STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE

AN ACT Pertaining to the Jurisdiction of the Municipal Court of the City of Westbrook.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section two of chapter two hundred and four of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-three in relation to the jurisdiction of the municipal court of the city of Westbrook, as amended by section one of chapter one hundred and nineteen of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and three, and further amended by section one of chapter one hundred and eighty-five of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, is hereby amended by adding the words 'or the recorder' after the word "judge" in line seven, so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sect. 2. Said court shall have exclusive, original jurisdiction of all offenses against the ordinances and by-laws of said city, and of the local board of health therein, and of such criminal offenses and misdemeanors committed therein, as are cognizable by trial justices; and of all civil actions wherein the debt or damage demanded does not exceed fifty dollars, and both parties reside in said city, except when the judge or the recorder of said court is interested in any such action as party or attorney; and original jurisdiction concurrent with the superior court of the county of Cumberland in all civil actions wherein the debt or damages do not exceed two hundred dollars, exclusive of costs, in which any party to the action or person summoned as trustee shall reside, or, if not an inhabitant of the state, shall be commorant or have a place of business, in said city.'
