AN ACT Relating to the Forty-eight Hour Law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Forty-eight hour law. Chapter fifty-four of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after section forty of said section a new section to be numbered forty A, and to read as follows:

'Sect. 40A. Forty-eight hour limit in industrial establishments. No person shall be employed in any industrial or manufacturing establishment, in the state of Maine, more than forty-eight hours in any one week.'
