OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1870.

Chapter 361.

An act to incorporate the Dresden Ice Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Corporators.

SECT. 1. Arthur Berry, George E. Holyoke, G. A. Colburn, Fred A. Berry, Elbridge Berry, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby constituted and declared to be a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Dresden Ice Company, and by that name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, use a common seal, make by-laws for the management of their affairs, not repugnant to the constitution or the laws of this state, and to have and enjoy all the powers and privileges, and be subject to all the duties and liabilities incident to similar corporations in this state.

Name.

By-laws.

Powers and liabilities.

Capital stock, amount of, and how divided.

SECT. 2. The capital stock of said corporation shall not be less than fifty thousand, nor more than two hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each.

Authorized to hold real and personal estate.

SECT. 3. Said company is hereby authorized to purchase and hold such real and personal estate as a majority in interest of said stockholders may determine to be convenient and necessary to effect the object and carry out the purposes of their corporation, and to sell and dispose of the same as they may deem expedient.

May construct wharves, ships, piers, &c.

SECT. 4. For the purpose of facilitating the cutting and harvesting of ice, and to enable said company to remove, house, pack, load and ship the same, said corporation shall have the right to construct, erect, build and maintain upon their own land, or upon land of others, by the consent in writing of the owners thereof, and in tide waters of the Kennebec river, all necessary wharves, slips, piers and other constructions, upon the margin of said river, in the town of Dresden, and to extend the same below low water mark, but not to interfere with the navigation of said river, or to impair the rights or privileges of any other person or corporation.

First meeting, how called.

SECT. 5. Any three of the corporators herein named are hereby empowered to call the first meeting of said corporation, by giving such previous notice as they may think proper, at which meeting any corporate business may be transacted.

SECT. 6. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 26, 1870.
