Presented by Senator Barnes of Aroostook.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-NINE

AN ACT to Correct Errors and Inconsistencies in the 1944 Revision and the Session Laws of 1945 and 1947.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 5, § 64, repealed and replaced. Section 64 of chapter 5 of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter 83 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 64. Voting. Persons having legal residence in unorganized territory may upon presentation to the proper officials of an adjacent town of satisfactory evidence of such legal residence and of the legal qualifications of a voter, vote therein in all county, state, and national elections, if such town is in the same county; if not so situated, then only in state and national elections.

In the case of unorganized units located in remote sections of the state, the secretary of state shall, upon written request of an elector, designate the town wherein such elector may vote and shall notify the proper town officials thereof.

An elector who shall become a resident of any unorganized territory, or who shall remove from one unorganized unit to another, shall have the privilege of voting in the town where previously registered for 3 months after such change of residence and thereafter as a resident of the unorganized territory under the same conditions as hereinbefore provided.

An elector in unorganized territory, who is unable to present himself because of distance or other good and sufficient reason in the adjacent town where registered as a voter, may vote by absentee ballot.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 5, § 122, repealed. Section 122 of chapter 5 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. R. S., c. 6, § 6, amended. The 1st 2 sentences of section 6 of chapter 6 of the revised statutes are hereby amended to read as follows: 'When an application for an official absent voting ballot or physical incapacity voting ballot is received by the clerk of a city ~~or town~~, he shall forthwith transmit it to the officials charged by law with the registration and enrolment of voters in such city ~~or town~~, who shall examine it; and, if they believe the signature thereon to be genuine and the statements therein made by the applicant to be true, they shall execute the certificate thereon and return it to the clerk. They shall keep a record in a book provided for that purpose of all voters whose applications for official voting ballots are certified to the city ~~or town~~ clerk together with the date of the execution of the certificate on the application.'

Sec. 4. R. S., c. 14, § 98, amended. Section 98 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 98. Treasurer to issue warrants for taxes. The treasurer of state shall issue warrants or executions against delinquent towns, assessors, constables and collectors to enforce the collection and payment of state taxes in cases prescribed in ~~sections 94 to 96, inclusive, and in~~ chapter 81.'

Sec. 5. R. S., c. 14, §§ 101-A, 101-B, additional. Chapter 14 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto 2 new sections to be numbered 101-A and 101-B, to read as follows:

'Sec. 101-A. Poll-taxes in unorganized territory. It shall be the duty of the state tax assessor through agents as hereinafter provided to procure annually, on or as of April 1, a sworn return enumerating all persons, male or female, 21 years of age and upwards, who are residents of the various unorganized units, government reservations excepted, of the unorganized territory as defined in section 142 of chapter 37, and he shall give a certificate of residence to all such residents as shall make written application therefor upon the form provided therefor by him. The enumeration shall designate persons therein as qualified voters, aliens, and others.

He shall have the authority for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section to appoint agents for the whole or any portion of the unorganized territory and they shall perform such duties, including the collection of the poll-tax as hereinafter provided, as he may authorize or delegate in each particular appointment. They shall have the same powers and may exercise the same methods in the collection of the poll-tax aforesaid as collectors of taxes in towns are authorized to exercise and use for the collection of personal and poll-taxes committed to them. He may require, in his discretion, the filing of surety bonds by his agents in such penal sums as he may deem necessary.

Poll-taxes shall be assessed annually, on or as of April 1, on all residents in unorganized territory who are required by law to pay a poll-tax, and the tax shall be paid to the state tax assessor or to his duly authorized agent, who shall give a receipt in proper form therefor. Poll-taxes paid to any such agent shall be remitted by such agent to the state tax assessor. The state tax assessor shall have authority to abate such tax in any case where conditions warrant such action, and in such case the person whose tax is abated shall not forfeit any right or privilege to which payment thereof would entitle him.

The poll-taxes assessed and collected by the state tax assessor from electors in unorganized territory who register in a town as voters shall be paid by him to such town for any year in which such electors actually vote therein, provided the state tax assessor receives from the officials thereof a certification of such registration and act of voting by June 1st of the following year, and such payment shall be considered as an assessment on such electors by such town officials. The remainder of the poll-taxes collected, if any, shall be paid to the treasurer of state.

Sec. 101-B. Penalty for failure to remit poll-tax collections. Any agent of the state tax assessor who shall fail to remit poll-taxes collected, to the said assessor within 3 months after collection, upon request therefor by the said assessor, shall be guilty of embezzlement and shall be punished accordingly.

Sec. 6. R. S., c. 14, § 103, amended. The 1st 2 sentences of section 103 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 42 of the public laws of 1945, are hereby amended to read as follows:

~~On or before the 1st day of August, 1945, the~~ The secretary of state shall certify to the state tax assessor the corporate name, the name of the treasurer and the amount of authorized capital stock of each of such corporations

~~Thereafter he~~ and shall thus certify to the state tax assessor whenever a new corporation has been organized and whenever a change has occurred in the corporate name or the name of the treasurer or the amount of authorized capital stock of a corporation already organized.'

