Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Ch. 139, public
laws 1873,
amended.

Chapter one hundred and thirty-nine of the public laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-three, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Attachments to continue in certain cases
where plaintiff
dies.

‘When the plaintiff in an action dies before the expiration of thirty days from the rendition of judgment in his favor, or before the expiration of thirty days after the next term of court, in the county where the action was pending, in cases where a certificate of decision, provided for in chapter seventy-seven of the revised statutes, shall be received by the clerk of said county, in vacation, and no suggestion of such death has been made upon the docket of said courts, execution may issue as is now provided, and all attachments then in force shall continue ninety days after the next term of the court in that county; and if the defendant was arrested on mesne process, and gave bond to disclose after judgment, he may do so after said next term without breach of his bond.’

If defendant
has been arrested,—proceedings.
