RESOLVES

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1861.

Chapter 49.

CHAP. 49.

Resolve to simplify the resolves of this state.

WHEREAS, the resolves of this state, after legislation of forty years, have become greatly complicated, rendering it difficult to separate those which have the force of law, from those which have ceased to be operative, and whereas, sundry and serious mistakes in legislation arise from this source, therefore,

Resolved, That the secretary of state, with the assistance of some competent person, to be employed by him, be instructed to prepare an accurate list and digest of those resolves which have the force of law, and to lay the same in written form before the next legislature.

Preamble.

Secretary of state to prepare list of certain resolves, &c.

[Approved March 13, 1861.]
