PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE,

1849.

---

Chapter 129.

CHAP. 129.

An act in relation to the sale of the timber lands appropriated for the benefit of education.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

The land agent is hereby authorized to dispose of, under the direction of the governor and council, any of the timber lands appropriated for the benefit of common schools and primary instruction, either at public or private sale, in like manner and on the same terms and conditions that other timber lands in this state are disposed of, notwithstanding the number of townships authorized to be sold in any one year may have been disposed of from such other lands.

Lands appropriated for the benefit of education, how disposed of.

[Approved August 13, 1849.]

Chapter 130.

An act abolishing the February term of the district court in the county of Aroostook.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. So much of the seventh section of "an act additional to chapter ninety-seven of the revised statutes," as requires a term of the district court to be holden annually at Houlton, in the county of Aroostook, on the second Tuesday of February, is hereby repealed.

February term of the Dis. Court in Aroostook co. abolished.

SECT. 2. All matters and things which may be pending in or returnable to said court, shall be returnable to and have day in and be acted upon at the September term of said court.

Matters and things pending in or returnable to said court, to be acted upon at Sept. term.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force in thirty days after its signature by the governor.

[Approved August 13, 1849.]
