PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1870.

'SECT. 1. The mayor and aldermen of cities and selectmen of towns shall, upon the application of ten legal voters in such city or town, annually appoint one or more persons to be inspectors of milk, provided such city or town contains not less than three thousand inhabitants, who shall, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of their office, be sworn. Each inspector shall give notice of his appointment by publishing the same two weeks in a newspaper published in his city or town, or if no newspaper is published therein, by posting up such notice in two or more public places in said town.'

CHAP. 117.

Appointment of inspectors of milk made imperative, upon the application of ten legal voters.

Approved March 9, 1870.

Chapter 117.

An act to amend chapter one hundred and one of the laws of eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, relating to drainage.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Any person, persons or corporation, having the ownership, possession or right to drain any lands, swamps, meadows, quarries or mines by virtue of the act entitled "an act relating to drainage," approved April second, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, or by their charter, or other act of the legislature, and having a drain or ditch already constructed for that purpose, shall have the power to improve, deepen and repair from time to time such drain or ditch in such a manner as shall be necessary to make it effective, and shall have the right to remove and use any rock, earth or other material which shall be necessary in making such improvements, and to enter upon the lands through which such drain or ditch passes for that purpose.

Public laws 1859, chap. 101, relating to drainage, amended.

SECT. 2. All damages sustained by any person by reason of such improvement, the value of the royalty or stumpage on the rock, and of the other material removed and used, may be recovered against the person, persons or corporation taking said rock, earth or other material, in an action on the case, or upon application to the county commissioners at the election of the party injured; and in case he shall elect the latter, the same proceedings shall be had for the purpose of ascertaining such damage, and to recover the same, as are now provided in estimating damages by a jury in case of laying out public highways.

Damages, how recovered.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 10, 1870.