Sec. 7. R. S., c. 14, § 117, amended. The last sentence of section 117 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 9 of chapter 42 of the public laws of 1945, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 8. R. S., c. 14, § 126, amended. Section' 126 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 126. Tax to be in lieu of all taxes. The excise tax collected under the provisions of the ~~6~~ 7 preceding sections shall be in lieu of all taxes upon any corporation therein designated, upon its shares of capital stock, and its property; provided, however, that the land and buildings thereon owned by such corporation, association, or person shall be taxed in the municipality in which the same are situated. The assessment of taxes on such land and buildings shall be legal, whether assessed as resident or non-resident property.'

Sec. 9. R. S., c. 14, § 160, repealed and replaced. Section 160 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter 247 and by section 1 of chapter 349 and by section 1 of chapter 379, all of the public laws of 1947, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 160. Tax levied; rebates. An excise tax is levied and imposed at the rate of 6c per gallon upon internal combustion engine fuel sold or used within this state, including such sales when made to the state or any political subdivision thereof, for any purpose whatsoever, excepting, however, such internal combustion engine fuel sold or used in such form and under such circumstances as shall preclude the collection of this tax by reason of the provisions of the laws of the United States, or sold wholly for exportation from the state, or brought into the state in the ordinary standardized equipment fuel tank attached to and forming a part of a motor vehicle and used in the operation of such vehicle within the state; provided, however, that on the same fuel only 1 tax shall be paid to the state, for which tax the distributor first receiving the fuel in the state shall be primarily liable to the state, except when such fuel has been sold and delivered to another distributor in the state, in which case the purchasing distributor shall be primarily liable to the state for the tax; and provided further, that 5c of the tax so paid, and no more, upon such internal combustion fuel used in motor boats, in tractors used for agricultural purposes not operating on public ways, or in such vehicles as run only on rails or tracks, or in stationary engines, or in the mechanical or industrial arts, shall be refunded as hereinafter provided; and provided further, that 8 mills of the tax so paid on fuel used in motor boats, which is not refunded under the provisions of section 166, shall be paid to the treasurer of state, to be made available to the commissioner of sea and shore fisheries for the purpose of conducting research, development and propagation activities by the department.

It is the responsibility of said commissioner to select activities and projects that will be most beneficial to the commercial fisheries of the state.'

Sec. 10. R. S., c. 14, § 163, repealed and replaced. Section 163 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 2 of chapter 31 of the public laws of 1945; and by section 3 of chapter 349 and by section 2 of chapter 379, both of the public laws of 1947, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 163. Rules and regulations; reports; assessment of tax. Every distributor shall on or before the last day of each month render a report to the state tax assessor stating the number of gallons of internal combustion engine fuel received, sold and used in the state by him during the preceding calendar month, on forms to be furnished by the state tax assessor. Such report shall contain such further information pertinent thereto as the state tax assessor shall prescribe, and the state tax assessor may make such other reasonable rules and regulations regarding the administration and enforcement of the provisions of the gasoline tax act as he may deem necessary or expedient, copies of which shall be sent to distributors, and he or his duly authorized agent shall have access during reasonable business hours to the books, invoices and vouchers of the distributor which may show the fuel handled by the distributor. At the time of the filing of said report each distributor shall pay to the state tax assessor a tax of 6c upon each gallon so reported as sold, distributed or used, and the state tax assessor shall pay over all receipts from such tax to the treasurer of state daily. And if such report is not filed by the last day of the month such distributor shall be liable to a penalty of $5 a day for each day in arrears, due on demand by the state tax assessor and recoverable in an action of debt. Each distributor shall, within 15 days after demand made on him by the state tax assessor, pay a tax of 6c per gallon upon each gallon of such fuel upon which the tax has not been paid, which upon an audit the state tax assessor may find to have been received into the state during the preceding year by the distributor and not properly accounted for in a distributor's report or in accordance with law. An allowance of not more than 1% from the amount of fuel received by the distributor, plus 1% on all transfers in vessels or tank cars by a distributor in the regular course of his business from one of his places of business to another within the state, may be allowed by the tax assessor to cover the loss through shrinkage, evaporation or handling sustained by the distributor; but the total allowance for such losses shall not exceed 2% of the receipts by such distributor and no further deduction shall be allowed unless the state tax assessor is satisfied on definite proof submitted to him that a further deduction should be allowed by him for a loss sustained through fire, accident or some unavoidable calamity.'

Sec. 11. R. S., c. 14, § 166, repealed and replaced. Section 166 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 3 of chapter 31 of the public laws of 1945; and by section 1 of chapter 101 and by section 4 of chapter 349, both of the public laws of 1947, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 166. Provision for refund of 5/6 of tax collected in certain instances; procedure for obtaining refund; time limit for filing application for refund. Any person, association of persons, firm or corporation who shall buy and use any internal combustion engine fuel as defined in sections 159 to 168, inclusive, for the purpose of operating or propelling motor boats, tractors used for agricultural purposes not operating on public ways, or in such vehicles as run only on rails or tracks, or in stationary engines, or in the mechanical or industrial arts, or for any other commercial use except in motor vehicles operated or intended to be operated upon any of the public highways of this state, or turnpikes operated and maintained by the Maine Turnpike Authority, or except, as provided in section 166-A, for the use in the operation of aircraft, and who shall have paid any tax on internal combustion engine fuel levied or directed to be paid as provided by sections 159 to 168, inclusive, either directly by the collection of such tax by the vendor from such consumer, or indirectly by adding the amount of such tax to the price of such fuel and paid by such consumer, shall be reimbursed and repaid to the extent of 5/6 of the amount of such tax paid by him upon presenting to the state tax assessor a statement accompanied by the original invoices showing such purchases, which statement shall show the total amount of such fuel so purchased and used by such consumer other than in motor vehicles operated or intended to be operated upon any of the public highways of the state and in the operation of aircraft.

