OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1870.

CHAP. 314.

Chapter 314.

An act to set off certain estates, with the inhabitants thereon, from the Norway Village Corporation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Certain persons and estates set off from Norway Village Corporation.

SECT. 1. The farm known as the John Pike farm, owned by Deborah Whitney, Rolf S. Freeman's farm, the John Bird farm, occupied by Samuel and Hiram Mathews, the William Young farm, and Whitney pasture, owned by Jonathan Blake, and Cyrus Witt's farm in the town of Norway, together with the inhabitants thereon, are hereby set off from the Norway Village Corporation, and shall no longer be entitled to the privileges granted, or be subject to the duties prescribed in the act creating said corporation.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 7, 1870.

Chapter 315.

An act to incorporate the Whiton Carriage Manufacturing Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Corporators.

Name.

By-laws.

SECT. 1. Phineas Yeaton, Walter F. Whiton, George H. Yeaton, G. L. Boynton, John L. Crosby and John P. Whiton, with their associates and successors, be, and hereby are made a body politic and corporate by the name of the Whiton Carriage Manufacturing Company, of Bangor, and may exercise all the powers and privileges which are now held by similar companies incorporated in this state, and make such by-laws as they may deem advisable, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, in relation to such companies.

Capital stock, amount, and how paid in.

SECT. 2. The capital stock of said company shall be fifty thousand dollars, with liberty to increase the same to one hundred thousand dollars, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each ; one-fourth part of said capital shall be actually paid in before commencing business, and the remaining three-fourth parts in six, twelve and eighteen months respectively, next after the payment of the first fourth part of said capital stock. Or if the business of said company shall, in the judgment of the directors, require the earlier payment of said three-fourth parts, or either of them, in which case the same shall be paid at such earlier time or times as said directors shall determine, of which due notice
