SEVENTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE

SENATE

NO. 36 A

STATE OF MAINE

Statement of Facts accompanying Resolve in favor of Owners of Township No. 8, Range 4, N. B. P. P.

Township No. 8, Range 4, N. B. P. P., was owned in 1909, by E. & I. K. Stetson and C. P. Webber of Bangor, in the County of Penobscot. On Nov. 18th of that year E. & I. K. Stetson paid to the State of Maine the sum of $30.42, as three-fourths of a State and County tax on three public lots supposed to be connected with this Township, and on the same date C. P. Webber paid $10.14 as one-fourth of a State and County tax. Since that time C. P. Webber has died and the present owner is Charles J. Webber of Bangor. These payments were made at the request of the Treasurer's office without looking into the matter, as the notice was received a very short time before the payments were due. It afterwards developed that there were no public lots in Township 8, Range, and therefore this amount was paid through a mistake, and the owners now come and ask to be reimbursed.
