Commission.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 57, § 6, sub-§ XIX, additional. Section 6 of chapter 57 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended by adding at the end thereof a new subsection to be numbered XIX, to read as follows:

'XIX. If any person is aggrieved by the decision of the state liquor commission in revoking or suspending a license or by the refusal of the state liquor commission to issue a license, he may within 10 days thereafter appeal to any justice of the superior court, by presenting to him a petition therefor, in term time or vacation. Such justice shall fix a time and place for hearing, which may be in vacation, and cause notice thereof to be given to the chairman of the state liquor commission; and after hearing such justice may affirm or reverse the decision of the state liquor commission and the decision of such justice shall be final. Pending judgment of the court, the decision of the state liquor commission in revoking or suspending any license shall remain in full force and effect.'
