PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1866.

CHAP. 41.Chapter 41.

An act to increase the salary of the county attorney for the county of Knox.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Salary to be $500 per annum after Jan. 1, 1866.

From and after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, the salary of the county attorney for the county of Knox shall be five hundred dollars, instead of the sum now allowed by law.

Approved February 21, 1866.

Chapter 42.

An act to establish the salary of the judge of probate for the county of Penobscot.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Salary increased to $700 per annum.

SECT. 1. The salary of the judge of probate for the county of Penobscot, instead of the salary as now fixed by law, shall be seven hundred dollars per year, payable quarterly.

Laws inconsistent, repealed.

SECT. 2. All provisions of law inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 23, 1866.

Chapter 43.

An act to regulate the inspection of flour.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Appointment of inspectors authorized; manufacturers and dealers not eligible.

SECT. 1. The mayor and aldermen of cities and the selectmen of towns, in this state, are hereby authorized to appoint annually, in their respective cities and towns, one or more suitable persons to be inspectors of flour, for the period of one year from the date of appointment, but no one who is interested in the manufacture, or sale of flour, shall be so appointed.

Inspectors to be sworn and receive certificate of appointment.

SECT. 2. Every such inspector, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall be sworn to the faithful and impartial discharge of the same, before the clerk of the city or town in which he is appointed, and such clerk shall give him a certificate of his appointment and qualification, upon payment of a fee of fifty cents, which certificate shall be exhibited on the demand of any person interested in any inspection made by the holder of it.
