Chapter 188.

CHAP. 188.

An act additional to section twenty-five of chapter eighteen of the revised statutes, in relation to petitions for increase of damages by reason of the laying out, altering or widening of town ways.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. When a petition for increase of damages, provided by section twenty-five of chapter eighteen of the revised statutes, is presented to the county commissioners, they shall at their first regular term thereafter, order a notice to the town interested in such petition, to appear at the next regular term, and the case shall stand continued, and no jury shall be summoned until all parties in interest have been notified and had an opportunity to be present and enter into an agreement for a committee as provided by section eight of the same chapter.

R. S., chap. 18, sect. 25, relating to petitions for increase of damages by reason of town ways, amended.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 15, 1871.

Chapter 189.

An act to amend section forty-seven of chapter twenty-seven of the revised statutes, concerning recognizances in appeals from magistrates.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECTION 1. Section forty-seven of chapter twenty-seven of the revised statutes, is hereby amended, by striking out the following words : "In case of appeal from a sentence of imprisonment under the twenty-eighth section, the penal sum of recognizement shall be two hundred dollars ; and in all other appeals from any other judgment or sentence of a magistrate in proceedings under this chapter, relating to drinking houses and tippling shops, the penal sum of the recognizance shall be one hundred dollars ;" and in the sixteenth line by striking out the words "in such case," and insert instead thereof 'under so much of this chapter as relates to intoxicating liquors,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows :

R. S., chap. 27, sect. 47, relating to recognizances in appeals from magistrates, amended.

'Sect. 47. If any party shall appeal, the proceedings in all matters shall be the same in the appellate court as they would be upon the same matters in the court of the magistrate, and said proceedings shall be conducted in said court by the attorney for the state in the county where the proceedings are pending. The jury shall find specially under the direction of the court, on all facts necessary to determine the adjudication of the court ; and if

Proceedings in the appellate court.
