STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE

AN ACT to Amend Chapter 75 of the Private and Special Laws of 1927 Relating to Retirement, Pension and Annuity to Dependents of Members of the Police and Fire Departments of the City of Portland.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Amend Section 2 of Chapter 75 of the Private and Special Laws of 1927, by striking out after the word "retirement" in the third line thereof, the words "upon pension not exceeding half pay" and inserting in place thereof the words 'upon pension of not less than half pay for permanent men and of not less than one-quarter of the pay of the lowest paid permanent men for call men', so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sect. 2. Retirement pension for fire department provided for; conditions. The city of Portland is authorized to provide, by ordinance, for retirement upon pension of not less than half pay for permanent men and of not less than one-quarter of the pay of the lowest paid permanent men for call men, of all members of the fire department, including chief of the fire department, captains, lieutenants and firemen who have been honorably discharged from the fire department by reason of:

First: Having served in said department not less than twenty-five consecutive years; or

Second: Having served in the fire department not less than fifteen years and having reached the age of sixty years; or Third. Having been permanently disabled in the performance of duty.'