Provided that applications for refunds as provided herein must be filed with the state tax assessor within 9 months from the date of purchase.'

Sec. 12. R. S., c. 14, § 172, repealed and replaced. Section 172 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 2 of chapter 101 and by section 5 of chapter 349, both of the public laws of 1947, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 172. Levy of tax and exemptions. An excise tax is imposed on all users of fuel upon the use of such fuel by any person within this state, only when such fuel is used in an internal combustion engine for the generation of power to propel motor vehicles of any kind or character on the public highways or turnpikes operated and maintained by the Maine Turnpike Authority, at the rate of 6c per gallon, to be computed in the manner set forth in sections 173 to 185, inclusive; provided, however, that no tax is imposed upon the use of any fuel if the constitution of the United States or of this state precludes such tax.'

Sec. 13. R. S., c. 14, §§ 244-255, reallocated. Sections 244 to 255, inclusive, of chapter 14 of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 362 of the public laws of 1947, are hereby reallocated to be sections 185-A to 185-L, inclusive, of said chapter 14.

Sec. 14. R. S., c. 14, § 256, repealed. Section 256 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 362 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 15. R. S., c. 15, § 14, amended. Section 14 of chapter 15 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 1 of chapter 87 of the public laws of 1945, is hereby further amended by striking out the last sentence of the 1st paragraph thereof.

Sec. 16. R. S., c. 16, § 3, sub-§ V, amended. Subsection V of section 3 of chapter 16 of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter 337 and by section 13 of chapter 378, both of the public laws of 1945, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'V. To perform a post-audit of all accounts and other financial records of the state normal schools and teachers' colleges, the Maine Port Authority and the Maine Forestry District ~~and the Maine Teachers' Retirement System~~. The Maine Port Authority and the Maine Forestry District ~~and the Maine Teachers' Retirement System~~ shall pay the expenses of their respective audits;'

Sec. 17. R. S., c. 16, § 5, amended. Section 5 of chapter 16 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 5. No ex officio duties. The state auditor shall not serve in an ex officio capacity on any administrative board or commission ~~except the farm~~

~~lands loan commission~~ or have any financial interest in the transactions of any department, institution or agency of the state government. He shall not be responsible for the collection of any money belonging to the state, or for the handling or custody of any state funds.'

Sec. 18. R. S., c. 17, § 1, amended. Section 1 of chapter 17 of the revised statutes; as amended by chapter 368 of the public laws of 1945, is hereby further amended by adding after the 3rd paragraph thereof a new paragraph, to read as follows:

'For approval of the agreement under the provisions of section 80 of chapter 49, $20.'

Sec. 19. R. S., c. 19, § 1, repealed and replaced. Section 1 of chapter 19 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 1. Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise indicates, the following words shall have the following meanings:

"Curb" shall mean the outer edge of a defined sidewalk or either edge of the wrought or usually travelled part of a way;

"Farm tractor" shall mean any motor vehicle designed and used primarily as a farm implement for drawing plows, mowing machines and other implements of husbandry;

"Motor-cycle" shall mean all motor operated vehicles of the bicycle or tricycle type, whether the motive power be a part thereof, or attached thereto, and having pedals and saddle with driver sitting astride or a platform on which said driver stands;

"Motor truck" shall mean any motor vehicle designed or used for the conveyance of property;

"Motor vehicle" shall mean any self-propelled vehicle not operated exclusively on tracks, including motor-cycles;

"Owner" shall mean any person, firm, corporation or association owning a vehicle or the mortgagor or the vendee in a conditional sales contract;

"Pneumatic tire" shall mean every tire in which confined air is designed to support the load;

"Road tractor" shall mean any motor vehicle designed and used for drawing other vehicles and not so constructed as to carry any load thereon either independently or any part of the weight of a vehicle or load so drawn;

"Section" shall refer to this chapter unless otherwise indicated;

"Semi-trailer" shall mean any vehicle without motive power designed for carrying persons or property and for being drawn by a motor vehicle and so designed that some part of its weight and of its load rests upon or is carried by such motor vehicle, and shall include pole dollies, pole dickeys, so called, and wheels commonly used as a support for the ends of logs or other long articles;

"Solid tires" shall include tires of rubber or other material that do not depend on confined air for the support of the load;

"Team" shall include all kinds of conveyances on ways for persons and for property, except those propelled or drawn by human power or used exclusively on tracks;

"Tractor" shall include any motor truck designed or used for the sole purpose of hauling or partially carrying trailers or semi-trailers;

"Trailer" shall mean any vehicle without motive power, designed for carrying persons or property and for being drawn by a motor vehicle, not operated on tracks, and so constructed that no part of its weight rests upon the towing vehicle;

"Truck tractor" shall mean any motor vehicle designed and used primarily for drawing other vehicles and not so constructed as to carry a load other than a part of the weight of the vehicle and the load so drawn (trucks used as truck tractors shall be rated as truck tractors);

"Way" shall include all kinds of public ways;

"Vehicle" shall include all kinds of conveyances on ways for persons and for property, except those propelled or drawn by human power or used exclusively on tracks.

