STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
THIRTY-SEVEN

AN ACT to Incorporate the "Calais Safety Deposit Company".

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Calais Safety Deposit Company, incorporated. Reed V. Jewett, Ben Y. Curran, Arthur Unobskey, Clarence Beckett, Willis R. Dresser, George B. Bates, Henry C. English, and Kenneth Thomas, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby made a body corporate by the name of Calais Safety Deposit Company, hereinafter in this act called "the company", for the purpose of renting safety deposit boxes, and owning and dealing in real estate. Such corporation shall have all the powers and privileges of corporations organized under the general law.

Sec. 2. Powers. The company, its successors, and assigns are hereby authorized and empowered to rent safes in burglar proof and fire-proof vaults any provisions to the contrary of chapter 56 of the revised statutes notwithstanding.

Sec. 3. First meeting. The 1st meeting of the company shall be called by a written notice therefor signed by any one of the within named incorporators, setting forth the time, place and purpose of the meeting, and such notice shall be mailed to each of the other incorporators, postage paid, at least 7 days before the day of such meeting.

Sec. 4. Fixing amount of capital stock. Said company is authorized and empowered to fix the amount of its capital stock, and the classes thereof and to increase the same from time to time, in accordance with the general laws of the state.
