STATEMENT OF FACTS

Rosie E. Clark is the daughter of Henry W. Shaw, who served in Company C, 13th Maine Infantry, also as a veteran volunteer, during the Civil War. He enlisted October 25, 1861, and became a veteran volunteer February 1, 1864; he died on February 8, 1923.

Rosie E. Clark is 61 years of age. She has no income and no property, except a half interest in a small place, valued at $1500, on which there is a claim of $700. She derives no income from this property. She is an invalid and has to get around on crutches, and is unable to do any work. She must become a town charge unless relief is given in the form of aid from the state on the ground that she is the daughter of a Civil war veteran.