The words in the context indicating operation or use of a vehicle refer to its operation or use upon any way or bridge in this state, including public parks or parkways.'

Sec. 20. R. S., c. 19, § 13, amended. The last sentence of the 1st paragraph of section 13 of chapter 19 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'The application shall be signed by the owner and shall contain such particulars as may be required by the secretary of state, including the name, residence and address of the owner, with a brief description of the vehicle, the name of its maker, the motor and serial numbers, the amount of motive power, stated in figures of horse-power, and the actual gross weight of the vehicle ~~and its load capacity~~ if intended for commercial use.

Sec. 21. R. S., c. 19, § 15, sub-§ VI, amended. The 5th paragraph of subsection VI of section 15 of chapter 19 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 2 of chapter 348 and by section 2 of chapter 352, both of the public laws of 1947, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'In computation of fees for a combination of truck tractor and semi-trailer, the vehicle to be registered for gross weight shall be the truck tractor which shall take the same rating as a truck of similar weight.'

Sec. 22. R. S., c. 19, § 27, amended. The 1st paragraph of section 27 of chapter 19 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 6 of chapter 352 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'No person shall operate, or cause to be operated, any truck, tractor, trailer or combination of truck tractor and semi-trailer, with a load that is more than 10% above that specified in the registration certificate for such vehicle for trucks of gross weight of not over 15,000 pounds and 5% for trucks of gross weight of over 15,000 pounds; provided, however, that no motor vehicle of either a single unit or combined unit shall be operated on the highway with a load that exceeds 50,000 pounds, gross weight of vehicle and load.'

Sec. 23. R. S., c. 19 § 34-A, amended. The 1st sentence of section 34-A of chapter 19 of the revised statutes, as enacted by chapter 335 of the public laws of 1945, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'All trucks, graders and other vehicles, while being used for the express purpose of plowing snow or sanding on public ways, ~~on or after January 1, 1946~~ unless the 6-inch diameter lights hereinafter described are not available in the markets of this state, shall be equipped with 2 auxiliary lights to be mounted on the highest practical point on the vehicle, one showing to the front and one to the rear of the vehicle.'

Sec. 24. R. S., c. 19, § 85, repealed and replaced. Section 85 of chapter 19 of the revised statutes, as repealed and replaced by section 4 of chapter 348 and amended by chapter 378, both of the public laws of 1947, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 85. Height and width of motor vehicles and trailers limited. No motor vehicle or trailer which with or without load is wider than 96 inches over all shall be operated upon any way or bridge; except that motor vehicles or trailers hauling firewood, pulpwood, logs or bolts may be operated on any way or bridge if the width of the load does not exceed 102 inches; provided, however, that a strip 3 inches thick shall extend along the sides of the platform securely fastened to the platform of the vehicle or trailer in order that the load shall pitch to the center of said vehicle or trailer; and provided further, that each vehicle or trailer shall carry a solid-boarded tailboard or 5 stakes evenly spaced of sufficient strength to maintain the weight of the load, and such load at no place along its length shall be higher than the tailboard or stakes. No motor vehicle or trailer any structural part of which, permanent or temporary, is more than 12 feet 6 inches in height measured vertically from a plane and level surface of ground or pavement shall be operated upon any way or bridge; provided, however, that the load on any motor vehicle or trailer may extend 1 foot 6 inches above the maximum permissible structural height of such motor vehicle or trailer. No such motor vehicle or trailer shall be operated over any section of way which does not afford adequate structural overhead clearance. No portion of any such vehicle or load, except the reflecting mirror required by this chapter, shall project beyond the side of such vehicle to make a total width greater than herein specified. Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to snow plows and equipment used exclusively for the removal of snow or to construction equipment the uses of which are confined to the limits of highway and bridge construction projects; and provided also, that the provisions of this section shall not be construed as limiting the width of a load of loose hay, pea vines or cornstalks.'

Sec. 25. R. S., c. 19, § 92, amended. Section 92 of chapter 19 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 92. Log-haulers and traction engines to obtain permits. Log-haulers, traction engines or other motive power to be used in drawing heavily loaded sledges, carts, drays or vans may be operated upon ways; provided the owners or operators thereof shall apply for and obtain a permit as provided in the § 4 preceding sections and shall deposit a bond as provided in said sections.'

