SECT. 3. Be it further enacted, That David Stinson, James M^oLellan and William Randall, or either of them, be, and they hereby are, authorized to call the first meeting of said corporation, by advertisement published two weeks successively in the Maine Gazette, printed at Bath, setting forth the

First meeting.

time, place, and purposes of said meeting; at which meeting it shall be lawful for the members of said corporation, by a major vote of the persons present, to elect a Clerk, Treasurer, and any other needful officers; determine the mode of calling future meetings, and the manner of voting therein; and at the same or any future meeting, to make any by-laws for their regulation and government, not repugnant to the laws of the State.

Officers to be chosen.

Powers.

Toll established.

SECT. 4. Be it further enacted, That the said proprietors may lawfully demand and receive at said bridge, of all persons passing the same, a toll not exceeding the following rates, to wit: For each foot passenger, two cents; each person and horse, six cents; each chaise or sulkey, twelve and a half cents; each sleigh drawn by two horses, twelve and a half cents; each coach, phaeton, chariot, or curricule, twenty-five cents; each wagon, cart, sled, or other carriage of burden, drawn by one or two beasts, and for each sleigh drawn by one horse, eight cents; and for each additional yoke of cattle in the same team, two cents; each wheelbarrow, hand-cart, or other vehicle, capable of carrying a like weight, with one person, three cents; neat cattle or horses, exclusive of those rode on, or harnessed, two cents each; sheep and swine, at the rate of eight cents the dozen; and to each team one person and no more, as a driver, may pass free of toll; and all persons who shall be actually on military duty shall be permitted to pass said bridge free of toll. And at all times when the toll gatherer shall not attend his duty, the gates shall be left open: Provided, however, That after the term of twenty years, from the commencement of taking such toll, the rate of toll shall be subject to the further regulation of the State.

Draws how to be kept and opened.

SECT. 5. Be it further enacted, That said proprietors shall build and keep open, over the main channels, convenient and sufficient draws or passage-ways for vessels of ten or more tons burthen, in Merry-meeting bay and Muddy river, respectively, and shall at all times raise the draws when requested for the passage of vessels as aforesaid, and shall keep open passage-ways for rafts of at least thirty feet wide, by day and by night, through the same.

SECT. 6. Be it further enacted, That said bridge shall be well built, at least twenty-one feet wide in the clear, and of good materials, well railed, and kept in good, safe, and passable repair; and at the place where said tolls are collected, the rates of toll aforesaid, and all others which may hereafter be granted, shall be fairly and legibly painted in large or capital letters, and kept constantly exposed to the view of passengers.

Construction of the bridge.

SECT. 7. Be it further enacted, That said proprietors shall have power to erect and maintain a bridge across the inlet, called Muddy river, in Topsham, at such place as they may think will best commodate the passengers over the bridge first aforesaid.

Proprietors may erect bridge across Muddy river.

SECT. 8. Be it further enacted, That unless said bridge shall be completed within six years next ensuing, this act shall be void.

[This Act passed February 6, 1823.]
