be offensive to a 17 reasonable person; or

18 (4) Other substantial injury to consumers; and 19 D. The processing of sensitive data.

20 2. Required elements. Data protection assessments conducted pursuant to subsection 21 1 must identify and weigh the benefits that may flow, directly and indirectly, from the 22 processing to the controller, the consumer, other stakeholders and the public against the 23 potential risks to the rights of the consumer associated with the processing, as mitigated by 24 safeguards that can be employed by the controller to reduce the risks. The controller shall 25 factor into the data protection assessment the use of de-identified data and the reasonable 26 expectations of consumers, as well as the context of the processing and the relationship 27 between the controller and the consumer whose personal data will be processed.

28 3. Attorney General disclosure; exemption from public records. The Attorney 29 General may require that a controller disclose a data protection assessment that is relevant 30 to an investigation conducted by the Attorney General, and the controller shall make the 31 data protection assessment available to the Attorney General. The Attorney General may 32 evaluate the data protection assessment for compliance with the responsibilities set forth in 33 this chapter. A data protection assessment is confidential and exempt from disclosure under 34 Title 1, chapter 13. To the extent information contained in a data protection assessment 35 disclosed to the Attorney General includes information subject to attorney-client privilege 36 or work product protection, the disclosure does not constitute a waiver of that privilege or 37 protection.

38 4. Processing activity. A single data protection assessment may address a comparable 39 set of processing operations that include similar activities.

40 5. Reciprocity. If a controller conducts a data protection assessment for the purpose 41 of complying with another applicable law or regulation, the data protection assessment 42 satisfies the requirements established in this section if the data protection assessment is 1 reasonably similar in scope and effect to the data protection assessment that would 2 otherwise be conducted pursuant to this section.

3 6. Application. A controller is not required to conduct a data protection assessment 4 under this section for any processing activity created or initiated before July 1, 2026.

5 §9609. De-identified and pseudonymous data

6 1. De-identified data requirements. A controller in possession of de-identified data 7 shall:

8 A. Take reasonable measures to ensure that the data cannot be associated with an 9 individual;

10 B. Publicly commit to maintaining and using de-identified data without attempting to 11 re-identify the data; and 12 C. Contractually obligate recipients of the de-identified data to comply with all 13 provisions of this chapter.

14 2. De-identified data and pseudonymous re-identification of data. This chapter 15 may not be construed to require a controller or processor to:

16 A. Re-identify de-identified data or pseudonymous data; or 17 B. Maintain data in identifiable form, or collect, obtain, retain or access data or 18 technology, in order to be capable of associating an authenticated consumer request 19 with personal data.

20 3. Consumer requests. This chapter may not be construed to require a controller or 21 processor to comply with an authenticated consumer rights request if the controller:

22 A. Is not reasonably capable of associating the request with the personal data, or it 23 would be unreasonably burdensome for the controller to associate the request with the 24 personal data;

25 B. Does not use the personal data to recognize or respond to the consumer who is the 26 subject of the personal data, or associate the personal data with other personal data 27 about the same consumer; and 28 C. Does not sell the personal data to a 3rd party or otherwise voluntarily disclose the 29 personal data to a 3rd party other than a processor, except as otherwise permitted in 30 this section.

31 4. Pseudonymous data requirements. The rights afforded under section 9604, 32 subsection 1 do not apply to pseudonymous data in cases when the controller is able to 33 demonstrate that information necessary to identify the consumer is kept separately and is 34 subject to effective technical and organizational controls that prevent the controller from 35 accessing the information.

36 5. Contractual oversight. A controller that discloses pseudonymous data or de-37 identified data shall exercise reasonable oversight to monitor compliance with contractual 38 commitments to which the pseudonymous data or de-identified data is subject and shall 39 take appropriate steps to address breaches of those contractual commitments.

