OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1879.

Chapter 122.

An Act to make valid the doings of the town of Milbridge, in relation to the building of a School House in Pearl District, in said town.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. All the doings of the town of Milbridge at its annual meeting in March eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, in relation to the building of a school house in Pearl District, so called, in said town, and all the doings of the officers of said town in building said school house, and in assessing the tax voted by the town for that purpose, are hereby made legal and valid.

Doings of town of Milbridge at March meeting 1878 legalized.

SECT. 2. This act shall not affect actions already commenced.

Approved February 6, 1879.

Chapter 123.

An Act to prevent the destruction of smelts in the Medomak river and its tributaries.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. All persons are hereby prohibited from taking any smelts from the Medomak river or its tributaries, in the county of Lincoln, by means of weirs, drag nets, traps or other contrivances than hook and line and dip net.

Smelts in Medomak river protected.

SECT. 2. Whoever shall violate the provisions of this act, shall, on conviction of the same, before any trial justice of said county of Lincoln, be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars, nor more than twenty dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail, for a term not exceeding ten days.

Penalty for violation.

SECT. 3. All fines, under the second section of this act, shall be divided as follows: one-half to the complainant, and one-half to the use of the State.

Disposition of fines.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 6, 1879.
