SUMMARY

This amendment removes the requirement for the Wabanaki studies specialist to make recommendations on the funding of Wabanaki studies instruction. The amendment removes from the bill statutory language that requires the Department of Education to fund the work of the specialist and contracted advisors, as well as for the implementation of a teacher education program. The amendment authorizes the State Board of Education to adopt rules to require a Wabanaki studies component for teacher certification and requires the board to evaluate whether to adopt such rules no later than July 1, 2026. The amendment requires that the department begin study of the Wabanaki studies curricula at least biannually beginning July 1, 2026. The amendment also adds an appropriations and
