SUMMARY

This amendment adds to the emergency preamble language that, at the same city referendum held November 5, 2024 for the bond ordinances described in the bill, the voters of the city ratified and approved a charter amendment regarding the disposition of certain city-owned property and language that the charter amendment was approved by the voters of the city as follows: 11,807 in favor and 2,370 against, with 801 blank ballots. The

- 1 amendment also strikes from the emergency preamble reference to the initial delivery to
- 2 the city by the Secretary of State's office of an incorrect form of notice of election. The
- 3 amendment also amends the language describing the validation and authorization of the
- 4 referendum to include the charter amendment question and clarifies the City of South
- 5 Portland's charter is amended to reflect the approved changes as set forth in the charter
- 6 amendment question.
