two, when amended, shall read as follows: 'The board shall appraise the value of the minority's proportion of the house, make a record of their proceedings, and within ten days cause it to be transcribed into the records of the town where the house is.'

CHAP. 138.

Approved March 14, 1870.

Chapter 138.

An act to amend section one of chapter eighty-seven of the public laws of eighteen hundred sixty-two, relating to appeals from decision of county commissioners.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. Section one of chapter eighty-seven of the public laws of eighteen hundred sixty-two, is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: 'If the judgment of the commissioners in favor of laying out or altering a way as prayed for is wholly reversed on an appeal, they shall proceed no further; and in all cases when the judgment of the commissioner shall be reversed on appeal, no petition praying for substantially the same thing shall be entertained by them for two years thereafter. If their judgment is affirmed in whole or in part they shall carry into effect the judgment of the appellate court; and in all cases they shall carry into full effect the judgment of the appellate court in the same manner as if made by themselves, and the party appealing or prosecuting shall pay the costs incurred since the appeal, if so adjudged by the appellate court, which may allow costs in such cases to the prevailing party, to be paid out of the county treasury. The compensation of the committee to be paid the same as commissioners would have for like services to be allowed by the court. The costs allowed the prevailing party and the fees of the committee are to be collected as provided in section three.'

Public laws 1862, chap. 87, sect. 1, relating to appeals from decisions of county commissioners in matters appertaining to highways, amended.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 14, 1870.

Chapter 139.

An act to amend section one of chapter thirty-four of the revised statutes, relating to licensing auctioneers.
