RESOLVES

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1843.

---

CHAP. 170.

dred dollars, on account of damage suffered by them from detention of their timber, in the Aroostook boom, in the spring of 1839.

Said sum to be added to the account against the U. States.

Resolved, That the governor be requested to cause the amount paid Messrs. Pillsbury and Webster, under the foregoing resolve, to be added to the claim of Maine upon the United States government, under the provisions of the late treaty of Washington.

[Approved March 20, 1843.]

Chapter 170.

Resolve directing the collection of William Emerson's note.

For the collection of Wm. Emerson's note.

Resolved, That the treasurer of state be directed to collect the amount of principal and interest, due the state, from William Emerson, as per note dated February 25, 1835, which note became due A. D. 1838, by suit or by foreclosing the mortgage, given to secure the payment of said note, as he may deem for the interest of the state.

[Approved March 20, 1843.]

Chapter 171.

Resolve in favor of Rendol Whidden.

In favor of Rendol Whidden.

Time of payment on three notes of hand extended.

Proviso.

Resolved, That the time of payment of one half of the balance due the state on three several notes of hand against Rendol Whidden, be extended one year from the twentieth day of April next; and the time of payment of the other half of said balance be extended two years from the said twentieth day of April next: provided the said Whidden or his assigns quitclaims by deed all his right, title and interest in and to lot number 43, to John Collier, whenever the said Collier quitclaims by deed all his right, title and interest in and to lot number 42, to said Whidden or his assigns.

Proviso.

Provided, however, that this extension shall not affect the lien the state has upon any land or timber, as security for the payment of said notes, or the equitable interests of the Washington county bank in said land or timber.

[Approved March 20, 1843.]