Sec. 26. R. S., c. 19, § 121, amended. The last paragraph of section 121 of chapter 19 of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter 232 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'No person whose license or right to operate a motor vehicle has been revoked upon conviction of violating the provisions of this section shall be licensed again or permitted to operate a motor vehicle for 3 years, except that, after the expiration of 2 years from the date of such revocation, he may petition the secretary of state for a license or permit, who, after hearing and after his determination that public safety will not be endangered by issuing a new license, may issue such license or permit, with or without conditions thereto attached; upon a 2nd conviction of a violation of the provisions of this section, such person shall not be licensed again or permitted to operate a motor vehicle in this state for 5 years from the date of revocation, provided, however, that after 3 years from the date of such last revocation, he may petition the secretary of state for a license or permit and the secretary of state, after like hearing and determination, again may issue a license or permit to the petitioner, with or without conditions; upon any subsequent conviction for a similar offense, the license or permit shall terminate and no subsequent license or permit shall be granted to such person; except that a person who has had 3 convictions under the provisions of ~~the foregoing~~ this section may petition the secretary of state for a special license, who, after being satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the said petitioner has refrained from all use of intoxicating liquor for a period of 6 years next preceding the day of hearing on the said petition, may issue a special permit or license conditioned upon continued non-use of intoxicating liquor; for the purpose of this section, in case a person has been convicted one or more times prior to the 13th day of July, 1929, of a violation of the provisions of this section, such previous conviction or convictions shall be construed as 1 conviction.'

Sec. 27. R. S., c. 20, § 23-A, reallocated. Section 23-A of chapter 20 of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 329 of the public laws of 1945, is hereby reallocated to be section 8-C of said chapter 20.

Sec. 28. R. S., c. 20, § 42, amended. Section 42 of chapter 20 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 42. Special resolve appropriations regulated. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 40, ~~41~~ 42-A to 42-F, inclusive, 54, ~~55~~ 56 and 57, all special road and bridge appropriations shall be expended in accordance with the terms of the resolve appropriating the funds therefor.'

Sec. 29. R. S., c. 20, § 46, amended. The last paragraph of section 46 of chapter 20 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'The maintenance provisions of sections 43, ~~44~~ 45, 46, 58, 59, 61 and 66 shall not apply to those sections of state highway where houses are nearer than 200 feet apart for a distance of $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile in cities or towns whose population according to the last U. S. census exceeds 5,000 inhabitants, except as hereinafter provided for maintenance of secondary federal aid projects, and the snow removal provisions shall not apply to those sections of state highway where houses are nearer than 200 feet apart for a distance of $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile in cities or towns whose population according to the last U. S. census exceeds 2,000 inhabitants.'

Sec. 30. R. S., c. 20, § 70, amended. Section 70 of chapter 20 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 2 of chapter 293 of the public laws of 1945, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 70. Expense borne by the state. The expense of the erection and maintenance of each warning sign mentioned in sections 68 and 69 shall be borne by the state and paid out of any highway funds not otherwise appropriated.'

Sec. 31. R. S., c. 20, § 113, amended. The last sentence of section 113 of chapter 20 of the revised statutes, as repealed and replaced by chapter 325 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'All fees for such permits shall be payable annually in advance ~~such fees to become effective January 1, 1948 and thereafter.~~

Sec. 32. R. S., c. 21, § 24, amended. The 1st sentence of section 24 of chapter 21 of the revised statutes, as enacted by chapter 397 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'The "Airport Construction Fund," as heretofore established, shall be used to aid in the construction, extension and improvement of state or municipal airports within the state.'

Sec. 33. R. S., c. 22, § 121-A, reallocated. Section 121-A of chapter 22 of the revised statutes, as enacted by chapter 305 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby reallocated to be section 122-A.

Sec. 34. R. S., c. 22, § 204, amended. Section 204 of chapter 22 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 204. Penalty. Any person, firm or corporation that violates any ~~provision~~ of the ~~preceding~~ provisions of sections 198 to 204, inclusive, or regulation made thereunder, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100.

All fines, forfeitures and costs collected under the provisions of sections 198 to 204, inclusive, shall be paid to the county.'

Sec. 35. R. S., c. 22, § 229-A, amended. The last sentence of section 229-A of chapter 22 of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 370 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby amended to read as follows:

‘The commissioner shall make careful inquiry into the resources of the members of such households and their ability to work or otherwise contribute to the support of such child, and the existence of relatives able to assist in supporting such child; shall take all lawful means to compel all persons liable under the provisions of section 271 ~~thereof~~ hereof to support such child and to enforce any other legal rights for the benefit of such child; shall press all members of the household who are able to work, other than such parent or relative and such child, to secure work; and shall secure all possible aid for such parent or relative and such child which can be secured from relatives or other individuals.’

Sec. 36. R. S., c. 22, § 236, amended. Section 236 of chapter 22 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

‘Sec. 236. Compensation of probation officers for services. County probation and associate probation officers performing any of the duties specified in the ~~++ 12~~ following sections shall be allowed, by their respective counties, their actual expenses and such compensation as their respective boards of county commissioners may from time to time determine.’

Sec. 37. R. S., c. 22, § 237, amended. The last sentence of section 237 of chapter 22 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

‘All fines imposed for the punishment of offenses under any of the provisions of the ~~++ 11~~ following sections shall be paid over to the county treasurer of the county in which the offense may have been committed.’

