Sixty-Second Legislature.

HOUSE.

No. 117.

STATE OF MAINE.

RESOLVE in favor of Presque Isle Academy.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the State is
2 hereby authorized and directed to pay the trustees
3 of Presque Isle Academy the sum of one hundred
4 and sixty-two dollars and fifty cents for the use
5 and benefit of said academy, being interest due
6 said academy from March 22, 1883, to February
7 16, 1884, under resolves of March 22, 1864, and
8 February 20, 1883.

STATEMENT OF FACT.

By resolve of March 22, 1864, there was appropriated for the use and benefit of Presque Isle Academy the sum of three thousand dollars, to be deposited in the treasury of the State, and the annual interest to be paid annually to the Trustees of said Academy.

Under this resolve the interest on said three thousand dollars was paid to the Trustees of said Academy up to March 22d, 1883.

By resolve of February 20th, 1883, the Treasurer of the State was directed to pay to the Treasurer of said Academy said sum of three thousand dollars, when it should appear to the satisfaction of the Governor and Council, by the certificate of said Treasurer, that a sum not less than eight thousand dollars had been expended on school buildings in the town of Presque Isle.

It was further provided by said last named resolve, that the annual interest required to be paid by said resolve of March 22d, 1864, should not be paid after the payment of said three thousand dollars.

Said three thousand dollars was paid February 16th, 1884.

The sum appropriated, $162.50, is the interest on said three thousand from the time up to which interest was paid, viz: March 22d, 1883, to the time of the payment of said three thousand dollars, viz: February 16th, 1884.