40 §9610. Controller and processor; duties and obligations

ROS

1 1. Exempt controller and processor activities. This chapter may not be construed 2 to restrict a controller's or processor's ability to:

3 A. Comply with federal laws or regulations or the laws or rules of a state;

4 B. Comply with a civil, criminal or regulatory inquiry, investigation, subpoena or 5 summons by federal or state governmental authorities or governmental authorities of a 6 federally recognized Indian tribe in this State;

7 C. Cooperate with federal, tribal or state law enforcement agencies concerning conduct 8 or activity that the controller or processor reasonably and in good faith believes may 9 violate federal laws or regulations or the laws and rules of a state;

10 D. Investigate, establish, exercise, prepare for or defend legal claims;

11 E. Provide a product or service specifically requested by a consumer;

12 F. Perform under a contract to which a consumer is a party, including fulfilling the 13 terms of a written warranty;

14 G. Take steps at the request of a consumer prior to entering into a contract;

15 H. Take immediate steps to protect an interest that is essential for the life or physical 16 safety of the consumer or another individual and when the processing cannot be 17 manifestly based on another legal basis;

18 I. Prevent, detect, protect against or respond to security incidents, identity theft, fraud, 19 harassment, malicious or deceptive activities or illegal activity or preserve the integrity 20 or security of systems or investigate, report or prosecute those responsible for an action 21 described in this paragraph;

22 J. Engage in public or peer-reviewed scientific or statistical research in the public 23 interest that adheres to all other applicable ethics and privacy laws and is approved, 24 monitored and governed by an institutional review board that determines, or similar 25 independent oversight entities that determine;

26 (1) Whether the deletion of the information is likely to provide substantial benefits 27 that do not exclusively accrue to the controller;

28 (2) Whether the expected benefits of the research outweigh the privacy risks; and 29 (3) Whether the controller has implemented reasonable safeguards to mitigate 30 privacy risks associated with research, including risks associated with 31 re-identification;

32 K. Assist another controller, processor or 3rd party with obligations under this chapter; 33 or

34 L. Process personal data for reasons of public interest in the area of public health, but 35 solely to the extent that the processing is;

36 (1) Subject to suitable and specific measures to safeguard the rights of the 37 consumer whose personal data is being processed; and

38 (2) Under the responsibility of a professional subject to confidentiality obligations 39 under federal or state laws or local ordinances.

1       2. Internal use. The obligations imposed on controllers or processors under this 2 chapter do not restrict a controller's or processor's ability to collect, use or retain data for 3 internal use to:

4       A. Conduct internal research to develop, improve or repair products, services or 5 technology;

6       B. Effectuate a product recall;

7       C. Identify and repair technical errors that impair existing or intended functionality; 8 or

9       D. Perform internal operations that are reasonably aligned with the expectations of the 10 consumer or reasonably anticipated based on the consumer's existing relationship with 11 the controller, or are otherwise compatible with processing data in furtherance of the 12 provision of a product or service specifically requested by a consumer or the 13 performance of a contract to which the consumer is a party.

14       3. Evidentiary privilege. The obligations imposed on controllers or processors under 15 this chapter do not apply when compliance with this chapter by the controller or processor 16 would violate an evidentiary privilege under the laws of this State. This chapter may not 17 be construed to prevent a controller or processor from providing personal data concerning 18 a consumer to a person covered by an evidentiary privilege under the laws of this State as 19 part of a privileged communication.

20       4. Liability. A controller or processor that discloses personal data to a 3rd-party 21 processor or 3rd-party controller in accordance with this chapter has not violated this 22 chapter if the 3rd-party processor or 3rd-party controller that receives and processes the 23 personal data violates this chapter, as long as, at the time the disclosing controller or 24 processor disclosed the personal data, the disclosing controller or processor did not have 25 actual knowledge that the receiving 3rd-party processor or 3rd-party controller would 26 violate this chapter. A 3rd-party controller or 3rd-party processor receiving personal data 27 from a controller or processor in compliance with this chapter is likewise not in violation 28 of this chapter for the transgressions of the controller or processor from which the 3rd-party 29 controller or 3rd-party processor receives the personal data.

