STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-ONE

AN ACT Regulating the Sale of Liquor Near National Homes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1937, c. 199, amended. Chapter 199 of the public laws of 1937 is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sale of intoxicating liquor within 1½ miles of national home. Whoever sells or gives away any ale, beer, wine, cider, or other intoxicating liquors at any place within \approx 1½ miles outside of the boundary line of the lands occupied by any home, retreat or asylum for disabled volunteer soldiers, or soldiers and sailors, which has been or may hereafter be established by the government of the United States, upon conviction shall pay a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100, and in addition thereto shall be imprisoned for a term of 30 days; and on conviction of the owner or keeper thereof the place wherein such intoxicating liquors shall have been sold or given away shall be, by order of the court wherein such conviction is made, within 10 days thereafter, closed and abated as a nuisance. And it is hereby made the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the county in which any such institution is or may be located to prosecute all offenders against the provisions of this act.'
