PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1855.

Chapter 126.

An act in amendment of the ninety-first chapter of the revised statutes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. The sixth section of the ninety-first chapter of the revised statutes is hereby amended, by adding thereto the following words : and the same effect shall follow the conveyance in fee of an estate held by a minor, as tenant in tail, when such conveyance is made by his guardian, under license from the probate court, for the purpose of meeting the expenses of his education, or that the proceeds may be invested, on interest, for his benefit ; provided all the steps required by law, preliminary to such sale, shall have been duly complied with ; so that the whole section shall read as follows, namely :

Chap. 91, sec. 6
R. S. amended.

“SECT. 6. Any person actually seized of lands, as tenant in tail, may convey the same in fee simple ; and such conveyance shall bar the estate tail, and all the remainders and reversions expectant thereon. And the same effect shall follow the conveyance in fee of an estate held by a minor as tenant in tail, when such conveyance is made by his guardian, under license from the probate court, for the purpose of meeting the expenses of his education, or that the proceeds may be invested, on interest, for his benefit ; provided all the proceedings required by law, preliminary to such sale, shall have been duly complied with.”