30       5. Exemptions. This chapter may not be construed to:

31       A. Impose an obligation on a controller or processor that adversely affects the rights 32 or freedoms of a person, including, but not limited to, the rights of a person:

33               (1) To freedom of speech or freedom of the press guaranteed in the United States 34 Constitution, Amendment I; or

35               (2) Under Title 16, section 61; or 36       B. Apply to a person's processing of personal data in the course of the person's purely 37 personal or household activities.

38       6. Limitations. Personal data processed by a controller or processor pursuant to this 39 section may be processed only to the extent that the processing is:

40       A. Reasonably necessary and proportionate to the purposes listed in this section; and 41       B. Adequate, relevant and limited to what is reasonably necessary in relation to the 42 specific purposes listed in this section. Personal data collected, used or retained

1 pursuant to subsection 2 must, when applicable, take into account the nature and 2 purpose of the collection, use or retention. The data must be subject to reasonable 3 administrative, technical and physical measures to protect the confidentiality, integrity 4 and accessibility of the personal data and to reduce reasonably foreseeable risks of 5 harm to consumers relating to the collection, use or retention of personal data.

6 7. Controller burden. If a controller processes personal data pursuant to an 7 exemption in this section, the controller bears the burden of demonstrating that the 8 processing qualifies for the exemption and complies with the limitations in subsection 6.

9 8. Clarification of roles. Processing personal data for the purposes expressly 10 identified in this section does not solely make a legal entity a controller with respect to the 11 processing.

12 §9611. Enforcement

13 1. Violation as unfair trade practice; exclusive Attorney General enforcement. A 14 violation of this chapter constitutes an unfair trade practice under the Maine Unfair Trade 15 Practices Act, except that the rulemaking provisions of Title 5, section 207, subsection 2 16 do not apply to this chapter and except as provided in subsections 2 and 3. The Attorney 17 General has the exclusive authority to enforce violations of this chapter under the Maine 18 Unfair Trade Practices Act.

19 2. Notice. Notwithstanding any provision of Title 5, section 209 to the contrary, at 20 least 30 days prior to commencement of any action under the Maine Unfair Trade Practices 21 Act to enforce this chapter, the Attorney General shall notify the person against whom an 22 action may be brought of the intended action and give the person an opportunity to cure the 23 alleged violation or violations. The Attorney General may bring an action pursuant to this 24 section only if the controller fails to cure one or more of the alleged violations described in 25 the notice within 30 days of receiving the notice.

26 3. No private right of action. Notwithstanding Title 5, section 213, this chapter may 27 not be construed as creating a private right of action under this chapter or any other 28 provision of law against any person based on a violation of any provision of this chapter or 29 any other law.

30 4. Preemption. This chapter supersedes and preempts any ordinance, resolution, rule 31 or other regulation adopted by a political subdivision of the State regarding the processing 32 of personal data by a controller or processor.

33 §9612. Maine Privacy Fund established

34 1. Establishment; purpose. The Maine Privacy Fund, referred to in this section as 35 the "fund," is established within the Department of the Attorney General as a nonlapsing 36 fund to providing funding for the staff and activities of the department necessary to enforce 37 the provisions of this chapter.

38 2. Administration. The Department of the Attorney General shall administer the 39 fund. The fund must be established and held separate and apart from any other funds or 40 money of the State or the department and must be used and administered exclusively for 41 purposes authorized in this section. The fund consists of:

42 A. Any civil penalties, attorney's fees or costs awarded to the State in an action brought 43 by the Attorney General to enforce a violation of this chapter;

B. Sums that may be appropriated by the Legislature to the fund or transferred by the Treasurer of State to the fund;

C. Interest earned on fund balances; and

D. Other funds received from any public or private source, including grants, gifts, bequests and donations.'

Amend the bill by striking out all of section 3 and inserting the following:

