AN ACT in relation to the collecting and preserving of plans.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. The county commissioners of the several coun-
2 ties shall at the expense of their respective counties procure 3 such plans of the townships in their counties as may be in 4 existence and if the original plans are not in existence or 5 cannot be had at a reasonable price, they shall procure copies
6 of the most authentic plans known to exist.

All such copies shall be on the best quality of linen paper
8 backed with cloth.

Sect. 2. Suitable filing cases shall be provided in each 2 registry of deeds for the reception and preservation of such

3 plans and a suitable index shall be made of all such plans 4 on file.

Sect. 3. Said commissioners may at their discretion pro-
2 cure such plans—other than township plans—of properties
3 within their counties, either originals or copies, as they deem 4 for the interest of their counties to have preserved on the 5 files of the registry of deeds.

This section shall not be construed to allow of the purchase
7 of any plan which the proprietor of any estate is required
8 by law to file with the register of deeds.