Sec. 38. R. S., c. 22, § 247, amended. Section 247 of chapter 22 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

‘Sec. 247. Penalty for failure to perform duty. Whoever violates any provision of section 241, or wilfully fails, neglects or refuses to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by the provisions of the ~~++ 12~~ preceding sections shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500, or by imprisonment for not more than 6 months.’

Sec. 39. R. S., c. 22, §§ 300-A, 300-B, repealed. Sections 300-A and 300-B of chapter 22 of the revised statutes, as enacted by sections 1 and 2 of chapter 359 of the public laws of 1947, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 40. R. S., c. 22, § 337, amended. The last 3 sentences of section

337 of chapter 22 of the revised statutes are hereby amended to read as follows:

'Whenever it shall be shown that any of the children of the Penobscot ~~or of the Passamaquoddy tribes~~ tribe of Indians shall have completed the course of study for elementary schools as prescribed or shall have passed the examination prepared by the commissioner of education for entrance into high school, such children shall be granted entrance to any high school in this state, to which said children may apply under the same conditions as pupils residing in towns that do not maintain a free high school, as provided in section 98 of chapter 37, except that such tuition for such pupils shall be paid by the department from ~~Indians~~ Indian funds. Said tuition shall be based on the average cost per pupil for the year preceding that for which the tuition is paid; ~~provided, however, that the average cost per pupil shall be determined by dividing the sum of expenditures for instruction, fuel, and janitor service, textbooks and supplies, and ordinary minor repairs, by the average daily attendance of all regularly enrolled students~~ and the tuition rates shall be determined by the formula prescribed in section 99 of chapter 37 for secondary schools. Tuition likewise for the children of the Penobscot ~~and Passamaquoddy tribes~~ tribe of Indians who attend the elementary schools of any ~~town or city or town~~ in this state shall be paid to said city or town by the department in similar manner and based on the average cost per pupil in the year preceding that for which tuition is paid; ~~provided, however, that the average cost per pupil shall be determined by dividing the sum of expenditures for instruction, fuel, and janitor service, textbooks and supplies, and ordinary minor repairs, by the average daily attendance of all regularly enrolled students~~ and the tuition rates shall be determined by the formula prescribed in section 99 of chapter 37 for secondary schools.'

Sections ~~308 to 316, 318 to 320, 322 to 354, and 356 to 365~~ 307 to 364, inclusive, apply to house lots on the point of Old Town island, as well as to land allotted for agricultural purposes.'

Sec. 42. R. S., c. 22, § 349, amended. Section 349 of chapter 22 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 349. Copies of deeds are evidence. Copies of deeds or certificates recorded as provided in sections ~~308 to 316, 318 to 320, 322 to 354, and 356 to 365~~ 307 to 364, inclusive, duly attested by the register of deeds or by the agent of said tribe, shall be evidence in all actions or controversies relating to title to lands between members of said tribe.'

Sec. 43. R. S., c. 22, § 364, amended. The last sentence of section 364 of chapter 22 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Said tuition shall be based on the average instructional cost per pupil for the year preceding that for which the tuition is paid and the tuition rates shall be determined by the formula prescribed in section 99 of chapter 37 for secondary schools. Tuition likewise for the children of the Passamaquoddy tribe of Indians who attend the elementary schools of any city or town in this state shall be paid to said city or town by the department in similar manner and based on the average cost per pupil in the year preceding that for which tuition is paid and the tuition rates shall be determined by the formula prescribed in section 99 of chapter 37 for secondary schools.'

Sec. 44. R. S., c. 22-A, § 1, amended. The 1st paragraph of section 1 of chapter 22-A of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 386 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'The division of veterans' affairs, as heretofore established and hereinafter in this chapter called the "division", ~~as established by council order number 240, dated September 6, 1945 under authority of sections 5 and 6 of the public laws of 1941 (Civilian Defense Act) is hereby continued.~~ The division shall be under the control and supervision of the director of veterans' affairs, hereinafter in this chapter called the "director."

Sec. 45. R. S., c. 22-A, § 11-A, additional. Chapter 22-A of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 386 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 11-A, to read as follows:

'Sec. 11-A. Eligibility for assistance under other laws. Any applicant for, or recipient of assistance under the provisions of sections 10 to 18, inclusive, who is found eligible to receive public assistance under any state law for which federal funds are available, shall receive assistance under one of the state laws for which federal funds are available, provided, that aid may be granted under the provisions of sections 10 to 18, inclusive, until payments can be made under one of the state laws for which federal funds are available.'

Sec. 46. R. S., c. 23, § 75, amended. The 1st 2 sentences of section 75 of chapter 23 of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter 211 of the public laws of 1947, are hereby amended to read as follows:

'When a boy between the ages of 9 and 17 years is convicted before any court ~~or trial justice~~ having jurisdiction ~~of the offense~~ of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, not for life, or in the county jail or in the house of correction, such court ~~or justice~~ may order his commitment to the state school for boys or sentence him to the punishment provided by law for the same offense. If to such school, the commitment shall be conditioned that if such boy is not received or kept there for the full term of his minority, unless sooner discharged by the department as provided in section 78, or released on probation as provided in section 80, he shall then suffer the punishment provided by law, as aforesaid, as ordered by the court ~~or justice~~; but no boy shall be committed to said school who is deaf and dumb, non compos or insane.'

