STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-NINE

AN ACT Regulating the Taking of Shad in the Nonesuch
River in Scarboro.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. No person shall fish for, take, catch or kill
2 any shad in the waters of the Nonesuch river in the town
3 of Scarboro, county of Cumberland, in that part of said
4 river which is north of the bridge on the Saco road so
5 called, at any time.

Sect. 2. No person shall fish for, take, catch or kill any 2 shad in the waters of said Nonesuch river below and to the 3 south of said bridge on said Saco road except by the ordi-

4 nary mode of angling with single baited hook and line or 5 artificial flies, except that it shall be lawful for any per-6 son to take not exceeding five shad in any one day from 7 said part of said river by means of bag nets so called, the 8 circumference of the bow of which shall not exceed nine-9 teen feet. The use of gill nets, or bag nets, the bow of 10 which shall exceed nineteen feet in circumference in any 11 part of said river is expressly prohibited.

Sect. 3. Any person violating the provisions of this act
2 shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty 3 dollars for each offense.

Sect. 4. The provisions of this act shall in no wise effect
2 the weekly close time upon shad as defined in section
3 seventy-three of chapter forty-five of the revised statutes.
