CHAPTER CCCLIII.

AN ACT for the further protection of towns from fire.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That each town in this State be, and hereby is authorized and empowered at their annual meetings in the month of March or April, to prohibit, by a vote of the town, the burning of any bricks, or the erecting of any brick kiln, for the purpose of burning the same, within such part or parts of the town as they shall deem for the safety of its citizens and their property. And no person shall be allowed to use, occupy, or improve, by himself or others, any lot or place for the purpose of burning the same within the part or parts of the same, wherein said town, by a vote thereof, at their last annual meeting in the month of March or April, shall have prohibited the burning of bricks, or the erecting of any brick kiln for the purpose of burning the same. And if any person or persons, by himself or others, shall burn any bricks, or erect any brick kiln for the purpose of burning the same, within the part or parts of any town, wherein the burning of bricks and the erecting of brick kilns for the purpose of burning the same, shall have been prohibited as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Selectmen of such town, to cause the bricks, or the kilns so made, erected or burned, to be forthwith removed, at the expense of the owner or owners thereof. And the person or persons offending against any of the provisions of this Act, shall, moreover, forfeit and pay for each offence a sum not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred dollars, to be recovered by indictment or information in the Supreme Judicial Court or Court of Common Pleas, to the use of the town wherein the offence shall have been committed.

Towns may prohibit the burning of bricks, or the erecting of brick kilns, within certain parts thereof, &c.

In such case none to be burnt or erected.

Bricks or kilns may be removed by the Selectmen at the expense of the owner.

Penalty, and how recovered.