Sec. 47. R. S., c. 23, § 76, amended. Section 76 of chapter 23 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 76. Age, residence and day when minority expires certified in mittimus. When any boy is ordered to be committed to the state school for boys, the court ~~or trial justice~~ by whom such commitment is ordered shall certify in the mittimus the city or town in which such boy resides at the time of his commitment, the age of the boy, and the date on which his term of minority will expire. The finding of the court ~~or justice~~ regarding the age and residence of the boy shall be deemed a decision of a question of fact, and his certificate thereof shall be conclusive evidence of the age and residence of the boy and of the day on which his term of minority will expire.'

Sec. 48. R. S., c. 23, § 86, amended. Section 86 of chapter 23 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 1 of chapter 112 of the public laws of 1945, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

'to be determined as provided by the provisions of section 99 of chapter 37.'

'Sec. 28. Labor on perishable goods, exempted. Nothing in the 6 7 preceding sections shall apply to any manufacturing establishment or business, the materials and products of which are perishable and require immediate labor thereon to prevent decay thereof or damage thereto.'

Sec. 50. R. S., c. 25, § 38, amended. The 1st sentence of section 38 of chapter 25 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Every corporation, person or partnership engaged in a manufacturing, mechanical, mining, quarrying, mercantile, restaurant, hotel, summer camp, beauty parlor, street railway, telegraph or telephone business; in any of the building trades; upon public works, or in the construction or repair of street railroads, roads, bridges, sewers, gas, water or electric light works, pipes or lines; every incorporated express company or water company; and every steam railroad company or corporation shall pay weekly each employee engaged in his or its business the wages earned by him to within 8 days of the date ~~of~~ when such payment is due; but any employee, leaving his or her employment, shall be paid in full on demand at the office of the employer where pay-rolls are kept and wages are paid, and every county and city shall so pay every employee who is engaged in its business the wages or salary earned by him, unless such mechanic, workman, laborer or employee requests in writing to be paid in a different manner; and every town shall so pay each employee in its business if so required by him; but an employee who is absent from his regular place of labor at a time fixed for payment shall be paid thereafter on demand.'

Sec. 51. R. S., c. 25, § 41-A, repealed. Section 41-A of chapter 25 of the revised statutes, as enacted by chapter 395 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 52. R. S., c. 25, § 62, amended. Section 62 of chapter 25 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 4 of chapter 297 of the public laws of 1945 and by section 3 of chapter 277 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 62. Inspection charge; by whom paid; disposition of. The owner or user of a steam boiler required by the provisions of sections 51 to 65, inclusive, to be inspected by the chief inspector, or his deputy inspectors, shall pay the inspector upon inspection $10. For the internal and external inspection of a boiler while not under pressure having a grate area of more than 10 square feet or equivalent, the fee shall be $10 and, in addition, 10c for every square foot of grate area in excess of 10 square feet or equivalent. In cases of a specially designed boiler wherein no grate area exists, the board is hereby authorized to set the fee on the basis of the maximum horsepower that can be generated. For the external inspection of a boiler while under operation conditions, the fee shall be $3. For the inspection of a miniature boiler, the fee shall be $3. For a hydrostatic test of any boiler except miniature boilers, a fee of $5 shall be charged in addition to the inspection fees hereinbefore provided for, provided that not more than $20 shall be collected for such inspection of any one boiler made for any one year exclusive of the fee for hydrostatic test unless additional inspections are required by the owners or users of the same or unless the boiler has been inspected and a certificate has been refused, withheld, or withdrawn, or unless an additional inspection is required because of the change of location of a stationary boiler. The type and size of the miniature boiler to be inspected shall be determined by the board of boiler rules. ~~Provided, however, that in cases of special designed boiler where no grate area exists, the board is hereby authorized to set the fee on the basis of the maximum horsepower that can be generated.~~ The inspector shall give receipts for said fees and shall pay all sums so received to the chief boiler inspector who shall pay the same to the commissioner, who shall turn same over to the treasurer of state to be credited to the general fund.'

Sec. 53. R. S., c. 27, § 3, amended. The 1st sentence of section 3 of chapter 27 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'The commissioner shall make uniform rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of sections 3 to 8, inclusive, 34 to ~~40~~ 40, inclusive, 124 to 127, inclusive, 129, 157 to 187, inclusive, 196 to 211, inclusive, and 213 to 224, inclusive.'

Sec. 54. R. S., c. 27, § 4, amended. Section 4 of chapter 27 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 4. Hearing in case of violation. When the commissioner becomes cognizant of the violation of any provision of sections 3 to 8, inclusive, 34 to ~~40~~ 40, inclusive, 124 to 127, inclusive, 129, 157 to 187, inclusive, 196 to 211, inclusive, and 213 to 224, inclusive, he shall cause notice of such fact, stating the date, hour, and place of hearing, with a copy of the findings, or, in case of a packer of food, a copy of the charge to be preferred, to be given to the person concerned and the person from whom the sample was obtained, and the person whose name appears upon the label, (if a resident of the state), who shall be given an opportunity to be heard under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the said commissioner. When the hearing relates to the packing of apples, it shall be held in the county where the inspection was made.'

