Chapter 237.

An act to amend section fourteen of chapter one hundred and thirty-four of the revised statutes, relating to compensation of counsel in capital cases.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section fourteen of chapter one hundred and thirty-four of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting, after the word "compensation," in the ninth line of said section, the following words, 'not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars in all at any one trial,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Sec. 14, ch. 134, R. S., amendment of.

SECT. 14. The clerk shall, without charge, furnish to any person indicted for a crime punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, a copy of the indictment; if he is indicted for a crime punishable by death, or imprisonment in the state prison for life, he shall furnish a copy of the indictment; a list of the jurors returned; and process to obtain witnesses, to be summoned and paid at the expense of the state. Competent counsel shall be assigned by the court in capital cases, when it appears that the accused has not sufficient means to employ counsel, and reasonable compensation, not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars in all at any one trial, shall be allowed by the court, to be paid out of the state treasury.'

Persons indicted for crime to be furnished with copy of indictment.

Counsel to be assigned in capital cases.

—compensation of.

Approved March 3, 1874.
