Chapter 23.

Resolve in relation to township L, range two.

Resolved, That the land agent be directed to cause an examination to be made by some competent person of township L, range two, in Aroostook county, one-half of which has been heretofore purchased by George W. Smith, and is now forfeited to the state. And the land agent, on said examination, shall determine the value of said township, and convey to said Smith in severalty, an amount equal to one-half township, upon receiving the payment for the same in cash, within six months of the time the value is fixed by the land agent. The part of the land retained by the state shall embrace all the settlers' lots, and the land of the quality and situation which will best provide for the future settlement of said township. All sums heretofore paid by said Smith for said land, more than the amount of stumpage received by him from the same, are to be deducted from the purchase money. And the conveyance aforesaid is to be in full for all claims on the state for a grant of land on account of the erection of mills near these premises by said Smith.
