PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1860.

Chapter 155.

An act additional to chapter seventy-eight of the revised statutes changing the time of holding the court of county commissioners for the county of York.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. The county commissioners for the county of York shall hold a session at Alfred within and for said county, on the second Tuesday of April annually, instead of on the day now provided by law.

Session of court in April.

SECT. 2. All matters and things returnable to, and which would but for the provisions of this act, have day at the term of said court provided to be held in said county on the Tuesday next preceding the last Monday of May, shall be returnable to, and have day at the term of said court to be held on the second Tuesday of April next.

Matters returnable, transferred.

SECT. 3. All parts of the act to which this is additional inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed ; and this act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor.

Acts inconsistent repealed.

[Approved March 17, 1860.]

Chapter 156.

An act additional to chapter twenty of the revised statutes in relation to ferries.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Any person furnishing for hire, a boat or other craft, for the purpose of transporting passengers over any ferry established by law, shall be subject to the same penalties provided for the protection of ferries, by chapter twenty, section six of the revised statutes.

Penalties of ch. 20, sec. 6, applicable.

[Approved March 17, 1860.]

Chapter 157.

An act for the more speedy trial of indictments.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Any person indicted is entitled to a speedy, public and impartial trial, according to the provisions of the constitution, although he may never have been arrested, provided he demands the same in person in open court.

Persons indicted may demand trial.

[Approved March 17, 1860.]