Sec. 55. R. S., c. 27, § 67, amended. Section 67 of chapter 27 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 67. County attorneys to prosecute violations. The several county attorneys shall prosecute all violations of the provisions of sections 52 to 72, inclusive, and ~~sections 122 and~~ section 123, which shall be brought to their notice or knowledge by any person making the complaint under oath; trial justices within their counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with municipal courts and the superior court in all prosecutions arising under the provisions of said sections.'

Sec. 56. R. S., c. 27, § 117, amended. The 2nd sentence of section 117 of chapter 27 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'No such permit shall be issued until the officer has satisfied himself by an examination of the shipment for which the permit is requested that the applicant has complied with all the provisions of sections ~~1, 2, 9 to 17, inclusive, 19 to 29, inclusive, 32, 33, 51, 116 to 118, 120 to 121, inclusive and 232 to 240, inclusive.~~

Sec. 57. R. S., c. 27, § 187, amended. Section 187 of chapter 27 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 187. Exemption from prosecution. No person shall be prosecuted under the provisions of ~~section 11~~ sections 124 to 127, inclusive, section 129, and sections 157 to 186, inclusive, when he can establish proof of purchase, and a guaranty signed by the person residing in the United States, from whom the purchase was made, to the effect that the article in question is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning hereof.'

Sec. 58. R. S., c. 32, §§ 49-A, 49-B, reallocated. Sections 49-A and 49-B of chapter 32 of the revised statutes, as enacted by chapter 258 of the public laws of 1947, are hereby reallocated to be sections 2-A and 2-B of chapter 35 of the revised statutes.

Sec. 59. R. S., c. 32, § 86, amended. The 1st sentence of section 86 of chapter 32 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 29 of chapter 41 of the public laws of 1945, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'Any incorporated town or organized plantation adjoining any part of the Maine forestry district may, by vote at any meeting of its inhabitants duly called and held, become a part of said forestry district and subject to all the provisions of ~~the 12 preceding~~ sections 73 to 85, inclusive.'

Sec. 60. R. S., c. 33, § 63, amended. The last sentence of the paragraph following subsection IV of section 63 of chapter 33 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended to read as follows:

‘Each agent shall be entitled to retain the sum of ~~15c~~ 25c for each license issued.’

Sec. 61. R. S., c. 33, § 123, amended. The 1st sentence of section 123 of chapter 33 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended to read as follows:

‘As soon as practicable after the adjournment of the legislature, ~~the revisor of statutes~~ director of legislative research, with the assistance of the commissioner, shall issue a revision of all the public laws relating to inland fisheries and game.’

Sec. 62. R. S., c. 34, § 8, amended. The last paragraph of section 8 of chapter 34 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence:

‘Coastal wardens appointed under the provisions of this section shall hold no other state, county or town office from which they receive compensation.’

Sec. 63. R. S., c. 34, § 9, amended. Section 9 of chapter 34 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended to read as follows:

‘Sec. 9. Sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, police officers and constables to have powers of wardens. Sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, police officers and constables, within their respective jurisdiction, are vested with the powers of coastal wardens, and shall receive for similar services the same fees as those of coastal wardens. ~~Coastal wardens appointed under the provisions of section 8 shall hold no other state, county or town office from which they receive compensation.~~’

Sec. 64. R. S., c. 34, § 17, amended. Section 17 of chapter 34 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by deleting subsection VI thereof and the last paragraph of said section 17.

Sec. 65. R. S., c. 34, § 62, amended. The next to the last sentence of section 62 of chapter 34 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended to read as follows:

‘This section shall not be construed to effect the repeal of any special privileges enjoyed by the inhabitants of certain towns by virtue of any public or private and special law in force on ~~the effective date of this~~

~~chapter August 13, 1948~~; but any town to which any such law applies may in addition have all the advantages of this section if such town shall so vote.'

Sec. 66. R. S., c. 34, § 62-A, additional. Chapter 34 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 62-A, to read as follows:

'Sec. 62-A. Digging of clams in Cranberry Isles; penalty. It shall be unlawful for any person not a resident of or riparian owner in the town of Cranberry Isles, in the county of Hancock, to dig clams within the limits of said town.

Any person residing therein or the riparian owner of any clam flats may take therefrom not exceeding 5 bushels of clams in 1 day.

Any person taking clams contrary to the provisions of this section shall be punished for each offense by a fine of not more than $25, or by imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.'

Sec. 67. P. L., 1935, c. 15, repealed. Chapter 15 of the public laws of 1935 is hereby repealed.

Sec. 68. R. S., c. 34, § 145, amended. The 1st sentence of section 145 of chapter 34 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'As soon as practicable after the adjournment of the legislature, the ~~revisor of statutes~~ director of legislative research, with the assistance of the commissioner, shall issue a revision of all the public laws relating to sea and shore fisheries.'
