STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE
HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE

AN ACT to Provide for An Open Season on Moose in Knox
County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section sixty of chapter thirty-eight of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words: 'There shall be an open season on moose in Knox county for four days in each of the years nineteen hundred and thirty-one and nineteen hundred and thirty-two commencing on the Monday of the last full week in November of each of said years' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sect. 60. No person shall hunt or have in his possession any caribou or moose or parts thereof.

'Provided, however, that the commissioner of inland fisheries and game upon application of any person who has legally killed a caribou or moose beyond the limits of this state may issue a license permitting the importation of such caribou or moose for consumption or mounting, but not for sale.

'There shall be an open season on moose in Knox county for four days in each of the years nineteen hundred and thirty-one and nineteen hundred and thirty-two commencing on the Monday of the last full week in November of each of said years.'