'Sec. 3. Report. By February 1, 2027, the Attorney General shall submit a report to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over judiciary matters regarding the operation and implementation of the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 10, chapter 1057. The report must include, at a minimum, the following information:

1. The number of notices the Attorney General has issued under Title 10, section 9611, subsection 2 and the nature of the violations alleged in the notices;

2. The number of persons sent a notice described in subsection 1 that conferred with the Attorney General during the notice period described in Title 10, section 9611, subsection 2 in a manner that alleviated the need for a civil action under the Maine Unfair Trade Practices Act;

3. The number of civil actions brought by the Attorney General under the Maine Unfair Trade Practices Act to enforce violations of Title 10, chapter 1057; and

4. Any recommendations the Attorney General has for improving the operation of Title 10, chapter 1057.

The joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over judiciary matters may report out legislation related to the report to the 133rd Legislature in 2027.

12 number to read consecutively.

SUMMARY

14

This amendment, which is a minority report of the committee, replaces the bill.

15

16 The amendment enacts the Maine Consumer Data Privacy Act, which takes effect July 17 1, 2026. The Act regulates the collection, use, processing, disclosure, sale and deletion of 18 nonpublicly available personal data that is linked or reasonably linkable to an individual 19 who is a resident of the State, referred to in the Act as a "consumer," or that is linked or 20 reasonably linkable to an identifiable consumer's device, by a person that conducts business 21 in this State or that produces products or services targeted to residents of this State, referred 22 to in the Act as a "controller." Under the Act, a controller must limit the collection of 23 personal data to what is adequate, relevant and reasonably necessary in relation to the 24 purposes for which the controller processes that data, as disclosed in a privacy notice 25 specifying the categories of personal data processed by the controller, the purposes for 26 processing the personal data, the categories of personal data transferred to 3rd parties and 27 the categories of 3rd parties to whom personal data is shared. The controller must also 28 process the minimum amount of personal data reasonably necessary, adequate or relevant for each disclosed processing purpose.

29

30 A consumer has the right, under the Act, to confirm whether a controller is processing 31 the consumer's personal data; to require the controller to correct inaccuracies in or delete 32 the consumer's personal data; to obtain a copy of the consumer's personal data; and to opt 33 out of the processing of the consumer's personal data for purposes of targeted advertising, 34 sale or profiling in furtherance of decisions about the consumer's access to financial or 35 lending services, housing, insurance, education, criminal justice, employment 36 opportunities, health care services and essential goods and services. The privacy notice 37 must describe how a consumer may exercise these rights. The controller must obtain the 38 affirmative, informed consent of a consumer before processing the consumer's sensitive 39 data, including data revealing the consumer's race or ethnic origins, religious beliefs, 40 medical history or mental or physical health conditions or diagnoses, sexual orientation or 41 citizenship or immigration status; genetic or biometric data; precise geolocation data; data 42 of a known child who has not attained 13 years of age; social security, driver's license or 43 nondriver identification card number; information that permits access to a consumer's 44 financial account; or data concerning the consumer's status as the victim of a crime. If the controller knows that the consumer has not attained 13 years of age, the controller may not

1 process the consumer's data for any purpose without parental consent. If the controller 2 knows or willfully disregards that the consumer is at least 13 years of age but has not 3 attained 16 years of age, the controller may not process the consumer's data for targeted 4 advertising and must obtain the consumer's consent before processing the consumer's data 5 for sale.

6 The Act prohibits a controller from processing data in a manner that discriminates 7 against a person in violation of state or federal law. A controller is also prohibited from 8 retaliating against a consumer for exercising the consumer's rights under the Act, except 9 that a controller may offer different prices or selection of goods in connection with a 10 consumer's voluntary participation in a bona fide loyalty or discount program. A controller 11 must establish, implement and maintain reasonable data security practices. Beginning July 12 1, 2026, if a controller engages in a data processing activity that presents a heightened risk
