No. 348

H. P. 115 House of Representatives, Feb. 5, 1931.

Reported by Mr. Burkett from Committee on Judiciary and laid on table to be printed under joint rules.

CLYDE R. CHAPMAN, Clerk.

Presented by Mr. Burkett of Union.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE

AN ACT relative to the North Knox Agriculture and Horticultural Society.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section two of chapter two hundred ten of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred sixty-nine is hereby amended by striking out all of said section after the word "amount" in the third line thereof and substituting in the place thereof, the following:

'Of fifty thousand dollars for the purposes of said Society', so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sect. 2. Said Society is hereby established within the towns of Warren, Hope, Appleton, Washington and Union, and may take and hold property, real and personal, to the amount of fifty thousand dollars for the purposes of said Society.'

Said chapter is further amended by adding thereto the following sections:

'Sect. 7. All acts and doings of the said Society are hereby validated and confirmed and the present members of said Society are hereby declared to have been duly elected. Vacancies in the membership of the Society may be filled by the remaining members by the election of citizens from the several towns named in section two hereof, and no member shall be elected from any other towns.'

Sect. 8. The Society may receive exhibits from any town or plantation within the state on such terms and conditions as the Society may determine.

Sect. 9. Special meetings of the Society for the purpose of amending its by-laws or for any other lawful purposes may be held on the call of the President. The Secretary shall cause to be published a notice thereof specifying the purposes for which such meeting is to be held in a newspaper published in Knox County at least thirty days before the date of said meeting.'
