STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-THREE

AN ACT Establishing the Tomhegan Game Sanctuary.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, § 90, amended. Section 90 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by adding after "Thorncrag-Stanton Bird Sanctuary" the following game sanctuary:

'Tomhegan Game Sanctuary: The following described territory in Township 1, Range 2, N. B. K. P., commonly known as Tomhegan Town, in the county of Somerset, described as follows: Beginning at a cedar post and stones, the post being marked PRESERVE C_{V} 1931, standing on the line which is the division line between the land owned by the Great Northern Paper Company and that owned by the trust estate of F. W. Rollins, standing on the westerly shore of Socatean bay in Moosehead lake; thence westerly on said division line one (1) mile and one hundred sixty (160) rods to a cedar post and stones, the post being marked PRESERVE C_{V} 1931; thence southerly at right angle to said division line two hundred fifty (250) rods to a cedar post and stones, the post being marked PRESERVE C_{V} 1931 and standing on the northerly shore of Tomhegan bay in Moosehead lake; thence easterly and northerly along the shore of Moosehead lake around Socatean point, so-called, to the point of beginning and containing seven hundred (700) acres, more or less. Under the provisions of the said chapter 158, resolves of 1929, fishing and camping are to be allowed in the above mentioned territory, under the provisions of the general law, but all hunting or trapping in said territory shall be illegal.'
